Justice Department, Federal and State Partners Secure Record $13 Billion Global Settlement with JPMorgan for Misleading Investors About Securities Containing Toxic Mortgages

CORRECTION: The release below previously stated that New York is receiving $613.8 million in this settlement, however, the number is $613.0 million. This correction notice was posted on Nov. 20, 2013.

The Justice Department, along with federal and state partners, today announced a $13 billion settlement with JPMorgan - the largest settlement with a single entity in American history - to resolve federal and state civil claims arising out of the packaging, marketing, sale and issuance of residential mortgage-backed securities (RMBS) by JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual prior to Jan. 1, 2009. As part of the settlement, JPMorgan acknowledged it made serious misrepresentations to the public - including the investing public - about numerous RMBS transactions. The resolution also requires JPMorgan to provide much needed relief to underwater homeowners and potential homebuyers, including those in distressed areas of the country. The settlement does not absolve JPMorgan or its employees from facing any possible criminal charges.

This settlement is part of the ongoing efforts of President Obama's Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force's RMBS Working Group.

"Without a doubt, the conduct uncovered in this investigation helped sow the seeds of the mortgage meltdown," said Attorney General Eric Holder. "JPMorgan was not the only financial institution during this period to knowingly bundle toxic loans and sell them to unsuspecting investors, but that is no excuse for the firm's behavior. The size and scope of this resolution should send a clear signal that the Justice Department's financial fraud investigations are far from over. No firm, no matter how profitable, is above the law, and the passage of time is no shield from accountability. I want to personally thank the RMBS Working Group for its tireless work not only in this case, but also in the investigations that remain ongoing."

The settlement includes a statement of facts, in which JPMorgan acknowledges that it regularly represented to RMBS investors that the mortgage loans in various securities complied with underwriting guidelines. Contrary to those representations, as the statement of facts explains, on a number of different occasions, JPMorgan employees knew that the loans in question did not comply with those guidelines and were not otherwise appropriate for securitization, but they allowed the loans to be securitized - and those securities to be sold - without disclosing this information to investors. This conduct, along with similar conduct by other banks that bundled toxic loans into securities and misled investors who purchased those securities, contributed to the financial crisis.

"Through this $13 billion resolution, we are demanding accountability and requiring remediation from those who helped create a financial storm that devastated millions of Americans," said Associate Attorney General Tony West. "The conduct JPMorgan has acknowledged - packaging risky home loans into securities, then selling them without disclosing their low quality to investors - contributed to the wreckage of the financial crisis. By requiring JPMorgan both to pay the largest FIRREA penalty in history and provide needed consumer relief to areas hardest hit by the financial crisis, we rectify some of that harm today."

Of the record-breaking $13 billion resolution, $9 billion will be paid to settle federal and state civil claims by various entities related to RMBS. Of that $9 billion, JPMorgan will pay $2 billion as a civil penalty to settle the Justice Department claims under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act (FIRREA), $1.4 billion to settle federal and state securities claims by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), $515.4 million to settle federal and state securities claims by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), $4 billion to settle federal and state claims by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA), $298.9 million to settle claims by the State of California, $19.7 million to settle claims by the State of Delaware, $100 million to settle claims by the State of Illinois, $34.4 million to settle claims by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and $613 million to settle claims by the State of New York.

JPMorgan will pay out the remaining $4 billion in the form of relief to aid consumers harmed by the unlawful conduct of JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual. That relief will take various forms, including principal forgiveness, loan modification, targeted originations and efforts to reduce blight. An independent monitor will be appointed to determine whether JPMorgan is satisfying its obligations. If JPMorgan fails to live up to its agreement by Dec. 31, 2017, it must pay liquidated damages in the amount of the shortfall to NeighborWorks America, a non-profit organization and leader in providing affordable housing and facilitating community development.

The U.S. Attorney's Offices for the Eastern District of California and Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the Justice Department's Civil Division, along with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas, conducted investigations into JPMorgan's, Washington Mutual's and Bear Stearns' practices related to the sale and issuance of RMBS between 2005 and 2008.

"Today's global settlement underscores the power of FIRREA and other civil enforcement tools for combatting financial fraud," said Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Division Stuart F. Delery, co-chair of the RMBS Working Group. "The Civil Division, working with the U.S. Attorney's Offices and our state and agency partners, will continue to use every available resource to aggressively pursue those responsible for the financial crisis."

"Abuses in the mortgage-backed securities industry helped turn a crisis in the housing market into an international financial crisis," said U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of California Benjamin Wagner. "The impacts were staggering. JPMorgan sold securities knowing that many of the loans backing those certificates were toxic. Credit unions, banks and other investor victims across the country, including many in the Eastern District of California, continue to struggle with losses they suffered as a result. In the Eastern District of California, we have worked hard to prosecute fraud in the mortgage industry. We are equally committed to holding accountable those in the securities industry who profited through the sale of defective mortgages."

"Today's settlement represents another significant step towards holding accountable those banks which exploited the residential mortgage-backed securities market and harmed numerous individuals and entities in the process," said U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania Zane David Memeger. "These banks packaged and sold toxic mortgage-backed securities, which violated the law and contributed to the financial crisis. It is particularly important that JPMorgan, after assuming the significant assets of Washington Mutual Bank, is now also held responsible for the unscrupulous and deceptive conduct of Washington Mutual, one of the biggest players in the mortgage-backed securities market."

This settlement resolves only civil claims arising out of the RMBS packaged, marketed, sold and issued by JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual. The agreement does not release individuals from civil charges, nor does it release JPMorgan or any individuals from potential criminal prosecution. In addition, as part of the settlement, JPMorgan has pledged to fully cooperate in investigations related to the conduct covered by the agreement.

To keep JPMorgan from seeking reimbursement from the federal government for any money it pays pursuant to this resolution, the Justice Department required language in the settlement agreement which prohibits JPMorgan from demanding indemnification from the FDIC, both in its capacity as a corporate entity and as the receiver for Washington Mutual.

"The settlement announced today will provide a significant recovery for six FDIC receiverships. It also fully protects the FDIC from indemnification claims out of this settlement," said FDIC Chairman Martin J. Gruenberg. "The FDIC will continue to pursue litigation where necessary in order to recover as much as possible for FDIC receiverships, money that is ultimately returned to the Deposit Insurance Fund, uninsured depositors and creditors of failed banks."

“NCUA’s Board extends our thanks and appreciation to our attorneys and to the Department of Justice, who have worked closely together for more than three years to bring this matter to a successful resolution,” said NCUA Board Chairman Debbie Matz. “The faulty mortgage-backed securities created and packaged by JPMorgan and other institutions created a crisis in the credit union industry, and we’re pleased a measure of accountability has been reached.”

“JPMorgan and the banks it bought securitized billions of dollars of defective mortgages,” said Acting FHFA Inspector General Michael P. Stephens. “Investors, including Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, suffered enormous losses by purchasing RMBS from JPMorgan, Washington Mutual and Bear Stearns not knowing about those defects. Today’s settlement is a significant, but by no means final step by FHFA-OIG and its law enforcement partners to hold accountable those who committed acts of fraud and deceit. We are proud to have worked with the Department of Justice, the U.S. attorneys in Sacramento and Philadelphia and the New York and California state attorneys general; they have been great partners and we look forward to our continued work together.”

The attorneys general of New York, California, Delaware, Illinois and Massachusetts also conducted related investigations that were critical to bringing about this settlement.

“Since my first day in office, I have insisted that there must be accountability for the misconduct that led to the crash of the housing market and the collapse of the American economy,” said New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman, Co-Chair of the RMBS Working Group. “This historic deal, which will bring long overdue relief to homeowners around the country and across New York, is exactly what our working group was created to do. We refused to allow systemic frauds that harmed so many New York homeowners and investors to simply be forgotten, and as a result we’ve won a major victory today in the fight to hold those who caused the financial crisis accountable.”

“JP Morgan Chase profited by giving California’s pension funds incomplete information about mortgage investments,” California Attorney General Kamala D. Harris said. “This settlement returns the money to California’s pension funds that JP Morgan wrongfully took from them.”

“Our financial system only works when everyone plays by the rules,” said Delaware Attorney General Beau Biden. “Today, as a result of our coordinated investigations, we are holding accountable one of the financial institutions that, by breaking those rules, helped cause the economic crisis that brought our nation to its knees. Even as the American people recover from this crisis, we will continue to seek accountability on their behalf.”

“We are still cleaning up the mess that Wall Street made with its reckless investment schemes and fraudulent conduct,” said Illinois Attorney General Lisa Madigan. “Today’s settlement with JPMorgan will assist Illinois in recovering its losses from the dangerous and deceptive securities that put our economy on the path to destruction.”

“This is a historic settlement that will help us to hold accountable those investment banks that played a role in creating and exacerbating the housing crisis,” said Massachusetts Attorney General Martha Coakley. “We appreciate the work of the Department of Justice and the other enforcement agencies in bringing about this resolution and look forward to continuing to work together in other securitization cases.”

The RMBS Working Group is a federal and state law enforcement effort focused on investigating fraud and abuse in the RMBS market that helped lead to the 2008 financial crisis. The RMBS Working Group brings together more than 200 attorneys, investigators, analysts and staff from dozens of state and federal agencies including the Department of Justice, 10 U.S. attorney’s offices, the FBI, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), HUD’s Office of Inspector General, the FHFA-OIG, the Office of the Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program, the Federal Reserve Board’s Office of Inspector General, the Recovery Accountability and Transparency Board, the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, and more than 10 state attorneys general offices around the country.

The RMBS Working Group is led by five co-chairs: Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Division Stuart Delery, Acting Assistant Attorney General for the Criminal Division Mythili Raman, Co-Director of the SEC’s Division of Enforcement George Canellos, U.S. Attorney for the District of Colorado John Walsh and New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman.

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into between the United States acting through the United States Department of Justice (“Department of Justice”), along with the States of California, Delaware, and Illinois, and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, acting through their respective Attorneys General (collectively, “the States”), and JPMorgan Chase & Co. (“JPMorgan”). The United States, the States and JPMorgan are collectively referred to herein as “the Parties.”

RECITALS

A. The Department of Justice conducted investigations of the packaging, marketing, sale and issuance of residential mortgage-backed securities (“RMBS”) by JPMorgan, The Bear Stearns Companies, Inc. (“Bear Stearns”) and Washington Mutual Bank (“Washington Mutual”) between 2005 and 2008. Based on those investigations, the United States believes that there is an evidentiary basis to compromise potential legal claims by the United States against JPMorgan, Bear Stearns, and Washington Mutual, for violation of federal laws in connection with the packaging, marketing, sale and issuance of RMBS.

B. The States, based on their independent investigations of the same conduct and time period, believe that there is an evidentiary basis to compromise potential legal claims by California, Delaware, Illinois and Massachusetts against JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual, for state law violations in connection with the packaging, marketing, sale and issuance of RMBS.

C. JPMorgan and Bear Stearns have resolved claims brought by the State of New York alleging violations of New York law in connection with the packaging, marketing, sale and issuance of RMBS by Bear Stearns. The terms of the resolution of those claims are memorialized in a separate agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit A.

D. JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual have resolved claims brought by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (“FHFA”), as conservator of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, alleging violations of federal and state laws in connection with private-label RMBS issued, underwritten, and/or sold by JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual and purchased by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. The terms of the resolution of those claims are memorialized in a separate agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit B.

E. JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual have resolved claims brought by the National Credit Union Administration Board, as Liquidating Agent of U.S. Central Federal Credit Union, Western Corporate Federal Credit Union, Southwest Corporate Federal Credit Union, Members United Corporate Federal Credit Union and Constitution Corporate Federal Credit Union (collectively, the “Credit Unions,” and the National Credit Union Administration Board as liquidating agent for each Credit Union and the Credit Unions collectively, the “NCUA”), alleging violations of federal and state securities laws in connection with private-label RMBS issued, underwritten, and/or sold by JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual and purchased by the Credit Unions. The terms of the resolution of those claims are memorialized in a separate agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit C.

F. JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual have resolved claims, potential and filed, by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”), as receiver for Strategic Capital Bank, Citizens National Bank, Colonial Bank, Guaranty Bank, Irwin Union Bank and Trust Company, and United Western Bank alleging violations of federal and state securities laws in connection with private-label RMBS issued, underwritten, and/or sold by JPMorgan, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual and purchased by Strategic Capital Bank, Citizens National Bank, Colonial Bank, Guaranty Bank, Irwin Union Bank and Trust Company, and United Western Bank. The terms of the resolution of those claims are memorialized in a separate agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit D.

G. As a term of this Agreement, JPMorgan acknowledges the facts set out in the Statement of Facts set forth in Annex 1, attached and hereby incorporated.

H. In consideration of the mutual promises and obligations of this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

Statement of Facts

Between 2005 and 2007, affiliates of each of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (“JPMorgan”)¹, The Bear Stearns Companies, Inc. (“Bear Stearns”), and Washington Mutual Bank (“WaMu”) securitized large amounts of subprime and Alt-A mortgage loans and sold the resulting residential mortgage-backed securities (“RMBS”) to investors, including federally-insured financial institutions. Each of JPMorgan, Bear Stearns, and WaMu developed and maintained mortgage origination and securitization processes and controls, including processes for conducting credit, compliance, and property valuation due diligence on loans prior to acquisition and/or securitization as well as processes for the monitoring of loan originators and sellers based, in part, on the subsequent performance of loans acquired from those parties. JPMorgan, Bear Stearns, and WaMu described these processes to investors in marketing materials, and represented to investors in offering documents that loans generally complied with underwriting guidelines. As discussed below, employees of JPMorgan, Bear Stearns, and WaMu received information that, in certain instances, loans that did not comply with underwriting guidelines were included in the RMBS sold and marketed to investors; however, JPMorgan, Bear Stearns, and WaMu did not disclose this to securitization investors.

JPMorgan

Between 2005 and 2007, JPMorgan purchased loans for the purpose of packaging and selling residential mortgage-backed securities. Before purchasing loans from third parties, employees at JPMorgan conducted “due diligence” to (1) confirm that the mortgage loans were originated consistent with specific origination guidelines provided by the seller, (2) confirm the mortgage loans were originated in compliance with Federal, State, and local laws, rules, and regulations, and (3) confirm that the property collateral had the value represented in the appraisal at the time of origination. Through that due diligence process, JPMorgan employees were informed by due diligence vendors that a number of the loans included in at least some of the loan pools that it purchased and subsequently securitized² did not comply with the originators' underwriting guidelines, and, in the vendors' judgment, did not have sufficient compensating factors, and that a number of the properties securing the loans had appraised values that were higher than the values derived in due diligence testing from automated valuation models, broker price opinions or other valuation due diligence methods. In addition, JPMorgan represented to investors in various offering documents that loans in the securitized pools were originated "generally" in conformity with the loan originator's underwriting guidelines; and that exceptions were made based on "compensating factors," determined after "careful consideration" on a "case-by-case basis." The offering documents further represented, with respect to representations and warranties made to JPMorgan by sellers and originators of the loans, that JPMorgan would not include any loan in a pool being securitized "if anything has come to [JPMorgan's] attention that would cause it to believe that the representations and warranties of a seller or originator will not be accurate and complete in all material respects in respect of the loan as of the date of initial issuance of the related series of securities." Notwithstanding these representations, in certain instances, at the time these representations were made to investors, the loan pools being securitized contained loans that did not comply with the originators' underwriting guidelines.

² There were loans in each of the RMBS reviewed by the Justice Department that did not comply with underwriting guidelines. The following securitizations were reviewed by the Justice Department: JPALT2007-A1, JPMAC 2006-WMC1, JPMAC 2006- WMC2, JPMAC 2006-CW1, JPMAC 2006- ACC1, JPMAC 2006-CW2, JPMAC 2006-WMC3, JPMAC 2006-RM1, JPMAC 2006-HE3, JPMAC 2006- WMC4. The securitizations in question were issued between 2006 and 2007 and had an original unpaid balance of $ 10.28 billion JPMorgan began the process of creating RMBS by purchasing pools of loans from lending institutions, such as Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., or WMC Mortgage Corporation, that originated residential mortgages by making mortgage loans to individual borrowers. After entering into a contract to purchase loans, but prior to purchase, JPMorgan performed “due diligence” on samples of loans from the pool being acquired to ensure that the loans were originated in compliance with the originator’s underwriting guidelines.

JPMorgan salespeople marketed its due diligence process to investors through oral communications that were often scripted by internal sales memoranda, through presentations given at industry conferences, and to certain individual investors. In marketing materials, JPMorgan represented that the originators had a “solid underwriting platform,” and that JPMorgan was familiar with and approved the originators’ underwriting guidelines; that before purchasing a pool, a “thorough due diligence is undertaken to ensure compliance with [underwriting] guidelines”; and that such due diligence was “performed by industry leading 3rd parties (Clayton and Bohan).”

JPMorgan contracted with industry leading third party due diligence vendors to re-underwrite the loans it was purchasing from loan originators. The vendors assigned one of three grades to each of the loans they reviewed. An Event 1 grade meant that the loan complied with underwriting guidelines. An Event 2 meant that the loans did not comply with underwriting guidelines, but had sufficient compensating factors to justify the extension of credit. An Event 3 meant that the vendor concluded that the loan did not comply with underwriting guidelines and was without sufficient compensating factors to justify the loan, including in certain instances because material documents were missing from the loan file being reviewed. JPMorgan reviewed loans scored Event 3 by the vendors and made the final determination regarding each loan's score. Event 3 loans that could not be cured were at times referred to by due diligence personnel at JPMorgan as "rejects." JPMorgan personnel then made the final purchase decisions.

From January 2006 through September 2007, in the course of JPMorgan's acquisition of certain pools of mortgage loans for subsequent securitization, JPMorgan's due diligence vendors graded numerous loans in the samples as Event 3's, meaning that, in the vendors' judgment, they neither complied with the originators' underwriting guidelines nor had sufficient compensating factors, including in many instances because of missing documentation such as appraisals, or proof of income, employment or assets. The exceptions identified by the third-party diligence vendors included, among other things, loans with high loan-to-value ratios (some over 100 percent); high debt-to-income ratios; inadequate or missing documentation of income, assets, and rental/mortgage history; stated incomes that the vendors concluded were unreasonable; and missing appraisals or appraisals that varied from the estimates obtained in the diligence process by an amount greater than JPMorgan's fifteen percent established tolerance. The vendors communicated this information to certain JPMorgan employees.

JPMorgan directed that a number of the uncured Event 3 loans be "waived" into the pools facilitating the purchase of loan pools, which then went into JPMorgan inventory for securitization. In addition to waiving in some of the Event 3 loans on a case-by-case basis, some JPMorgan due diligence managers also ordered "bulk" waivers by directing vendors to override certain exceptions the JPMorgan due diligence managers deemed acceptable across all Event 3 loans with the same exceptions in a pool, without analyzing these loans on a case-by-case basis. JPMorgan due diligence managers sometimes directed these bulk waivers shortly before closing the purchase of a pool. Further, even though the Event 3 rate in the random samples indicated that the un-sampled portion of a pool likely contained additional loans with exceptions, JPMorgan purchased and securitized the loan pools without reviewing and eliminating those loans from the un-sampled portions of the pools.

According to a “trending report” prepared for client marketing purposes by one of JPMorgan’s due diligence vendors (later described by the vendor to be a “beta” or test report), from the first quarter of 2006 through the second quarter of 2007, of the 23,668 loans the vendor reviewed for JPMorgan, 6,238 of them, or 27 percent, were initially graded Event 3 loans and, according to the report, JPMorgan ultimately accepted or waived 3,238 of these Event 3 loans – 50 percent – to Event 2.

During the course of its due diligence process, JPMorgan also performed a valuation review. JPMorgan hired third-party valuation firms to test the appraisal’s estimate of the value of the mortgaged properties through a variety of data points, including (1) automated valuation models, (2) desk reviews of the appraisals by licensed appraisers, and (3) broker price opinions. After reviewing the relevant data, the valuation firm would provide a “final recommendation of value.” JPMorgan had a “tolerance” of 15 percent in the valuation review, meaning that JPMorgan would routinely accept loans for securitization, including those with loan-to-value ratios as high as 100 percent, when the valuation firm’s “final recommendation of value” was up to 15 percent under the appraised value. In the same marketing communications described above, JPMorgan salespeople disclosed that its property valuation review involved an “Automated review of appraisals, with secondary reviews undertaken for any loans outside of tolerance.” JPMorgan did not disclose that its “tolerance” was 15 percent.

In one instance, JPMorgan’s due diligence revealed that several pools from a single third-party originator contained numerous stated income loans (i.e., loans originated without written proof of the borrower's income) where the vendor had concluded that borrowers had overstated their incomes. Initially, due diligence employees and at least two JPMorgan managers decided that these pools should be reviewed in their entirety, and all unreasonable stated income loans eliminated before the pools were purchased. After the originator of the loan pools objected, JPMorgan Managing Directors in due diligence, trading, and sales met with representatives of the originator to discuss the loans, then agreed to purchase two loan pools without reviewing those loan pools in their entirety as JPMorgan due diligence employees and managers had previously decided; waived a number of the stated income loans into the pools; purchased the pools; and subsequently securitized hundreds of millions of dollars of loans from those pools into one security. In addition, JPMorgan obtained an agreement from the originator to extend contractual repurchase rights for early payment defaults for an additional three months.

Prior to JPMorgan purchasing the loans, a JPMorgan employee who was involved in this particular loan pool acquisition told an Executive Director in charge of due diligence and a Managing Director in trading that due to their poor quality, the loans should not be purchased and should not be securitized. After the purchase of the loan pools, she submitted a letter memorializing her concerns to another Managing Director, which was distributed to other Managing Directors. JPMorgan nonetheless securitized many of the loans. None of this was disclosed to investors.

On some occasions, prospective investors in mortgage-backed securities marketed by JPMorgan requested specific data on the underlying loan pools, including information on due diligence results and loan characteristics, such as combined-loan-to-value ratios. JPMorgan employees sometimes declined to provide information to such investors concerning such loan data, including combined loan-to-value ratio data. In some instances, JPMorgan employees also provided data on the percentage of defective loans identified in its own due diligence process as a percentage of the pool that was acquired rather than as a percentage of the diligence sample, without disclosing the basis of their calculation.

