

WORKS OF HEART

Celebrate the people you love on Valentine's Day with party guru Darcy Miller's printable illustrations and DIY gifts. Download the how-tos and templates here.

Featured in the February 2020
Better Homes
& Gardens® magazine.

VALENTINES CARDS

Inspired by whimsical classroom valentines.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

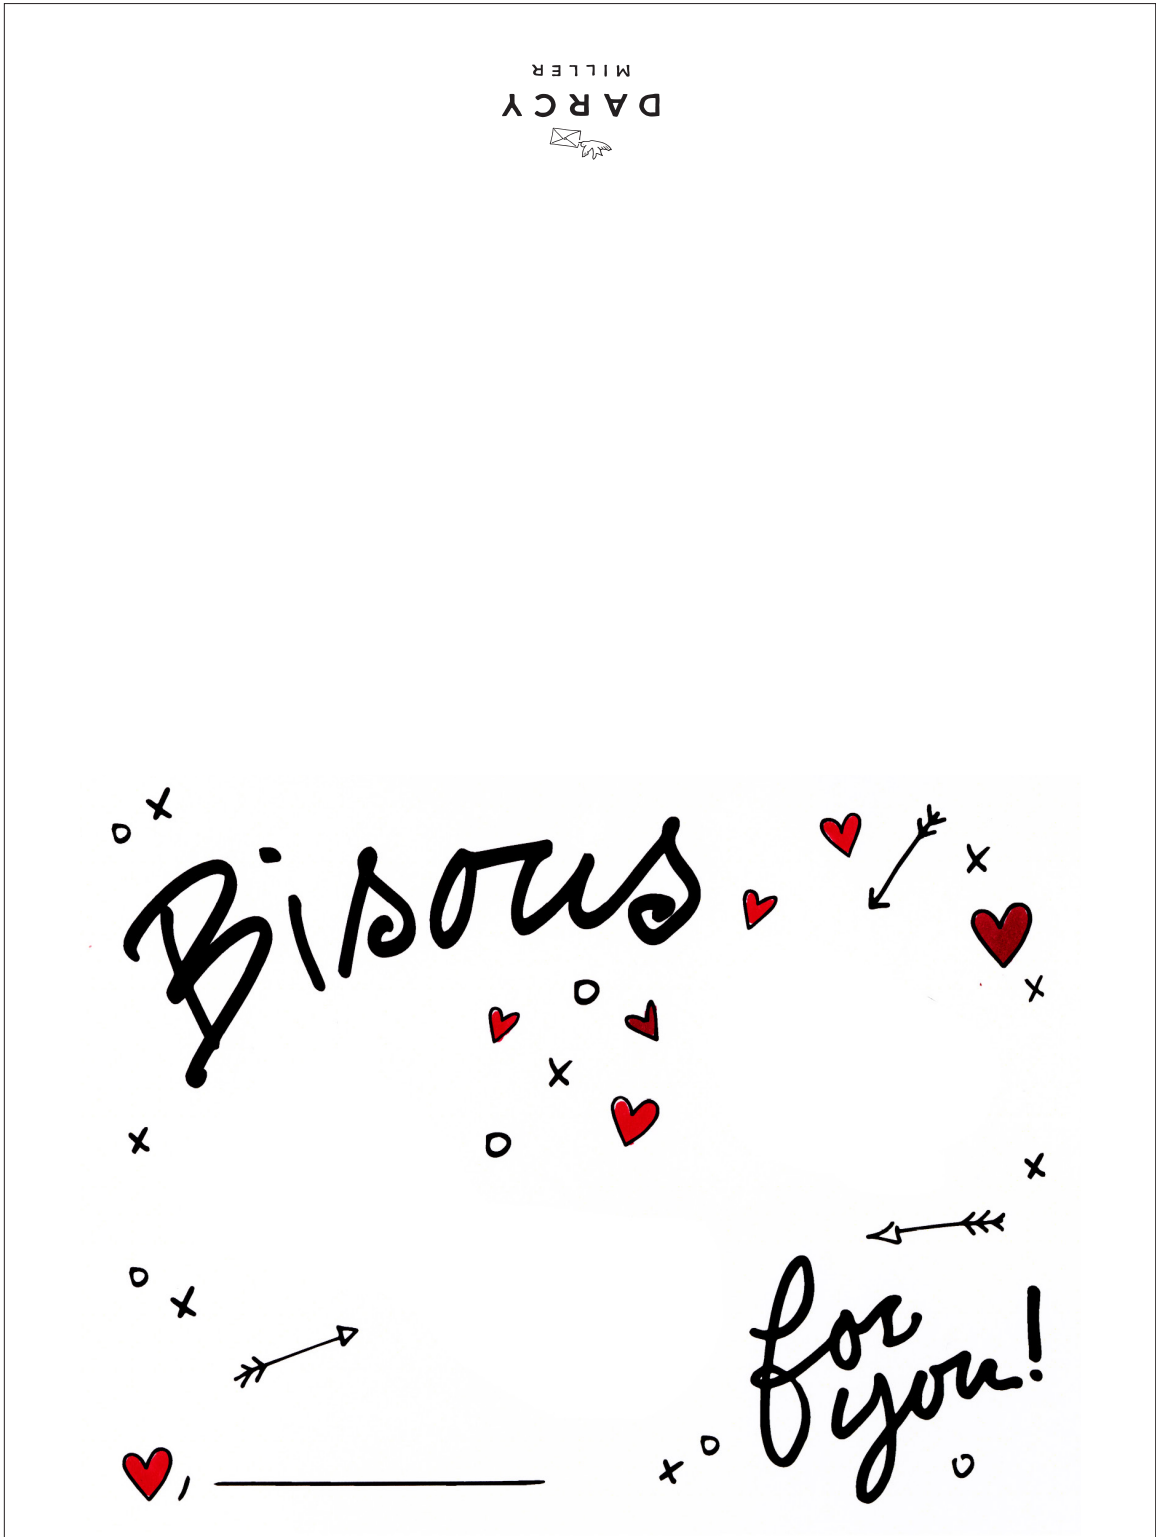

- Darcy Miller's template
- White letter paper or 110-lb. cardstock if your printer accommodates it
- 4"x6" Envelopes
- Scissors
- Double-stick tape or a glue stick (hot-glue gun will melt chocolate)
- Chocolate hearts and lips (Darcy used Madelaine Chocolates; amazon.com)

HOW TO:

1. Download templates on next three pages.
2. Print artwork onto preferred paper or cardstock.
3. Cut out cards along thin black lines.
4. Fold in half to form a card.
5. Tape or glue on chocolates. For a sugar-free option, draw on hearts or add lipstick marks.

VALENTINES CARDS

DARCY
MILLER

Cut out along thin black line.

VALENTINES CARDS

DARCY
MILLER

Cut out along thin black line.

VALENTINES CARDS

DARCY
MILLER

Cut out along thin black line.

PERFUME BOTTLES

When recipients open these “perfume bottles,” the only fragrance will be sugar, thanks to the candy filling.

