To earn the AKC Temperament Test (ATT) title, you and your dog must meet the following criteria:

- 1. Dog must have an AKC number. Must be Registered or Listed by having an AKC, PAL (Purebred Alternative Listing), or AKC Canine Partners number. All dogs, including purebreds and mixed breeds can get a number. AKC records titles by attaching them to a dog's number.
- 2. Must have passed the ATT two times. The test is given by an AKC CGC Evaluator who has been approved to administer the ATT. ATT tests are given in conjunction with AKC licensed events.

Have You Included Everything?

In one envelope mailed to the address above:

- Submit the AKC Temperament Test Title Application on the next page.
- Submit both of your "AKC Temperament Test Evaluation Forms" from the two different tests that you took with your dog. These should be sent at the same time, in the same envelope with the Title Application and fees.
- If you don't have an AKC number (or PAL number or a Canine Partners (CP) number), include the AKC Canine Partners form found online at: <http://cdn.akc.org/PDF/2015-CP-Application.pdf>
If you need the Canine Partners number, the fee for the number is $25.00. This number can be used for all future titles earned.