Bear Stearns

Throughout the relevant time periods described below, Bear Stearns made various statements concerning the processes by which Bear Stearns monitored third party loan sellers and aspects of the performance of the loans Bear Stearns purchased from those sellers.

Between 2006 and 2007, Bear Stearns purchased, securitized and sold to investors billions of dollars of Alt-A mortgage loans. Some of these loans were acquired by Bear Stearns through what was known as its “flow-conduit.” Flow-conduit loans were acquired by EMC Mortgage – a wholly owned Bear Stearns subsidiary – from a wide variety of sellers and mortgage originators (“Flow-Conduit Sellers”). After acquiring these loans, Bear Stearns would generally bundle them, securitize that bundled pool of loans, and sell the securities (“Flow-Conduit Securities”) to investors. Investors included federally-insured financial institutions and other institutional investors nationwide.

Between 2006 and 2007, Bear Stearns implemented a program for monitoring Flow- Conduit Sellers. Among other things, Bear Stearns monitored the financial well-being of the Flow-Conduit Sellers, tracked aspects of the performance of loans being originated by individual Flow-Conduit Sellers, and reviewed a sample of the loans post-acquisition to determine whether they complied with certain underwriting and/or origination standards.

Beginning in approximately June 2006 and continuing through 2007, as part of its monitoring program, Bear Stearns assigned “grades” to individual sellers. Bear Stearns employed different grading systems over different time periods. But, at relevant times, the Bear Stearns grading system included a grade of “F” for sellers whose financial condition or credit profile, loan performance, and claims history warranted significant scrutiny and potentially a discontinuation of the business relationship, and also allowed for sellers to be “suspended” or “terminated.”

Flow-Conduit Securities typically included loans from many, and in some cases, as many as hundreds, of Flow-Conduit Sellers. Prospectus supplements for Flow-Conduit Securities were required by regulation to identify the Flow-Conduit Sellers only if those sellers exceeded a specified concentration of loans in the security pool. In only one security during the relevant period, a Flow-Conduit Seller exceeded that concentration; in that instance, the prospectus supplement identified the relevant Flow-Conduit Seller. Consistent with the applicable regulatory disclosure requirements, Bear Stearns did not otherwise identify the Flow-Conduit Sellers in any given security.

Bear Stearns discussed its seller monitoring process with certain investors. In some communications with investors, Bear Stearns described its seller approval and seller monitoring processes as a way to filter out poor-performing sellers. Bear Stearns informed certain investors in Flow-Conduit Securities that, as a result of Bear Stearns’ seller monitoring, certain Flow-Conduit Sellers had been terminated or suspended. Bear Stearns further communicated that it would not continue to purchase loans originated by terminated or suspended sellers. Certain of this same information was also communicated to rating agencies in January 2007. Between 2006 and 2007, certain Flow-Conduit Securities included a number of loans originated by sellers that, at the time of securitization, had received “F” grades, or had been designated as “suspended” or “terminated.” Purchasers of Flow-Conduit Securities were not informed as to the presence of loans from those sellers in Flow-Conduit Securities.

In certain instances, Bear Stearns employed a quality control process to review the loans after they had been purchased, which meant in certain circumstances that the loans were already included in Flow-Conduit Securities (among other securities) when the review took place. In certain investor presentations and communications, Bear Stearns stated that its loan acquisition processes included post-purchase quality control reviews, but, by the end of the relevant time period, once Bear Stearns made a decision to suspend or terminate and discontinue loan purchases from sellers, it did not undertake this post-purchase review for loans that had been originated by those Flow-Conduit Sellers. The absence of a quality control process for such loans meant that Bear Stearns did not take certain steps that might have been undertaken to cure potential exceptions in the underlying loans, or to determine if Bear Stearns had to repurchase them out of the trusts holding them for investors.

Bear Stearns personnel, including certain managers, were aware that Flow-Conduit Securities included a number of loans from poorly graded Flow-Conduit Sellers, and were likewise aware that the loans originated by these poorly graded sellers sometimes experienced high rates of default. At least one Bear Stearns employee questioned the continued inclusion of loans from those sellers in Flow-Conduit Securities.

Certain of the Flow-Conduit Securities also included loans acquired through bulk purchases of pools of loans from larger originators (“bulk purchases”) rather than from Flow-Conduit Sellers. For bulk purchases of Alt-A, as well as subprime, loans, Bear Stearns often conducted credit-related due diligence on the loan pool (or, in the case of Alt-A loans, on a sample of the loan pool) to be acquired. Bear Stearns typically hired a third-party due diligence vendor to review the loans selected for diligence and to provide a score reflecting the vendor’s judgment as to whether the loan was originated in accordance with applicable underwriting guidelines or had adequate compensating factors.

Bear Stearns' due diligence managers reviewed the vendor's determinations and made the final decision as to whether Bear Stearns would purchase the loan or not. In certain circumstances, Bear Stearns due diligence managers or other employees determined after their review of the loans that, notwithstanding a vendor's identification of exceptions to specified underwriting guidelines, Bear Stearns would purchase loans where there was a variance from the guidelines that the managers or other employees deemed acceptable. In addition, Bear Stearns completed bulk purchases of Alt-A loan pools even though the rate of loans with exceptions in the due diligence samples indicated that the un-sampled portion of a pool likely contained additional loans with exceptions.

The last securitization by Bear Stearns was in 2007. The conduct described above with respect to Bear Stearns all occurred prior to JPMorgan's acquisition of Bear Stearns in March 2008.

WaMu

Prior to WaMu's failure and closure by the Office of Thrift Supervision ("OTS") in 2008, internal WaMu reviews indicated specific instances of weaknesses in WaMu's loan origination and underwriting practices, including, at times, non-compliance with underwriting standards; the reviews also revealed instances of borrower fraud and misrepresentations by others involved in the loan origination process with respect to the information provided for loan qualification purposes. WaMu did not disclose to securitization investors in written offering materials the information from its internal reviews concerning instances of borrower fraud and misrepresentations regarding borrower credit, compliance, and property valuation, in the origination of loans, including as to loans that were sold into securitizations. WaMu also did not disclose to investors information regarding instances of fraudulent and/or poor underwriting by certain non-WaMu loan originators who sold loans to WaMu, the fact that certain internal processes and controls were determined by internal reviews to have been ineffective in certain circumstances in preventing weak loan origination practices, or that the systems and data issues led to certain instances of delinquent loans being included in pools that were securitized in RMBS offerings. The last securitization by Washington Mutual was in 2007.

On September 25, 2008, the OTS seized Washington Mutual Bank and placed it into receivership with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). After the bank’s failure, JPMorgan acquired WaMu’s assets and certain specified liabilities from the FDIC. The actions and omissions described above with respect to WaMu occurred prior to OTS’s closure of WaMu and JPMorgan’s acquisition of the identified WaMu assets and liabilities.

Credit Minimums and Liquidated Damages

JPMorgan shall endeavor to satisfy the Consumer Relief obligations set forth in this Annex 2 by December 31, 2016, but shall have until December 31, 2017 to complete all Consumer Relief. An independent Monitor acceptable to the parties and paid for by JPMorgan, shall be appointed to publicly: 1) report progress towards completion, including reporting on overall progress on a quarterly basis commencing no later than 180 days after the date of this Agreement; 2) report on Credits earned as promptly as practicable following the date the Monitor has confirmed the methodology for validation of Credits under this Menu; and 3) ultimately determine and certify JPMorgan compliance with the terms of this Borrower Relief obligation. If the Monitor determines that a shortfall in that obligation remains as of December 31, 2017, JPMorgan shall make a compensatory payment in cash in an amount equal to the shortfall (the “Liquidated Damages”) to NeighborWorks America, to provide housing counselling, neighborhood stabilization, foreclosure prevention or similar programs. The payment of Liquidated Damages shall be the sole remedy for any failure to complete the Consumer Relief. The calculations regarding the Credit Minimums shall be performed by the Monitor and the Monitor shall determine at the end of the period whether there are Liquidated Damages and, if so, the amount due.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 23-A of the General Business Law and § 63(12) of the Executive Law, the State of New York, by Eric T. Schneiderman, Attorney General of the State of New York ("Plaintiff"), asserted claims against J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (f/k/a "Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc."), JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and EMC Mortgage LLC (f/k/a "EMC Mortgage Corporation") (collectively, "Defendants") in a complaint filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, Index No. 451556/2012 (the "Complaint").

WHEREAS, Plaintiff and Defendants (collectively, the "Settling Parties") have agreed to enter into a settlement of the above-captioned action (the "Action"); and

WHEREAS, this Settlement Agreement is being entered into in conjunction with and is incorporated by reference into the agreement (the "Global Agreement") entered into among JPMorgan Chase & Co. ("JPMorgan"), the United States, and certain other states that have not brought separate civil claims, which also incorporates by reference separate settlement agreements with certain other government entities; and

WHEREAS pursuant to the Global Agreement, JPMorgan shall pay a total amount of $9,000,000,000 (“Total Settlement Amount”) and also provide $4,000,000,000 worth of consumer relief under the terms set forth in that Global Agreement (the “Consumer Relief”); and;

WHEREAS, a significant number of JPMorgan mortgage customers reside in the State of New York, and the Settling Parties project that the value of the Consumer Relief for the State of New York and its residents will reach or exceed three hundred eighty-seven million dollars ($387,000,000.00); and

WHEREAS, the Settling Parties stipulate and agree as follows:

