b. Country Financing Parameters
Country Financing Parameters	Country Financing Parameters (CFPs), including the analysis underpinning them, may be disclosed in one of two ways: as part of the CPF/CAS (see box above) or as a self-standing note that is prepared outside the CPF/CAS cycle. If prepared as part of the CPF/CAS, the procedures for CPFs/CASs (as referenced above) are followed. Self-standing CFP notes are disclosed after distribution to the EDs for information. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The originating unit transmits the document(s) to SECPO, indicating in the Board eSubmission form that it is to be disclosed after distribution to the EDs.</li> <li>• SECPO distributes the documents to the EDs and notifies IDU that it should now be disclosed. IDU then changes the classification to “Public” and posts it on the Bank’s external website.</li> </ul>	The country director consults the country concerned if s/he believes that the CFP contains confidential country information. The task team, as it considers appropriate, makes adjustments to the document(s) to address the matters of concern to the country. Classification. When the originating unit transmits the paper to SECPO, it is classified in accordance with AMS 6.21A. IDU changes the classification when SECPO notifies IDU to disclose the paper.

c. Joint Staff Advisory Notes (JSANs)
Joint Staff Advisory Notes (JSANs) on Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper (PRSP)	JSANs are made publicly available after discussion by both the Bank's Board and the IMF's Board. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The originating unit transmits the JSAN to SECPO, together with a copy of the PRSP, indicating in the Board eSubmission form that the JSAN is to be disclosed at the end of the Bank and IMF Boards' discussions.</li> <li>• The TTL indicates when the IMF discussion will take place in the Board eSubmission form (in the "comment" field). If the date of the IMF Board discussion is after the Bank Board discussion date, the TTL confirms with SECPO when the IMF discussion is completed.</li> <li>• After the JSAN has been discussed by both Boards, if no revision is needed, SECPO notifies IDU immediately following the Board meeting that the JSAN should be disclosed. IDU then changes the classification and posts it on the Bank's external website.</li> <li>• If the JSAN is revised, the originating unit coordinates with the IMF to ensure that the final JSAN is distributed to both the Bank and the IMF Boards before it is publicly disclosed. It sends the final text to SECPO by the agreed date, indicating in the Board eSubmission form that it is being circulated in parallel to the IMF Board and is to be disclosed. SECPO distributes the final JSAN to EDs and notifies IDU that it should now be disclosed. IDU then changes the classification to "Public" and posts it on the Bank's external website. Because the IMF's Transparency Policy for country documents is "voluntary but presumed" on a non-objection basis, if the country authorities object to a (joint) document being disclosed by the IMF, then the Bank is not able to disclose it.</li> </ul>	Early during the preparation of a JSAN, the Country Director informs the country in writing that: (a) it is the Bank's policy to make all JSANs available to the public, subject to the IMF's disclosure policy given that JSANs are joint documents; and (b) the Bank shares the draft JSAN with the country authorities before it is distributed to the Board so that the country authorities have an opportunity to identify whether it contains any confidential information relating to the country. Before the JSAN is distributed to the Board, the TTL requests the country authorities to identify whether it contains any confidential information relating to the country. The Bank, as it considers appropriate, makes adjustments to the JSAN to address the matters of concern to the country before transmitting it to SECPO. Classification. When the originating unit transmits a JSAN to SECPO, it is classified in accordance with AMS 6.21A. IDU changes the classification to "Public" when SECPO notifies IDU to disclose the JSAN.

e. External Training
1. Learning materials and related information	Learning materials (e.g., thematic papers and teaching notes, case studies, learning modules, databases, instructional games) are made available for public access and/or in print format.	Case studies may contain potentially sensitive information. Prior to making the information publicly available, the appropriate Bank staff reviews the documents to ensure that they do not contain information that would fall under the Policy exceptions. Classification. If the documents are still considered deliberative or contain information that would fall under one of the exceptions of the AI Policy, they are classified by the originating unit according to AMS 6.21A. When the document is ready for disclosure the originating unit changes the classification to “Public” and posts it to the external website.
2. Development Marketplace and innovation fairs and competitions	Proposals and submissions to Development Marketplace and other innovation fairs and competitions by social entrepreneurs and other innovators are made publicly available, unless the information falls under the Policy exceptions (e.g., information given by third parties in confidence).