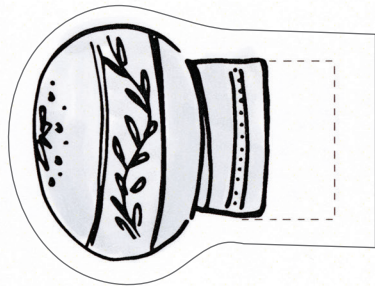

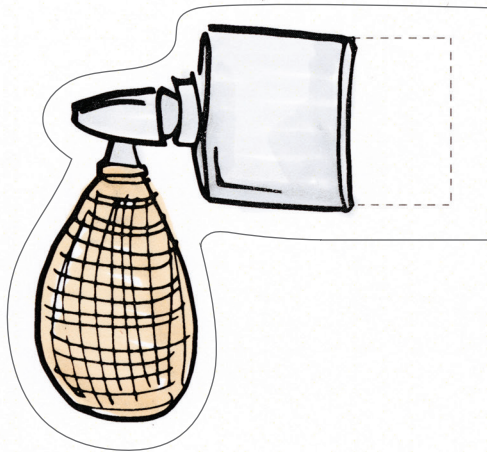

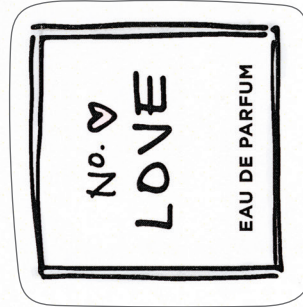

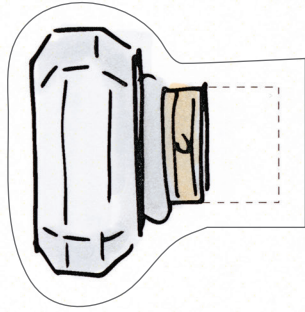

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- Darcy Miller's template for bottle tops and labels
- White letter paper or 110-lb. cardstock if your printer accommodates it
- Plastic candy boxes (2×2×2" or 2×2×3"; amazon.com)
- Small candies, such as jelly beans, Sixlets, or Jordan almonds, to fill boxes (nuts.com)
- Double-stick tape or a glue stick (hot-glue gun will melt plastic)

HOW TO:

1. Download templates for bottle tops and labels on next page.
2. Print artwork onto preferred paper or cardstock.
3. Cut out artwork along thin black line.
4. Assemble candy boxes and fill with small candies.
5. Fold bottle top artwork along dashed line so that it stands upright. Tape or glue bottom onto top of box.
6. Tape or glue label onto front of box.

PERFUME BOTTLES

Cut out artwork along thin black line.

HEART PILLARS

Croquembouche—a towering French dessert of cream puffs—inspired these easy-to-assemble treats.