IT IS AGREED that JPMorgan shall pay six hundred thirteen million, two hundred thirty-four dollars and forty-eight cents ($613,000,234.48) of the Total Settlement Amount, in consideration for the settlement and discontinuance of the Action pursuant to the terms of this settlement agreement (“Settlement Agreement”) and the terms, conditions and releases set forth in the Global Agreement as compensation to the State of New York and its communities for harms purportedly caused by the allegedly unlawful conduct of Defendants. No portion of the funds in this paragraph will be designated or otherwise classified by the State of New York as a civil penalty, fine, or similar payment. Payment shall be made by electronic funds transfer within fifteen business days of receiving written payment processing instructions and all documents reasonably required by JPMorgan to process payment from the State of New York, Office of the Attorney General; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that Plaintiff shall benefit from Consumer Relief, as provided for under the terms of the Global Agreement, as agreed to by the Settling Parties; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that the New York Attorney General, in his sole discretion and in a manner consistent with the terms of this Settlement Agreement, shall direct the use of the $613,000,234.48 sum described above. The New York Attorney General shall use at least 85% of such funds for purposes intended to avoid preventable foreclosures, to ameliorate the effects of the foreclosure crisis, to enhance law enforcement efforts to prevent and prosecute financial fraud or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, and to otherwise promote the interests of the investing public. Such permissible purposes for allocation of the funds include, but are not limited to, providing funding for housing counselors, state and local foreclosure assistance hotlines, state and local foreclosure mediation programs, legal assistance, housing remediation and anti-blight projects, and for the training and staffing of, and capital expenditures required by, financial fraud and consumer protection efforts. The remaining funds described in this paragraph may be paid by the New York Attorney General to the state treasury as compensation to the State of New York for harms to the State of New York, and its agencies and political subdivisions, purportedly caused by the allegedly unlawful conduct of Defendants. No portion of the funds paid hereunder will be designated as a civil penalty, fine or similar payment; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that the $613,000,234.48 shall be deposited into an escrow account to be identified by the New York Attorney General. The New York Attorney General will have sole discretion to draw up to one hundred sixty-three million dollars ($163,000,000.00) after November 1, 2013, and up to one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000.00) after November 1st of each year thereafter; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that Plaintiff releases and discharges Defendants from any and all actions, claims, suits, prosecutions, damages, and demands relating to or concerning the Covered Conduct, as that term is defined in the Global Agreement. Notwithstanding this release, any claims related to compliance with the National Mortgage Settlement (“NMS”), or to compliance with the related agreements, are specifically reserved and not released by this Agreement. Further, nothing contained herein shall be construed so as to create any third party rights or private rights of action nor deprive any third party individual or entity of any private right under law; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that Defendants fully and finally release Plaintiff from any claims (including attorney’s fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Defendants have asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against Plaintiff related to the Covered Conduct and the investigation and civil prosecution to date thereof; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that the NYAG Settlement Amount and the other terms of this Settlement Agreement were negotiated in good faith by the Settling Parties, and reflect a settlement that was reached voluntarily after full investigation, consultation with experienced legal counsel and arms’-length negotiation; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that this Agreement is made without any trial or adjudication or court finding on any issue of fact or law, and is not a final order of any court or governmental authority. Defendants acknowledge the facts set out in the Statement of Facts attached as Annex 1 to the Global Agreement; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that this Settlement Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that, concurrent with delivery by counsel for Plaintiff to counsel for Defendants of an executed copy of this Settlement Agreement, counsel for Plaintiff shall deliver to counsel for Defendants an executed Stipulation of Discontinuance with Prejudice in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A and that Defendants shall file said Stipulation of Discontinuance with Prejudice with the Clerk of the Court and need not give any further notice thereof to the Plaintiff; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that this Settlement Agreement, including the Exhibit hereto, and the Global Agreement, including all attachments thereto, constitute the entire agreement between the Settling Parties concerning the Action and supersedes any prior communication, understanding, or agreement, whether written or oral, concerning said subject matter; and

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that this Settlement Agreement shall not be amended, changed, or modified except by a writing signed by the Settling Parties; and

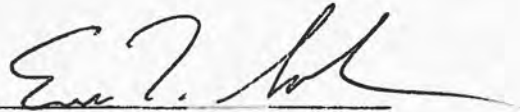

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that this Settlement Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall be deemed to constitute one instrument.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valid consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by all Settling Parties hereto, the Settling Parties agree as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) “Affiliate” means, with respect to any specified Person, any other Person that, at the time of determination, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such specified Person, where “control” means, as to any Person, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management, policies, or practices of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. The terms “controlled by” and “under common control with” have correlative meanings.

(b) “Contract Claim” means any claim under a contract (including, without limitation, any claim under any Pooling and Servicing Agreement, Assignment and Recognition Agreement, or Mortgage Loan Purchase Agreement) alleging any breach or violation of any representation or warranty as to loans originated, purchased, acquired, transferred, or securitized regarding, or collateralizing, the Covered Securities, and which could result in an economic benefit to any Releasing Plaintiff Person by virtue of such person’s ownership of Covered Securities.

(c) “Covered Securities” means all securities for which FHFA has brought claims against the JPMorgan Defendants in the Actions, which includes the securities that are listed in Exhibit A and all other securities, if any, that are the subject of claims against the JPMorgan Defendants in the Actions.

(d) “Effective Date” means the date by which all Settling Parties have signed this Agreement.

(e) “Future JPMorgan Party” means any Person that is not an Affiliate of any JPMorgan Legacy Entity Defendant as of the Effective Date, who, after the Effective Date, becomes an Affiliate of a JPMorgan Legacy Entity Defendant or merges with or into an Affiliate of a JPMorgan Morgan Legacy Entity Defendant.

(g) “Non-Settling Defendants” means, collectively, (i) all defendants in the Ally, First Horizon, SocGen, and Related Actions that are not Released Defendant Persons, (ii) any other person or entity later named as a defendant in the Ally, First Horizon, or SocGen Actions, other than the Released Defendant Persons, and (iii) any other person or entity that becomes liable (A) to Plaintiff, (B) to any defendants in the Ally, First Horizon, or SocGen Actions that is not JPMS, or (C) to any other alleged tortfeasor, by reason of judgment or settlement, or for any claims that arise out of, the Ally, First Horizon, or SocGen Actions, other than the Released Defendant Persons.

previously existed, currently exist, or exist as of the Effective Date; (iv) that were, could have been, or may be asserted by any or all of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons against any or all of the Released Defendant Persons in the Actions, in any federal or state court, or in any other court, tribunal, arbitration, proceeding, administrative agency, or other forum in the United States or elsewhere; provided, however, that the Released Plaintiff Claims shall not include (i) any claims against any Person other than the Released Defendant Persons, including the Non-Settling Defendants; (ii) any Contract Claims; (iii) any LIBOR Claims, or (iv) any claims to enforce this Agreement.

(s) “Releasing Plaintiff Persons” means (i) FHFA, solely in its capacity as Conservator of the GSEs; (ii) the GSEs; and (iii) each and all of FHFA and the GSEs’ respective successors in interest, predecessors, representatives, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, heirs, estates, assigns or transferees, immediate and remote, and any other Person who has the right, ability, standing, or capacity to assert, prosecute, or maintain on their behalf any of the Released Plaintiff Claims, whether in whole or in part; provided, however, that nothing in this definition or its use in this Agreement shall be construed to bind or constitute a release by any governmental agency/entity other than FHFA solely in its capacity as Conservator of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. “Releasing Plaintiff Persons” shall not include any of FHFA’s or the GSEs’ outside counsel.

(t) “Releasing Persons” means, collectively, the Releasing Plaintiff Persons and the Releasing Defendant Persons.

2. Settlement Payment.

(a) In consideration for the Plaintiff’s execution of this Agreement and the release of claims as set forth below, JPMorgan shall make or cause to be made, for the benefit of FHFA and the GSEs, a one-time, lump sum payment of four billion dollars ($4,000,000,000) (the “Settlement Payment”), payable to Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae, divided between them in accordance with FHFA’s written instructions. JPMorgan shall make the Settlement Payment, or cause it to be made, within fifteen (15) business days of the Effective Date.

(b) In the event that (i) any of the Bar Orders is not entered or deemed effective materially in the form hereto and (ii) JPMS is found liable as proven at trial for (A) any claim for contribution or indemnity (whether styled as a claim for contribution, indemnity, or otherwise) from any Non-Settling Defendant that seeks to recover any part of any judgment entered against the Non-Settling Defendants in the Action in which the respective Bar Order is not entered or deemed effective materially in the form hereto and/or (B) any settlement reached by FHFA with any of the Non-Settling Defendants in the Action in which the respective Bar Order is not entered or deemed effective materially in the form hereto, the GSEs shall repay that portion of the Settlement Payment in such Action equal to any such judgment against JPMS.

(c) Payment of the Settlement Payment shall constitute a full and valid discharge of the JPMorgan Defendants' payment obligation pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the settlement of the Actions.

3. Full Consideration. The Settling Parties agree that, apart from the Settlement Payment and the releases provided in Paragraphs 6 and 8 below, Plaintiff and the Releasing Plaintiff Persons are not entitled to any other payments or consideration from any of the Released Defendant Persons in respect of the Released Claims.

4. No Admission

(a) This Agreement does not constitute an admission by any of the JPMorgan Defendants of any liability or wrongdoing whatsoever, including, but not limited to, any liability or wrongdoing with respect to any of the allegations that were or could have been raised in the Actions. The Parties agree that this Agreement is the result of a compromise within the provisions of the Federal Rules of Evidence, and any similar statutes or rules, and shall not be used or admitted in any proceeding for any purpose including, but not limited to, as evidence of liability or wrongdoing by any JPMorgan Defendant, nor shall it be used for impeachment purposes, to refresh recollection, or any other evidentiary purpose, nor shall it be construed as, or deemed to be evidence of, an admission or concession that Plaintiff, the GSEs, or any other person or entity, has or has not suffered any damage, or that the JPMorgan Defendants bear any responsibility for any alleged damages; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to any claims to enforce this Agreement.

(b) Nothing in this Agreement shall be used as an admission or concession that JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., or any other JPMorgan Defendant, contractually assumed or is otherwise liable for any alleged liabilities or wrongdoing of Washington Mutual Bank ("WMB"), or otherwise waived any alleged contractual right unless expressly released herein or expressly released in any related agreement.

5. Additional Conditions:

(a) No later than one (1) business day from the Effective Date, the Settling Parties shall jointly file a motion to stay all proceedings in the JPMorgan Action.

(b) No later than one (1) business day from the Payment Date, the Settling Parties shall jointly file a stipulation of voluntary dismissal with prejudice of the JPMorgan Action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C1.

(c) No later than five (5) business days from the Payment Date, FHFA and JPMS shall jointly file a motion for voluntary dismissal with prejudice and entry of a bar order as to JPMS in the Ally, First Horizon, and SocGen Actions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 21 and/or 41(a)(2) in the forms attached hereto as Exhibits C2, C3, and C4, respectively (together with the stipulation of voluntary dismissal in the JPMorgan Action, the “Orders of Voluntary Dismissal and Bar Orders”). Confidential Exhibits D1, D2, and D3 serve as the Confidential Schedules associated with the Ally, First Horizon, and SocGen Actions, respectively, as referenced in Exhibits C2, C3, and C4. For the avoidance of doubt, the motions for entry of the Orders of Voluntary Dismissal and Bar Orders are not intended to dismiss any claims by Plaintiff against any Non-Settling Defendants, and, more specifically, are not intended to dismiss any claims by Plaintiff in the Related Actions, including with respect to any of the Covered Securities.

(d) No later than one (1) business day from the Effective Date, the JPMorgan Defendants will withdraw from any joint defense agreement applicable to any of the Actions or Related Actions and cease all efforts to assist Non-Settling Defendants or any third party with regard to any of the Actions or Related Actions, except as required by law or under order of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent any JPMorgan Individual Defendant who was subsequently employed by any Non-Settling Defendant from assisting that Non-Settling Defendant or otherwise carrying out the employee’s duties toward that Non-Settling Defendant.

(e) The JPMorgan Defendants (i) agree not to file, join, or provide any material assistance or support to any Non-Settling Defendant in the Ally, First Horizon, SocGen or Related Actions, including, without limitation, any petition for certiorari, merits brief, amicus brief, or otherwise in support of any proceedings before the United States Supreme Court or the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, regarding the decision in Federal Housing Finance Agency v. UBS Americas, Inc., 712 F.3d 136 (2d Cir. 2013) (the “UBS Decision”); (ii) agree to withdraw from all proceedings regarding the UBS Decision within five (5) calendar days of the Effective Date; (iii) agree not to share any work product related to the Actions or the Related Actions with any Non-Settling Defendant or with any defendant in the Related Actions; and (iv) agree to not file or join in any further legal, administrative, regulatory, or other governmental proceedings regarding the Released Claims; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the JPMorgan Defendants from complying with requests from Non-Settling Defendants pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or responding to requests by the Non-Settling Defendants that are administrative or ministerial in nature for information. Nothing in this paragraph will be construed to prevent any trade association of which any JPMorgan Defendant is a member from taking any position with respect to the UBS Decision or other matters referenced herein; except that no JPMorgan Defendant shall directly or indirectly advocate for or participate in the taking of a position on any such matter by any such trade association.

