VI. Additional Information for Employers/Income Withholders: (Completed by the Sender)

Priority: Withholding for support has priority over any other legal process under state law against the same income (section 466(b)(7) of Social Security Act). If a federal tax levy is in effect, please notify the sender.

Payments: You must send child support payments payable by income withholding to the appropriate SDU or to a tribal CSA within 7 business days, or fewer if required by state law, after the date the income would have been paid to the employee/obligor and include the date you withheld the support from his or her income. You may combine withheld amounts from more than one employee/obligor's income in a single payment as long as you separately identify each employee/obligor's portion of the payment. Child support payments may not be made through the federal Office of Child Support Services (OCSS) Child Support Portal.

Lump Sum Payments: You may be required to notify a state or tribal CSA of upcoming lump sum payments, such as bonuses, commissions, or severance pay, to this employee/obligor. Contact the sender to determine if you are required to report and/or withhold lump sum payments. Employers/income withholders may use the OCSS Child Support Portal (ocsp.acf.hhs.gov/csp/) to provide information about employees who are eligible to receive lump sum payments and to provide contacts, addresses, and other information about their companies. Child support payments may not be made through the OCSS Child Support Portal.

Liability: If you have any doubts about the validity of this IWO, contact the sender. If you fail to withhold income from the employee/obligor's income as the IWO directs, you are liable for both the accumulated amount you should have withheld and any penalties set by state or tribal law/procedure, together with interest and reasonable attorney's fees. If you comply with this IWO, you will not be subject to civil liability to any individual or agency for conduct in compliance with this IWO. In New York State, pursuant to Civil Practice Law and Rules (CPLR) § 5241, upon a finding by the Family Court that you failed to withhold or remit withholdings as directed in this IWO, the Court shall issue an order directing your compliance and may direct the payment of a civil penalty not to exceed $500 for the first instance and $1,000 per instance for the second and subsequent instances of noncompliance.

Anti-discrimination: You are subject to a fine determined under state or tribal law for discharging an employee/obligor from employment, refusing to employ, or taking disciplinary action against an employee/obligor because of this IWO. In New York State, pursuant to CPLR § 5252, the court may direct a civil penalty not to exceed $500 for the first instance and $1,000 per instance for the second and subsequent instances of such discrimination, including laying off or refusing to promote an employee/obligor. Such discrimination may also be punishable as a contempt of court by fine or imprisonment or both.

Supplemental Information: (1) Part A of this form contains sensitive information and must be served only upon the employer/income withholder for purposes of processing the income withholding; Part B, which consists of 4 pages, must be served upon the employer/income withholder, employee/obligor, and obligee. (2) Priority of withholding pursuant to CPLR § 5241(h) is current support, followed by health insurance premiums, and then arrears payments. (3) If there are multiple IWOs against this employee/obligor, withhold the maximum amount permitted (see V. Remittance Information, above) and pay to each creditor the proportion thereof which such creditor's claim bears to the combined total. (4) Where the income of the employee or nonemployee is compensation that is not paid or payable to the obligor for personal services, there is no limit to the amount you must withhold. Otherwise the noted limit applies. (5) If the employee/obligor is reinstated or reemployed within 90 days after termination, this IWO is still in effect.
