Jewish Region Plans Second Group Meeting

Convention Set For Sunday, June 13, At Young Israel Home, Jamaica

Plans for the second regional convention of Long Island Congregations, arranged by the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America, were completed at a luncheon meeting of active leaders of the region, which was held recently and which was at-tended by the national president and executive director, William Weiss and Rabbi Max J. Wohlgelernter, respectively.

The convention, which has definitely been set for Sunday, June 13, will be held at the Jamaica Young Israel Building. It is also planned to have special sermons dealing with the significance of the Union's work preached from various pulpits of the synagogues on the Sabbath preceding the sessions.

Details of the program and other arrangements for the all-day meeting will be decided upon by a special convention committee which will gather at the home of Mr. Jacob M. Marcuson, 1 Beach 15th street, Far Rockaway, on Tuesday evening, April 27th. All orthodox congregations in Long. orthodox congregations in Long Island have been asked to appoint two delegates each to serve on the convention committee.