6. Release by the Releasing Plaintiff Persons. In exchange for the Settlement Payment and the release provided by the Releasing Defendant Persons, each and every one of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons shall upon the Effective Date (a) have and be deemed by operation of law to have completely, fully, finally, and forever dismissed, released, relinquished and discharged with prejudice each and every one of the Released Defendant Persons from any and all of the Released Plaintiff Claims; (b) forever be barred and enjoined from filing, commencing, intervening in, instituting, maintaining, prosecuting, or seeking relief (including, but not limited to, filing an application or motion for preliminary or permanent injunctive relief) in any other lawsuit, arbitration, or other proceeding in any jurisdiction that asserts any of the Released Plaintiff Claims against any or all of the Released Defendant Persons except as provided in Paragraph 7 herein; and (c) have and be deemed to have covenanted not to sue any of the Released Defendant Persons with respect to any of the Released Plaintiff Claims except as provided in Paragraph 7 herein.

7. Covenants by the Plaintiff. Effective upon execution of this Agreement, FHFA, subject explicitly to its statutory obligations, and the GSEs, on behalf of themselves and all of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons, hereby covenant and agree that:

(a) No Releasing Plaintiff Person shall commence, assert, file, or initiate any Released Plaintiff Claim, including (but not limited to) by way of third-party claim, cross-claim, or counterclaim, or by right of representation or subrogation, against any of the Released Defendant Persons.

(b) No Releasing Plaintiff Person shall participate in bringing or pursuing any Released Plaintiff Claim against any Released Defendant Person; provided, however, that a Releasing Plaintiff Person shall not be precluded from assisting any government agency in investigating or pursuing any claims against any Released Defendant Person.

(c) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent FHFA from seeking third-party discovery, subject to Paragraph 14, from any Released Defendant Person in any action or proceeding, except that FHFA shall not seek third-party discovery from the JPMorgan Individual Defendants or any current or former employee of the JPMorgan Legacy Entity Defendants in the Actions or Related Actions, unless such discovery relates to such individual's employment by or work for an entity other than one of the JPMorgan Legacy Entity Defendants. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement shall relieve any Released Defendant Person from any obligation or requirement under Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Released Defendant Persons reserve the right to seek costs from FHFA for any such third-party discovery.

8. Release by the Releasing Defendant Persons. In exchange for the release provided by the Releasing Plaintiff Persons and the dismissal with prejudice of the JPMorgan Action and the claims against JPMS in the Ally, First Horizon, and SocGen Actions, each and every one of the Releasing Defendant Persons shall upon the Effective Date (a) have and be deemed by operation of law completely, fully, finally, and forever to have dismissed, relinquished, released, and discharged with prejudice each and every one of the Released Plaintiff Persons from any and all of the Released Defendant Claims; (b) forever be barred and enjoined from filing, commencing, intervening in, participating in, instituting, maintaining, prosecuting, or seeking relief (including, but not limited to, filing an application or motion for preliminary or permanent injunctive relief) in any other lawsuit, arbitration, or other proceeding in any jurisdiction that asserts any of the Released Defendant Claims against any or all of the Released Plaintiff Persons; and (c) have and be deemed to have covenanted not to sue any of the Released Plaintiff Persons with respect to any of the Released Defendant Claims.

9. Judgment Reduction and Release of Claims.

(a) In the event Plaintiff obtains a judgment against any of the Non-Settling Defendants in the Ally, First Horizon, or SocGen Actions, Plaintiff agrees to reduce any such judgment or judgments, and to provide the Non-Settling Defendant against which such judgment(s) has been obtained a judgment credit, in an amount that is the greater of the amount of the Settlement Payment allocated by Plaintiff to the security at issue, as set forth on the confidential schedule attached as Confidential Exhibits D1, D2, or D3, or the proportionate share of JPMS' fault in such action, as proven at trial, whichever is larger.

(b) Each of the Settling Parties acknowledges that it has been advised by its attorneys concerning, and is familiar with, California Civil Code Section 1542 and expressly waives any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to the provisions of the California Civil Code Section 1542, including that provision itself, which reads as follows:

“A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.”

The Parties acknowledge that inclusion of the provisions of this Section to this Agreement was a material and separately bargained for element of this Agreement.

10. Covenants by the JPMorgan Defendants. Effective upon execution of this Agreement, the JPMorgan Defendants, on behalf of themselves and all of the Releasing Defendant Persons, hereby covenant and agree that:

(a) No Releasing Defendant Person shall commence, assert, file, or initiate any Released Defendant Claim, including (but not limited to) by way of third-party claim, cross-claim or counterclaim or by right of representation or subrogation, against any of the Released Plaintiff Persons.

(b) No Releasing Defendant Person shall participate in bringing or pursuing any Released Defendant Claim against any Released Plaintiff Person.

(c) No Releasing Defendant Person shall interfere with FHFA's prosecution of any claims FHFA has asserted or may assert in the Ally, First Horizon, SocGen, or Related Actions.

(d) In the Ally, First Horizon, SocGen, and Related Actions, the Releasing Defendant Persons shall, subject to all assertions of privilege, work product, and relevance, and conditioned upon compliance with reasonable confidentiality provisions, use all reasonable efforts to comply with any subpoenas pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure served upon them by any of the Released Plaintiff Persons relating to claims as to the Non-Settling Defendants.

(e) Neither JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. nor any other JPMorgan Defendant or Future JPMorgan Party shall seek indemnification, contribution, or recovery of any of the amounts paid pursuant to this Agreement from the FDIC in its corporate capacity, whether under the September 25, 2008 Purchase and Assumption Agreement or otherwise, including through claims that increase the financial obligations of the FDIC in its corporate capacity.

11. Protective Order. The obligations and benefits conferred in the Protective Order, governing confidentiality of information and documents entered in the Actions, shall remain in effect after the Effective Date, subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

12. Representations and Warranties. Each Settling Party represents and warrants that:

(a) it has the full legal authority, right, and capacity to enter into this Agreement on its behalf and to bind the Settling Party to perform its obligations hereunder, including any third-party authorization necessary to release the claims being released hereunder. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Settling Party and, assuming due authorization, execution, and delivery by the other Settling Party, constitutes a legal, valid, and binding obligation of such Settling Party, enforceable against such Settling Party in accordance with its terms, subject to laws of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, and the relief of debtors, and rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable remedies;

(b) the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the performance by such Settling Party of its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not: (i) result in the violation by such Settling Party of any statute, law, rule, regulation, or ordinance or any judgment, decree, order, writ, permit, or license of any governmental or regulatory authority applicable to such Settling Party; or (ii) require such Settling Party to obtain any consent, approval, or action of, make any filing with, or give any notice to, any person, which action has not already been undertaken and accomplished by such Settling Party;

(c) notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, and consistent with the definition of Released Persons, no Released Claim is hereby released against any Released Person (to the extent such Released Person otherwise has a Released Claim) where such Released Person does not itself release Released Claims as provided in Paragraphs 6 and 8 above;

(d) it has not assigned, subrogated, pledged, loaned, hypothecated, conveyed, or otherwise transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, to any other person or entity, the Released Claims, or any interest in or part or portion thereof, specifically including any rights arising out of the Released Claims; and

(e) it has read and understands this Agreement and it has had the opportunity to consult with its attorneys before signing it.

13. Authority. By signing this Agreement, each Settling Party, or its counsel as applicable, represents and warrants that it has full authority to enter into this Agreement and to bind itself, or its client, to this Agreement.

14. Conservator Subpoenas. FHFA will not seek to enforce any existing subpoenas issued based on its status as Conservator (“Conservator Subpoenas”) to the extent those subpoenas seek documents relating to the Released Plaintiff Claims. However, to the extent that the Conservator Subpoenas are necessary to pursue Contract Claims or claims against parties other than the JPMorgan Defendants, FHFA may continue to enforce such subpoenas, specifically FRE-009, FRE-016, FRE-029, FRE-037, FRE-038, FNM-011, FNM-016, FNM-017, FNM-018, FNM-029, and FNM-031. To the extent that any Contract Claim is settled on or following the Effective Date, FHFA will not seek to enforce any existing Conservator Subpoenas as they relate to that Contract Claim, except as necessary to pursue claims against parties other than the JPMorgan Defendants.

15. Claims Not Released; Covenants Not To Apply. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to release any claims of or against any Future JPMorgan Party; provided, however, that the covenants and conditions in Paragraphs 5(d), 5(e), 10(c), 10(d), and 10(e) shall apply to any Future JPMorgan Party or to JPMorgan with respect to conduct relating to such Future JPMorgan Party.

16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Settling Parties and overrides and replaces all prior negotiations and terms proposed or discussed, whether in writing or orally, about the subject matter hereof. No modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless it is in writing, identified as an amendment to the Agreement, and signed by all Settling Parties hereto. No party to this Agreement may seek to revoke the Agreement, or otherwise avoid its obligations hereunder, based upon any decisions or orders by any court of competent jurisdiction in the Actions or in the Related Actions issued after the Effective Date.

17. Jurisdiction. All parties hereto submit to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, or to the Supreme Court of New York for New York County in the event that federal jurisdiction is lacking, for purposes of implementing and enforcing the settlement embodied in this Agreement. The Settling Parties otherwise expressly reserve their jurisdictional rights to any action, suit, or proceeding commenced outside the terms of this Agreement.

18. Necessary Actions. Each of the Settling Parties hereto agrees to execute and deliver, or to cause to be executed and delivered, all such instruments, and to take all such action as the other Settling Parties may reasonably request, in order to effectuate the intent and purposes of, and to carry out the terms of, this Agreement.

19. Choice of Law. This Agreement is governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York without regard to conflicts of law principles.

20. Costs and Expenses. Each Settling Party shall bear its own costs and expenses, including any and all legal and expert fees, incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Actions, except to the extent agreed among the Settling Parties prior to the Effective Date.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valid consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by all Settling Parties hereto, the Settling Parties agree as follows:

(a) “Actions” means the JPM Kansas, Bear Stearns Kansas, WaMu Kansas and Bear Stearns New York Actions.

(b) “Indirect Contract Claims” means any claim asserted by a party against the Released Defendant Persons under a contract governing the sale, transfer, or servicing of mortgage loans or pools of mortgage loans (including, without limitation, and for the avoidance of doubt, repurchase claims, put-back claims, and any other claim under any Pooling and Servicing Agreement, Assignment and Recognition Agreement, Mortgage Loan Purchase Agreement, or other substantially similar agreement), where neither the Liquidating Agents nor the Credit Unions are signatories, relating to any breach or violation of any representation or warranty as to loans originated, purchased, acquired, transferred, securitized, or collateralizing the Securities or any other securities, and which could result in an economic benefit to any of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons at the expense of any Released Defendant Person. For the avoidance of doubt, this definition encompasses, but is not limited to, the Releasing Plaintiff Persons' right to receive any compensation or other benefits to which they are entitled pursuant to the $4.5 billion J.P. Morgan repurchase settlement that was publicly announced on or about November 15, 2013.