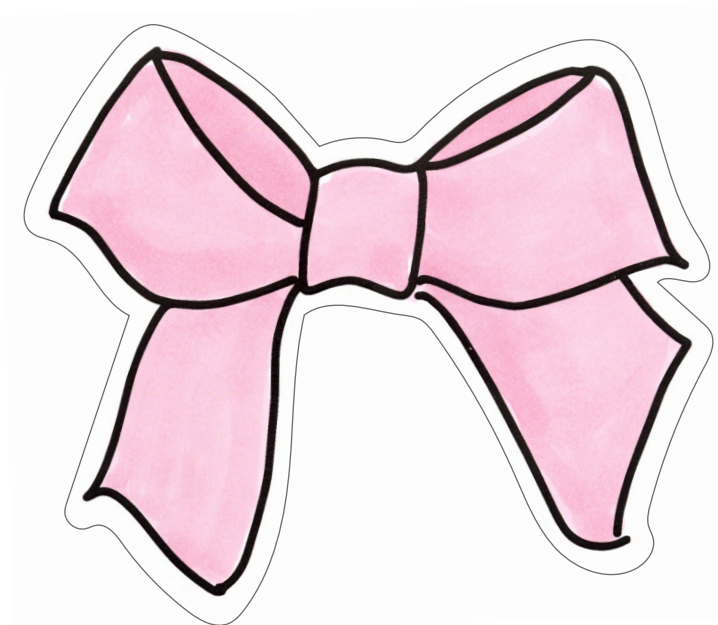

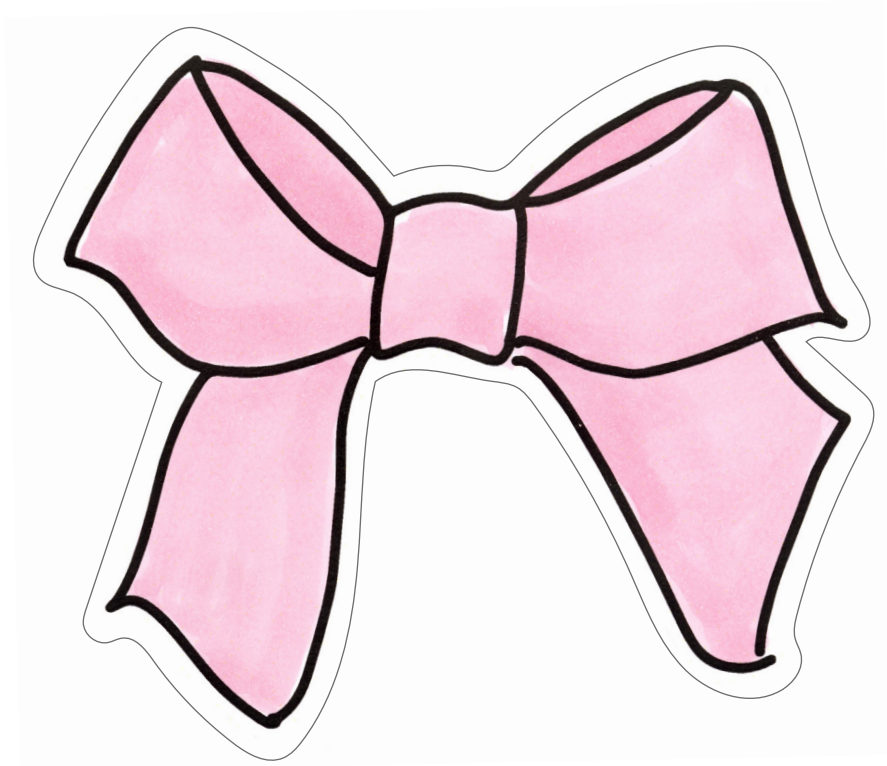

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- Darcy Miller's template for ribbon topper
- White letter paper or 110-lb. cardstock if your printer accommodates it
- Glue
- Toothpicks
- White foam cones (available in multiple sizes at michaels.com)
- Plastic wrap
- Buttercream frosting (one 10-oz. tub per cone)
- 1½" heart-shape marshmallows (amazon.com)

HOW TO:

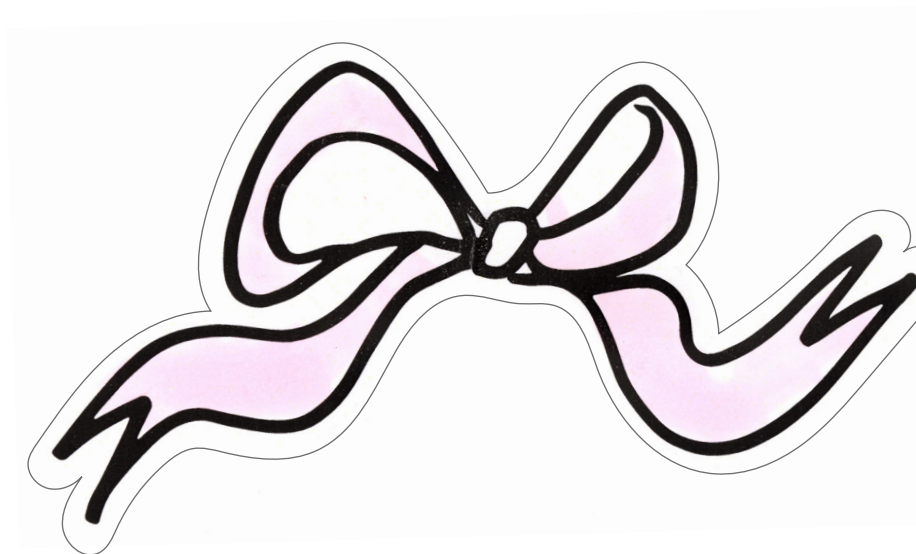

1. Download templates for cone toppers on next two pages.
2. Print artwork onto preferred paper or cardstock.
3. Cut out artwork and glue to top of a toothpick. Set aside to dry.
4. Wrap cone in plastic wrap to make food safe.
5. Working in sections from the bottom up, coat an approximately 6" square of the cone in frosting. Press marshmallows on closely to minimize gaps.
6. Repeat, working your way up to cover the cone.
7. Add bow topper by inserting the toothpick into cone top.

HEART PILLARS

Cut out artwork along thin black line.

HEART PILLARS

Cut out artwork along thin black line.