Lawlessness and why #PizzaGate goes unpunished - Big Picture (/v/pizzagate/2044053)

(pizzagate (/v/pizzagate)) submitted 1.9 days ago by [deleted]

Please bear with me here, as this does pertain to the prosecution of #pizzagate. I've been researching how the District Of Columbia, the City of London, and Vatican City are all extra-judicial zones where the rule of law does not apply. They might have certain rules they follow, but those rules don't apply to us, and their "rules" can be suspended or revised as necessary to suit the needs of those in control of these lawless zones. The paranoid exclamation, "It' all a lie!" is actually quite true. The more you look into various matters, the more you will come to understand that the vast majority of so-called "truth" you have been forced to swallow is in fact not true at all. Who's in charge? The Jesuits? The Rothschilds? Aliens? I am not sure. Did you know that the rights outlined in the U.N.'s "Universal Declaration of Human Rights," that include freedom of speech and freedom of association, are rights not granted by God, but by the State, and therefore can be rescinded by the State? Did you know that the United State's Constitution is the only such charter in the entire world where citizen rights are recognized to be divine in nature and cannot be abrogated by the state? Did you know that Catholicism forbids their Jesuit order from serving as Pope, yet the current Pope is a Jesuit? Did you know that the current Pope has decreed that one-world government is good, genetically modified organisms are A-okay, and that extra-terrestrials can receive the sacrament? Did you know that the Queen of England owns 1/6th of the planet, is the largest private landowner in the state of Colorado, which is the proposed backup capitol of the New World Order should Washington, D.C. fall, and owns all the land in the 90 or so commonwealth countries she presides over, including England? That's right: no one in England actually owns their property. They are renters. Did you know that the Queen, through her Secretary General, can dissolve the elected parliaments in any of her 90 countries, as she has done on several occasions? Did you know that the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, the RUSSIAN FEDERATION, CHINA, and many other so-called "sovereign nations" are mere corporate entities chartered in the City of London? The USA might have started free, but through bankruptcy, international banker fraud, etc., all people and assets in the USA are considered property of our owners in the City of London. Did you know that our nation's national parks, and other important property, have been pledged as collateral to China and other major holders of our country's $20+ trillion debt? The Rothschilds funded both sides of the US Civil War of the 1860s. They also funded both sides of WW2. The bankers cannot abide by peace as war forces everyone into debt. Our "enemies" are almost always manufactured to suit the bankers' needs. Have you ever wondered why it is just the good guys who want peace, like JFK Jr. and Martin Luther King Jr., that are assassinated while the bad guys live out long lives (e.g., David Rockefeller)? Did you know that a US bankruptcy occurred in the 1930s whereupon all citizen were given ALL-CAP CORPORATE NAMES and SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS that identify them as property of the US CORPORATION that is owned by the elites of the City of London?

I could go on and on and on here. The point of identifying this rather large rabbit hole is to explain why child sex trafficking continues and many of the parties involved appear untouchable. There is a supra-governmental power structure that is indeed above the law. Anyone who threatens this structure will likely be killed or otherwise neutralized via threats, reputation destruction, financial ruin, et cetera.

An associate of pizzagate researcher Titus Frost hacked into Comet Ping Pong and Pizza's "private" section of their website some time back and uncovered child porn. He downloaded the videos and other information and gave it to the DC Metro Police. In the following months nothing has happened. The shop's owner, James Alefantis, is free as a bird. Meanwhile, this hacker has had his car demolished in a hit and run (though parked in a cul-de-sac) and has received death threats. Alefantis is reported to be related to the Rothschilds himself. The fact that this is going on in Washington D.C., and that political and financial elites are likely involved, goes a long way to explaining why the rule of law simply does not apply. The Rothschilds claim to be Jews, but are actually Khazars, about which the Bible states, "...of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." You might wonder where the Luciferian bent of modern culture (including pedophilia obsession) and political activity comes from. I'd say you need look no further than the Khazar Rothschilds.

It's important to know what we the people are up against. There are trillions of dollars, thousands of paid enforcers, a corrupt anti-human governance structure, and a terrifying world view aligned against the spark of freedom that resides in all human beings.

I was just doing some research on the Wikileaks Podesta Email #6008 that likely depicts a "wet works" assassination of Justice Antonin Scalia. This, and all the hundreds of Podesta and other Wikileaks emails demonstrates "probable cause" for a formal investigation leading to criminal indictments against all these parties. If AG Sessions wants to know what really happened and prosecute guilty parties, the NSA has all the phone records, texts, and other communications stored and warehoused at their facility in Utah. What Podesta has been up to, and what Alefantis has been up to, is stored there. All that law enforcement has to do is request that information, or send in Federal Marshalls to seize it. Justice will and should be served unless our government is covering up for a class of people who consider themselves above the law.

THIS POST A HAM-FISTED ATTEMPT INDEED. ALSO NEEDS LINE BREAKS.

DonKeyhote - Given the Satanist's obsession with inverting Biblical dogma, the Khazar thesis is not a stretch, and certainly not central to my argument. Please bear in mind that this SRA stuff goes way beyond mere sexual gratification. I'd appreciate your response to the larger argument that the rule of law is subverted at the highest levels. Do you disagree with that? If so, what supports your view?