(c) "Securities" means all non-agency residential mortgage-backed securities purchased by the Credit Unions that were issued, sponsored, and/or underwritten by any of the JPM Defendants or their affiliates, including but not limited to the securities that are listed in Exhibit A and B, which lists the Liquidating Agents believe include all such securities. "Securities" also means all non-agency residential mortgage-backed securities that are or were backed by loans originated by or on behalf of the JPM Defendants or their affiliates whether or not such securities are listed in Exhibit A and B.

(d) "Effective Date" means the date upon which the Settlement Payment is made to and received by the U.S. Department of Justice, as evidenced by confirmation of the wire transfer pursuant to the instructions set forth in the separate settlement agreement dated November 19, 2013 between the U.S. Department of Justice and JPMorgan Chase & Co.

(e) "LIBOR Claims" means any claims relating to the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") that are associated with the Securities or any other securities.

(f) "Person" means an individual, corporate entity, partnership, association, joint stock company, limited liability company, estate, trust, government entity (or any political subdivision or agency thereof) and any other type of business or legal entity; provided, however, that nothing in this definition or its use in this Agreement shall be construed to bind any governmental agency/entity other than the Liquidating Agents. The Liquidating Agents warrant, however, that the Liquidating Agents are vested with the sole and complete authority fully and finally to compromise, resolve, dismiss, discharge, and settle each and every one of the Released Claims on behalf of the Credit Unions.

(g) "Released Claims" means, collectively, the Released Plaintiff Claims and the Released Defendant Claims.

(h) "Released Plaintiff Claims" means any and all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, losses, obligations, duties, damages, costs, interests, debts, expenses, charges, penalties, sanctions, fees, attorneys' fees, actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements, judgments, decrees, matters, issues and controversies of any kind, nature and description whatsoever, (i) whether disclosed or undisclosed, known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, matured or not matured, perfected or not perfected, choate or inchoate, liquidated or not liquidated, fixed or contingent, ripened or unripened; (ii) whether at law or equity, whether based on or arising under state, local, foreign, federal, statutory, regulatory, common or other law or rule and upon any legal theory (including, but not limited to, claims arising under the federal securities laws), no matter how asserted; (iii) that previously existed, currently exist, or exist as of the Effective Date; (iv) that were, could have been, or may be asserted by any or all of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons against any or all of the Released Defendant Persons in the Actions, in any federal or state court, or in any other court, tribunal, arbitration, proceeding, administrative agency or other forum in the United States or elsewhere; and (v) that relate to the Securities or that arise out of or are based upon or relate in any way to the allegations, transactions, facts, matters or occurrences, representations or omissions involved, set forth, or referred to in the Actions; provided, however, that the Released Plaintiff Claims shall not include (i) any claims against any Person other than the Released Defendant Persons; (ii) any Indirect Contract Claims; (iii) any LIBOR Claims, or (iv) any claims to enforce this Agreement.

(i) “Released Defendant Claims” means any and all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, losses, obligations, duties, damages, costs, interests, debts, expenses, charges, penalties, sanctions, fees, attorneys’ fees, actions, potential actions, causes of action, suits, agreements, judgments, decrees, matters, issues and controversies of any kind, nature and description whatsoever, (i) whether disclosed or undisclosed, known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, matured or not matured, perfected or not perfected, choate or inchoate, liquidated or not liquidated, fixed or contingent, ripened or unripened; (ii) whether at law or equity, whether based on or arising under state, local, foreign, federal, statutory, regulatory, common or other law or rule and upon any legal theory (including, but not limited to, claims arising under the federal securities laws), no matter how asserted; (iii) that previously existed, currently exist, or exist as of the Effective Date; (iv) that were, could have been, or may be asserted by any or all of the Releasing Defendant Persons against any or all of the Released Plaintiff Persons in the Actions, in any federal or state court, or in any other court, tribunal, arbitration, proceeding, administrative agency or other forum in the United States or elsewhere; and (v) that relate to the Securities or that arise out of or are based upon or relate in any way to the allegations, transactions, facts, matters or occurrences, representations or omissions involved, set forth, or referred to in the Actions; provided, however, that the Released Defendant Claims shall not include (i) any Indirect Contract Claims; (ii) any LIBOR Claims; or, (iii) any claims to enforce this Agreement.

(j) “Released Persons” means collectively the Released Plaintiff Persons and the Released Defendant Persons.

(k) “Released Plaintiff Persons” means each of: (i) the Liquidating Agents; and (ii) the Credit Unions, along with each such Person’s respective past and/or present principals, affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, general partners, limited partners and any Person in which they have or had a controlling interest, and each such Person’s past and/or present administrators, predecessors, successors, assigns, members, parents, subsidiaries, employees, principals, officers, managers, directors, partners, limited partners, investment bankers, representatives, estates, divisions, financial advisors, assigns, insurers and reinsurers.

(l) “Released Defendant Persons” means each of the JPM Defendants, along with each of the JPM Defendants’ respective past and/or present affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, general partners, limited partners and any Person in which any JPM Defendant has or had a controlling interest, and each such Person’s past and/or present principals, administrators, predecessors, successors, assigns, members, parents, subsidiaries, employees, officers, managers, directors, partners, limited partners, investment bankers, representatives, estates, divisions, financial advisors, estate managers, assigns, insurers and reinsurers.

(m) “Releasing Persons” means, collectively, the Releasing Plaintiff Persons and the Releasing Defendant Persons.

(n) “Releasing Plaintiff Persons” means (i) the Liquidating Agents; (ii) the Credit Unions; and (iii) each and all of the Liquidating Agents’ and the Credit Unions’ respective successors in interest, predecessors, representatives, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, heirs, estates, assigns or transferees, immediate and remote, and any other Person who has the right, ability, standing or capacity to assert, prosecute or maintain on their behalf any of the Released Plaintiff Claims, whether in whole or in part; provided, however, that nothing in this definition or its use in this Agreement shall be construed to bind or constitute a release by any governmental agency/entity other than the Liquidating Agents. The Liquidating Agents warrant, however, that the Liquidating Agents are vested with the sole and complete authority fully and finally to compromise, resolve, dismiss, discharge and settle each and every one of the Released Claims on behalf of the Credit Unions. The Liquidating Agents further warrant that the Credit Unions constitute all the credit unions for which the NCUA Board currently serves as liquidating agent that purchased residential mortgage-backed securities issued, sponsored, and/or underwritten by any of the JPM Defendants or their affiliates. “Releasing Plaintiff Persons” shall not include any of the Liquidating Agents’ outside counsel.

(o) “Releasing Defendant Persons” means each of the JPM Defendants and each and all of their respective successors in interest, predecessors, representatives, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, heirs, estates, assigns or transferees, immediate and remote, and any other Person who has the right, ability, standing or capacity to assert, prosecute or maintain on their behalf any of the Released Defendant Claims, whether in whole or in part; provided, however, that “Releasing Defendant Persons” shall not include any of the JPM Defendants’ outside counsel.

2. In consideration and as compensation for the Liquidating Agents’ execution of this Agreement and the release of claims as set forth below, the JPM Defendants shall make or cause to be made, for the benefit of the Liquidating Agents, compensatory payment in the amount of $1,417,525,773.20 (the “Settlement Payment”), payable in accordance with the U.S. Department of Justice’s instructions as set forth in the separate settlement agreement dated November 19, 2013 between the U.S. Department of Justice and JP Morgan Chase & Co. Payment of the Settlement Payment by the JPM Defendants to the U.S. Department of Justice for the benefit of the Liquidating Agents shall constitute a full and valid discharge of the JPM Defendants’ payment obligation pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the settlement of the Actions. This Agreement shall not become effective before the Effective Date.

3. No Admission of Liability. This Agreement does not constitute an admission by any of the JPM Defendants of any liability or wrongdoing whatsoever, including, but not limited to, any liability or wrongdoing with respect to any of the allegations that were or could have been raised in the Actions. To the contrary, the JPM Defendants vigorously deny the allegations in the Actions, and believe them to be wholly without merit. This Agreement also does not constitute an admission by the Liquidating Agents that they would not have been able to successfully prosecute their claims, and in fact the Liquidating Agents firmly believe in the merit of each of the allegations in the Complaints in the Actions. The Settling Parties agree that this Agreement is the result of a compromise within the provisions of the Federal Rules of Evidence, and any similar statutes or rules, and shall not be used or admitted in any proceeding for any purpose including, but not limited to, as evidence of liability or wrongdoing by any JPM Defendant, nor shall it be used for impeachment purposes, to refresh recollection, or any other evidentiary purpose; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to any claims to enforce this Agreement.

4. Additional Conditions:

(a) No later than three (3) business days after the Effective Date, the Settling Parties shall jointly file a stipulation of voluntary dismissal with prejudice of the Released Claims in the Actions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit C1, C2, C3 and C4. For the avoidance of doubt, the stipulations of voluntary dismissal are not intended to dismiss any claims by any Liquidating Agent against any person or entity other than the Released Defendant Persons with respect to any of the Securities.

(b) The JPM Defendants agree to not file or join in any further law, administrative, regulatory, or other governmental proceedings regarding the Released Claims; and agree not to join in, facilitate, fund, or assist in any manner, or to make any filings or submissions in support of any pending litigation and/or appeals in cases concerning residential mortgage-backed securities in which any Liquidating Agent is Plaintiff; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the JPM Defendants from complying with requests from any other party pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or responding to requests that are administrative or ministerial in nature for information. Nothing in this paragraph will be construed to prevent any trade association of which any JPM Defendant is a member from taking any position with respect to the matters referenced herein, except that no JPMorgan Defendant shall directly or indirectly advocate for or participate in or directly contribute monetarily to the taking of a position on any such matter by any such trade association.

5. Release by the Plaintiff Releasing Persons. In exchange for the Settlement Payment and the release provided by the Releasing Defendant Persons, each and every one of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons shall, upon the Effective Date: (a) have and be deemed by operation of law to have completely, fully, finally and forever dismissed, released, relinquished and discharged with prejudice each and every one of the Released Defendant Persons from any and all of the Released Plaintiff Claims; (b) forever be barred and enjoined from filing, commencing, intervening in, instituting, maintaining, prosecuting, or seeking relief (including, but not limited to, filing an application or motion for preliminary or permanent injunctive relief) in any other lawsuit, arbitration or other proceeding in any jurisdiction that asserts any of the Released Plaintiff Claims against any or all of the Released Defendant Persons; and (c) have and be deemed to have covenanted not to sue any of the Released Defendant Persons with respect to any of the Released Plaintiff Claims.

6. Covenants by the Liquidating Agents. Effective upon execution of this Agreement, the Liquidating Agents, subject explicitly to their statutory obligations, on behalf of themselves and all of the Releasing Plaintiff Persons, hereby covenant and agree that:

(a) No Releasing Plaintiff Person shall commence, assert, file or initiate any Released Plaintiff Claim, including (but not limited to) by way of third-party claim, cross-claim or counterclaim or by right of representation or subrogation, against any of the Released Defendant Persons.

(b) No Releasing Plaintiff Person shall participate in bringing or pursuing any Released Plaintiff Claim against any Released Defendant Person; provided, however, a Releasing Plaintiff Person shall not be precluded from assisting other government agencies in investigating or pursuing any claims against any Released Defendant Person.

(c) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Liquidating Agents from seeking third-party discovery from any Released Defendant Person in any action or proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement shall relieve any Released Defendant Person from any obligation or requirement under Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) Each of the agreements, covenants and other representations made by the Liquidating Agents in this Agreement (including, without limitation, and for the avoidance of doubt, the obligation to voluntarily dismiss the Actions with prejudice pursuant to Paragraph 4(a) and the releases provided pursuant to Paragraph 5) is made pursuant to their statutory obligations and is not in any way inconsistent with those statutory obligations.

7. Release by the Releasing Defendant Persons. In exchange for the release provided by the Releasing Plaintiff Persons and the dismissal with prejudice of the Actions referenced above, each and every one of the Releasing Defendant Persons shall, upon the Effective Date: (a) have and be deemed by operation of law to completely, fully, finally and forever to have dismissed, relinquished, released, and discharged with prejudice each and every one of the Released Plaintiff Persons from any and all of the Released Defendant Claims; (b) forever be barred and enjoined from filing, commencing, intervening in, participating in, instituting, maintaining, prosecuting, or seeking relief (including, but not limited to, filing an application or motion for preliminary or permanent injunctive relief) in any other lawsuit, arbitration or other proceeding in any jurisdiction that asserts any of the Released Defendant Claims against any or all of the Released Plaintiff Persons; and (c) have and be deemed to have covenanted not to sue any of the Released Plaintiff Persons with respect to any of the Released Defendant Claims.

8. Judgment Reduction and Release of Claims.

(a) In the event any Liquidating Agent obtains a judgment against any other party or parties relating to the Securities identified in Exhibit A or Exhibit B (a "Third Party Judgment"), and such other party or parties, in turn, successfully assert(s) a claim against any of the Released Defendant Persons relating to the Securities on the basis of contribution, indemnity or any other similar legal theory or claim (a "Claim Over"), the Liquidating Agents agree they will reduce the judgment or award they obtain or have obtained against the party asserting the Claim Over in a percentage calculated using the pro tanto rule, the proportionate rule or the pro rata rule, or such other rules as may apply in the relevant jurisdiction, whichever percentage is sufficient to cover fully or otherwise hold the Released Defendant Persons harmless in all respects from the other party's or parties' Claim Over against the Released Defendant Persons. The Liquidating Agents agree, with respect to a proceeding in which one or more of the Liquidating Agents is a party, that they shall consent to and join in, and with respect to all other proceedings consent to, any motion by the Released Defendant Persons seeking a determination that this Agreement constitutes a release or settlement in good faith of any Claim Over in any such litigation.

(b) The Liquidating Agents further agree that, to the extent any of them settle, on or after the date of this Agreement, any claims they may have against any other party relating to the Securities and on which the Liquidating Agents provide a release to such other parties (a “Third Party Settlement”), the Liquidating Agents will use their good faith and best efforts to include in the Third Party Settlement a release from such other party in favor of the Released Defendant Persons (in a form equivalent to the releases contained herein) of any claims relating to the Securities on the basis of contribution, indemnity or any similar legal theory or claim under which the Released Defendant Persons would be liable to pay any part of such Third Party Settlement, provided however that in no event shall the Liquidating Agents be required to decline a settlement they otherwise deem acceptable because such third party refuses to release the Released Defendant Persons.

(c) Each of the Settling Parties acknowledges that it has been advised by its attorneys concerning, and is familiar with, California Civil Code Section 1542 and expressly waives any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to the provisions of the California Civil Code Section 1542, including that provision itself, which reads as follows:

“A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.”

The Settling Parties acknowledge that inclusion of the provisions of this Section to this Agreement was a material and separately bargained for element of this Agreement.

9. Covenants by the JPM Defendants. Effective upon execution of this Agreement, the JPM Defendants, on behalf of themselves and all of the Releasing Defendant Persons, hereby covenant and agree that:

(a) No Releasing Defendant Person shall commence, assert, file or initiate any Released Defendant Claim, including (but not limited to) by way of third-party claim, cross-claim or counterclaim or by right of representation or subrogation, against any of the Released Plaintiff Persons.

(b) No Releasing Defendant Person shall participate in bringing or pursuing any Released Defendant Claim against any Released Plaintiff Person.

(c) No Releasing Defendant Person shall interfere with the Liquidating Agents’ prosecution of any claims the Liquidating Agents have asserted against any other entity on any claims relating to the Securities.

(d) The Releasing Defendant Persons shall, without limiting their rights pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and other applicable law, subject to all objections on the grounds of privilege, work product, relevance, and undue burden, and conditioned upon compliance with reasonable confidentiality provisions, use all reasonable efforts to comply with any subpoenas pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure served upon them by any of the Released Plaintiff Persons relating to claims the Liquidating Agents have asserted against any other entity relating to the Securities.

10. The obligations and benefits conferred in any confidentiality agreements entered into by the Settling Parties, governing confidentiality of information and documents shall remain in effect after the Effective Date, subject to the provisions of this Agreement. The Exhibits to this Agreement shall remain confidential.

11. Representations and Warranties. Each Settling Party represents and warrants that:

(a) it has the full legal authority, right, and capacity to enter into this Agreement on its behalf and to bind the Settling Party to perform its obligations hereunder, including any third-party authorization necessary to release the claims being released hereunder. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Settling Party and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by the other Settling Party, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Settling Party, enforceable against such Settling Party in accordance with its terms, subject to laws of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency and the relief of debtors and rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies;

(b) the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the performance by such Settling Party of its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not: (i) result in the violation by such Settling Party of any statute, law, rule, regulation or ordinance or any judgment, decree, order, writ, permit or license of any governmental or regulatory authority applicable to such Settling Party; or (ii) require such Settling Party to obtain any consent, approval or action of, make any filing with or give any notice to any person, which action has not already been undertaken and accomplished by such Settling Party;

(c) notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, and consistent with the definition of Releasing Persons, no Released Claim is hereby released against any Released Person (to the extent such Released Person otherwise has a Released Claim) where such Released Person does not itself release Released Claims as provided in Paragraphs 5 and 7 above;

(d) it has not assigned, subrogated, pledged, loaned, hypothecated, conveyed, or otherwise transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, to any other person or entity, the Released Claims, or any interest in or part or portion thereof, specifically including any rights arising out of the Released Claims; and

(e) it has read and understands this Agreement and it has had the opportunity to consult with its attorneys before signing it.

12. By signing this Agreement, each Settling Party, or its counsel as applicable, represents and warrants that it has full authority to enter into this Agreement and to bind itself, or its client, to this Agreement.

13. Right to Receive Benefits of the Securities.

Other than as specifically set forth in this Agreement, nothing herein prohibits, restricts, or limits any Releasing Plaintiff Person from receiving any benefits deriving from, or exercising any rights appurtenant to, the Releasing Plaintiff Person's interests in the Securities in the ordinary course, including, without limitation, the right to receive or assign payments from the Securities or to sell or otherwise dispose of their interests in the Securities.

14. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Settling Parties and overrides and replaces all prior negotiations and terms proposed or discussed, whether in writing or orally, about the subject matter hereof. No modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless it is in writing, identified as an amendment to the Agreement and signed by all Settling Parties hereto.

15. Each of the Settling Parties submits to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for purposes of implementing and enforcing the settlement embodied in this Agreement. The Settling Parties otherwise expressly reserve their jurisdictional rights to any action, suit or proceeding commenced outside the terms of this Agreement.

16. Each of the Settling Parties hereto agrees to execute and deliver, or to cause to be executed and delivered, all such instruments, and to take all such action as the other Settling Parties may reasonably request in order to effectuate the intent and purposes of, and to carry out the terms of, this Agreement.

17. This Agreement is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to conflicts of law principles.

18. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, each Settling Party shall bear its own costs and expenses, including any and all legal and expert fees, incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Actions.

The FDIC-R has commenced ten pending residential mortgage-backed securities (“RMBS”) lawsuits² (“Actions”) and has also informed JPMC that it believes the FDIC as Receiver for United Western has claims against JPMC arising out of United Western’s purchase of 17 RMBS. A list of the RMBS certificates in the Actions and the 17 RMBS purchased by United Western is set forth in Exhibit A.

² The ten pending lawsuits the FDIC-R has brought against JPMC are: FDIC as Receiver for Citizens National Bank and as Receiver for Strategic Capital Bank v. Bear Stearns Asset Backed Securities I LLC, No. 12 Civ. 4000 (S.D.N.Y.); FDIC as Receiver for Guaranty Bank v. J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, No. D-1-GN-12-002517 (Tex. Dist. Ct. Countrywide Securities Corp.*, No. 13-56783 (9th Cir.).

JPMC denies all liability with respect to all claims that the FDIC-R has brought or threatened to bring on behalf of Failed Banks.

The Parties deem it in their best interests to enter into this Agreement to avoid the uncertainty, trouble, and expense of further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises, undertakings, payments, and releases stated herein, the sufficiency of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree, each with the other, as follows:

- 1. Payment. As an essential covenant and condition to this Agreement, and as consideration for the releases and dismissals contained herein, JPMC shall pay or cause to be paid FIVE HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN MILLION, FOUR HUNDRED AND SIXTY-THREE THOUSAND, NINE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN DOLLARS and FIFTY-THREE CENTS ($515,463,917.53) to the FDIC-R (“Settlement Funds”) in accordance with the terms of the agreement dated as of today’s date among the United States Department of Justice (“DOJ”), JPMC and certain States (the “DOJ Agreement”). In the event that the Settlement Funds are not delivered to the DOJ in accordance with the terms of the DOJ Agreement, interest shall accrue on all unpaid amounts at the rate of 5 percent per annum from the date the payment was due under the terms of the DOJ Agreement until the date the DOJ receives payment. Without waiving any other rights that the FDIC-R may have, in the event that all Settlement Funds (including all accrued interest) are not received by the DOJ within a reasonable time after the receipt of written payment processing instructions by the DOJ, then the FDIC-R, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to declare this Agreement null and void, shall have the right to extend this Agreement for any period of time until it receives all Settlement Funds (including all accrued interest), and/or shall have the right to enforce this Agreement, in which event JPMC agrees to jurisdiction in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The prevailing party in any such litigation agrees to pay the other’s reasonable attorney’s fees. Any decision by the FDIC-R to extend the terms of this Agreement or to accept a portion of the Settlement Funds shall not prejudice its rights to declare this Agreement null and void at any time prior to receipt by the DOJ of all Settlement Funds (including all accrued interest) or to enforce the terms of this Settlement Agreement; provided however, that in the event the FDIC-R declares this Agreement null and void, the FDIC-R will return to JPMC all amounts paid to it under this Agreement.
- 2. FDIC-R Releases. Upon receipt of the Settlement Funds by the DOJ, the FDIC-R hereby releases JPMC and all of its parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, together with each of their shareholders, officers, directors, employees, attorneys and other agents, but solely in their capacities as such, (collectively, the “JPMC Releasees”) from any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, and liabilities of any type, whether known or unknown, whether disclosed or undisclosed, whether accrued or unaccrued, whether fixed or contingent, whether direct or indirect, and whether at law or in equity, based upon or relating to any Failed Bank’s purchase, ownership, or sale of the RMBS certificates identified on Exhibit A, including but not limited to the facts, transactions, representations, or omissions alleged in the complaints and amended complaints filed in the Actions, and all claims arising out of United Western's purchase, ownership, or sale of 17 residential mortgage-backed securities. The FDIC-R does not release its claims against the non-JPMC defendants in the Actions (collectively, the "Remaining Defendants").

3. Dismissal of JPMC. Upon receipt of the Settlement Funds by the DOJ, the FDIC-R shall move to dismiss JPMC from the Actions with prejudice. The FDIC-R and JPMC agree to enter stipulations providing that the dismissals in the Actions shall be with prejudice, with each party to bear its own costs.
4. JPMC Releases. Upon dismissal of the Actions with prejudice, JPMC and its respective heirs, executors, administrators, agents, representatives, successors, and assigns, shall release and discharge the FDIC-R, and its employees, officers, directors, representatives, successors, and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, and liabilities of any type, whether known or unknown, whether disclosed or undisclosed, whether accrued or unaccrued, whether fixed or contingent, whether direct or indirect, and whether at law or in equity, based upon or relating to the facts, transactions, representations, or omissions alleged in the complaints and amended complaints filed in the Actions and all claims arising out of United Western's purchase of 17 RMBS.
5. Release of All Indemnification Claims Against FDIC Corporate and Against FDIC as Receiver for Washington Mutual Bank, N.A. JPMC hereby irrevocably waives any right that it otherwise might have to seek (and in any event agrees that it shall not seek) any form of indemnification, reimbursement or contribution from the FDIC in any capacity, including the FDIC in its Corporate Capacity or the FDIC as Receiver of Washington Mutual Bank, for any payment that is a portion of the Settlement Amount set forth in Paragraph 1 of the DOJ Agreement or of the Consumer Relief set forth in Paragraph 2 of the DOJ Agreement (total $13 billion), including payments to the United States, the States (California, Delaware, Illinois, and Massachusetts), FHFA, NCUA, FDIC, and New York made pursuant to Paragraphs 1 and 2 of the DOJ Agreement.
6. Release of Unknown Claims. Each of the FDIC-R and JPMC acknowledges that it has been advised by its attorneys concerning, and is familiar with, California Civil Code Section 1542 and expressly waives any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by California Civil Code Section 1542 or any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to the provisions of the California Civil Code Section 1542, including that provision itself, which reads as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR."

The Parties acknowledge that inclusion of the provisions of this Section to this Agreement was a material and separately bargained-for element of this Agreement. The Parties further acknowledge that the releases granted herein are specific releases, not general releases.

7. Authority. The FDIC-R represents that under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is authorized to be appointed as receiver for failed depository institutions and that it succeeded to all rights, titles, powers, and privileges of the Failed Banks, and any shareholder, member, accountholder, depositor, officer, and director of the Failed Banks with respect to each Failed Bank and the assets of that Failed Bank, including, but not limited to, the Failed Banks' claims against JPMC. The FDIC-R further represents that it is empowered to sue and complain in any court of law to pursue, inter alia, the claims against JPMC asserted in the Actions. Each Party represents that it has full authority to enter this Agreement and that it has the full power and authority to bind such Party to each and every provision of the Agreement.
8. Certain FDIC Claims Not Released. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, in any capacity, shall not release, and expressly preserves fully and to the same extent as if the Agreement had not been executed (provided, that this provision shall not be construed as an acknowledgment that any such claims or causes of action exist or are valid):
 - a. any claims or causes of action against JPMC or any other person or entity for liability, if any, incurred as the maker, endorser or guarantor of any promissory note or indebtedness payable or owed by them to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, any financial institutions in receivership, other financial institutions, or any other person or entity, including without limitation any claims acquired by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as successor in interest to any financial institutions in receivership or any person or entity other than financial institutions in receivership, excluding for avoidance of doubt any claims expressly released in the Agreement;
 - b. any claims or causes of action against JPMC or any other person or entity relating in any way to the London Interbank Offered Rate;
 - c. any claims or causes of action arising under a contract governing the sale, transfer, or servicing of mortgage loans or pools of mortgage loans (including, without limitation, and for the avoidance of doubt, repurchase claims, put-back claims, and any other claim under any Pooling and Servicing Agreement, Assignment and Recognition Agreement, Mortgage Loan Purchase Agreement, or other substantially similar agreement), where neither the Failed Banks nor the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, in any capacity, are signatories, relating to any breach or violation of any representation or warranty as to loans originated, purchased, acquired, transferred, securitized, or collateralizing the RMBS certificates identified on Exhibit A or any other securities, and that could result in an economic benefit to FDIC-R at the expense of JPMC;

- d. any claims or causes of action by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in any capacity other than as Receiver for the Failed Banks; and
 - e. any claims or causes of action against any person or entity not expressly released in this Agreement.
- 9. Enforcement. Except as otherwise expressly stated herein, nothing in the Agreement shall be construed or interpreted as limiting, waiving, releasing or compromising the jurisdiction and authority of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in the exercise of its supervisory or regulatory authority or to diminish its ability to institute administrative enforcement proceedings seeking removal, prohibition, or any other administrative enforcement action which may arise by operation of law, rule, or regulation.
- 10. Actions of the United States. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, this Agreement shall not be construed as or interpreted as waiving, or intending to waive, any claims that could be brought by the United States or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof (other than the FDIC-R), including, but not limited to, through the United States Department of Justice or any United States Attorney's Office.
- 11. No Confidentiality. JPMC and the FDIC-R acknowledge and agree that this Agreement shall not be confidential and will be disclosed pursuant to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's applicable policies, procedures, and other legal requirements.
- 12. No Admission of Liability. The Parties each acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed claims and that the Agreement is not an admission or evidence of liability by any of them regarding any claim, all of which are expressly disputed. The Parties further acknowledge that they may not base any claim of waiver or estoppel in any other matter upon the execution of the Agreement or payment of consideration described herein.
- 13. No Acknowledgment or Admission. Nothing in either this Agreement or the DOJ Agreement shall constitute an admission or imply that JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates became successor-in-interest to Washington Mutual Bank, WaMu Capital Corp., Long Beach Securities Corp., and WaMu Asset Acceptance Corp. or assumed any particular liability of Washington Mutual Bank, WaMu Capital Corp., Long Beach Securities Corp., and WaMu Asset Acceptance Corp. when JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. purchased the assets and assumed certain liabilities of Washington Mutual Bank pursuant to the Purchase and Assumption Agreement dated September 25, 2008 between JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in its corporate capacity and its capacity as Receiver for Washington Mutual Bank
- 14. Representations and Acknowledgements.
- a. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts by one or more of the Parties and all such counterparts when so executed shall together constitute the final Agreement, as if one document had been signed by all parties hereto; and each such counterpart, upon execution and delivery, shall be deemed a complete original, binding the party or parties subscribed thereto upon the execution by all parties to the Agreement.

- b. Binding Effect. Each of the Parties represents and warrants that they are a party hereto or are authorized to sign this Agreement on behalf of the respective party, and that they have the full power and authority to bind such party to each and every provision of the Agreement. The Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, representatives, successors and assigns.
- c. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted, construed and enforced according to applicable federal law, or in its absence, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflicts of law principles.
- d. Jurisdiction. All Parties hereto submit to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, or to the Supreme Court of New York for New York County in the event that federal subject matter jurisdiction is lacking, for purposes of implementing and enforcing the settlement embodied in this Agreement.
- e. Entire Agreement and Amendments. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between and among the Parties concerning the matters set forth herein and replaces all prior negotiations and terms proposed or discussed, whether in writing or orally, about such matters. The Agreement may not be amended or modified except by another written instrument signed by the Parties.
- f. Reasonable Cooperation. The Parties agree to cooperate in good faith to effectuate all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including doing or causing their agents and attorneys to do whatever is reasonably necessary to effectuate the signing, delivery, and execution of any documents necessary to perform the terms of this Agreement.
- g. Advice of Counsel. Each party hereby acknowledges that it has consulted with and obtained the advice of counsel prior to executing this Agreement, and that the Agreement has been explained to that party by his or her counsel.

Dear Mr. Sacks:

I write in connection with the settlement agreement dated as of today's date between the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") as receiver for certain failed depository institutions and J.P. Morgan & Co. and certain of its affiliates and subsidiaries (collectively, "JPMC Defendants"). As you are aware, the FDIC has filed ten residential mortgage-backed securities ("RMBS") actions against JPMC Defendants¹ and as Receiver for United Western Bank ("United Western") has also informed JPMC Defendants that it has claims against JPMC Defendants arising out of United Western's purchase of 17 RMBS. While the FDIC as receiver for Citizens National Bank, Strategic Capital Bank, Guaranty Bank, Colonial Bank, Irwin Bank, and United Western is not a class member in any RMBS class action against JPMC Defendants, the FDIC as receiver for certain other failed depository institutions may also seek distributions from any class action resolution of RMBS claims.

This letter also is to confirm that, with the exceptions noted in the preceding paragraph, the FDIC in its capacity as receiver for failed depository institutions as of the date of this letter has no claims or causes of action currently under review or consideration based upon the purchase or sale of the RMBS against the JPMC Defendants or any of their affiliates and subsidiaries and is not aware of any such claims. The FDIC also is not aware of and has not

¹ The ten pending lawsuits are: FDIC as Receiver for Citizens National Bank and as Receiver for Strategic Capital Bank v. Bear Stearns Asset Backed Securities 1 LLC, No. 12 Civ. 4000 (S.D.N.Y.); FDIC as Receiver for Guaranty Bank v. J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, No. D-1-GN-12-002517 (Tex. Dist. Ct. Travis County); FDIC as Receiver for Guaranty Bank v. Ally Securities LLC, No. D-1-GN-12-002522 (Tex. Dist. Ct. Travis County); FDIC as Receiver for Colonial Bank v. Chase Mortgage Finance Corp., No. 12 Civ. 6166 (S.D.N.Y.); FDIC as Receiver for Colonial Bank v. Citigroup Mortgage Loan Trust, Inc., No. 03-CV-2012-901036.000 (Cir. Ct. of Montgomery County, Ala.); FDIC as Receiver for Colonial Bank v. Countrywide Securities Corp., No. 12-cv-08317 (C.D. Cal.); FDIC as Receiver for Irwin Bank v. J.P. Morgan Acceptance Corp., No. 03C01-1209-PL-4731 (Ind. Cir. Ct. Bartholomew County); FDIC as Receiver for Irwin Bank v. J.P. Morgan Acceptance Corp., No. 03C01-1209-PI-4729 (Ind. Cir. Ct. Bartholomew County); FDIC as Receiver for Strategic Capital Bank v. J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, No. 13-56781 (9th Cir.); and FDIC as Receiver for Colonial Bank v. Countrywide Securities Corp., No. 13-56783 (9th Cir.).

asserted and will not assert any claims against any non-IPMC Defendant person arising out of the purchase or sale of the RMBS issued by the IPMC Defendants in the Actions against the IPMC Defendants or the 17 RMBS purchased by United Western.

Very truly yours,
