3.   FOREWARD DISCLAIMER
5.   I would just like to begin by saying I am not the original Pedowood guy, nor claim to be. I made a few additions and gathered up as much new material that has been generated as possible. The size and scope has increased, so I put in a few hours to fit everything in. Some of the newer elements have to do with psychological research and operations, while others simply expand into a wider spectrum of previously covered topics. Feel free to use at your discretion and to make any corrections needed for future editions.
7.   END DISCLAIMER

9.
10.  PRIMARY SOURCES ARE INCLUDED AT THE BOTTOM IN AN APPROPRIATELY LABELED, BRACKETED SECTION.
11.
12.  The information below is intended to convey the reality of the fact that, criminal networks exist and provide access to children for the purposes of sexual exploitation and child pornography to elite clientele in the political and business worlds. These networks often target the most vulnerable populations of children, especially those in state institutions. Oftentimes, these networks are protected by security forces and the legal system because they are a valuable source of blackmail/intelligence, and because the revelation of their clients would be politically problematic. When they are exposed, the full story is almost never told. These sections are presented in no particular order.

96. [THE FRANKLIN CASE]
97.

98. In the 1980s, banker/politician Lawrence King used the Omaha, NB Franklin Credit Union as a cover for many criminal activities, including child trafficking and pimping to elite clients in Washington DC. Children were prostituted at parties hosted by gay-pimp Republican lobbyist Craig Spence. The credit union failed due to King's embezzlement and a NB State Senate investigation turned up massive evidence of large-scale child abuse, but the FBI shut down the investigation and two sham grand juries attacked the accusers. Several witnesses and an investigator were murdered or died mysteriously. Former CIA Director Bill Colby went on record stating the case had merit before dying in a

"canoe accident".

This is simply one of the hard facts of life you have to face."

208. "The Finders" were a cult organization investigated in the late 1980s for child abuse and trafficking. A US Customs Service report from that time states that the organization was trafficking and abusing many children but the investigation was shut down by CIA. If the Finders still exist, no information exists about their activities after the early 1990s.

240. [THE DUTROUX/FOURNIRET CASES]

241.

242. In the 1996, Belgian criminal Marc Dutroux was arrested for kidnapping several young girls, holding them for months and murdering them. Dutroux had previously been released from prison despite raping women and the police "missed" numerous, obvious opportunities to stop him while the girls were still alive. Dutroux and his surviving victims maintained in court that he was just a functionary for a network of criminals that provided children and child porn to businessmen and politicians across Europe. Multiple witnesses were murdered or "committed suicide", judges resigned from the case citing fear for their lives, evidence was suppressed and the mismanagement of the case led to protests with hundreds of thousands of people in the streets of Brussels. The government still claims Dutroux was not part of any network

243.

244. Regina Louf (X1) described how she and others were sometimes raped by German shepherds or even how snakes were inserted into the vaginas of the girls. It sounds bizarre, but take a look at some of the pictures. These have been confiscated from a child abuse network and appeared in the Dutroux dossier, DVD 3, 47073774-1 to 4.pdf. There are hundreds of children on these (low quality) pictures, making you wonder where all of them are today and how they are doing (or if they're alive in the first place). Judging from these pictures (and there are many more), sex with dogs and other animals is very common in child abuse networks.

245.

246. "Père forced me back on my knees, pushed me with my face on the cool table surface, and the other tied my left- and right wrist to the bed... I was unable to move in any direction and was forced to stay in this humiliating position... Everything is set ready, the lamps are pushed in the right position, the light intensity is measured - what is about to happen, I don't know, but the tension is building in my stomach. What's the deal with those dogs?... I feel how the claws of the rough-haired dog are pressing into my sides. I feel how he's panting in my neck, drool from his tongue is dripping on my back. I scream as I feel how he enters me, how his paws clasp me, his nails press into my skin. 'Get him off me', I scream... My cries are lost in an enthusiastic cheer when the dogs lets something wet run down my legs... It was the first photo shoot with dogs in a long line." (55)

261.

262. Another Belgian serial killer, Michel Fourniret, was convicted in an almost identical case involving young girls kidnapped, sold into prostitution for elite clients, and murdered. In Fourniret's case as well, multiple witnesses and investigators (including a police detective) were killed or intimidated, and police misconduct was rampant.

was ever convicted. Alegre worked in a police canteen.

These documentaries aired in 1981 so they are pre-Franklin but they cover the same territory but with a focus on the boy prostitution problem in Dallas Texas specifically and in the South and Southwest among elites like politicians. It featured 2 journalists, Tom Philpott and Mark McKinnon, who had been investigating the matter. Philpott was non-lethally shot at home within a short time of the show being aired and he then went on to "commit suicide" under dubious circumstances. McKinnon went on to work for George W Bush;

866. Although the CIA insists that MKUltra-type experiments have been abandoned, some CIA observers say there is little reason to believe it does not continue today under a different set of acronyms. 14-year CIA veteran Victor Marchetti has stated in various interviews that the CIA routinely conducts disinformation campaigns and that CIA mind control research continued. In a 1977 interview, Marchetti specifically called the CIA claim that MKUltra was abandoned a "cover story."

He remembered that his father had had such fears prior to his prostate operation. He said that three doctors treating Robeson in London and New York had been CIA contractors, and that his father's symptoms resulted from being "subjected to mind depatterning under MKULTRA", a secret CIA program. Martin Duberman claimed that Robeson's health breakdown was probably brought on by a combination of factors including extreme emotional and physical stress, bipolar depression, exhaustion and the beginning of circulatory and heart problems. "[E]ven without an organic predisposition and accumulated pressures of government harassment he might have been susceptible to a breakdown."

1137. In September 2009, Weinstein publicly voiced opposition to efforts to extradite Roman Polanski from Switzerland to the U.S. regarding 1977 charges of unlawful sexual intercourse with a 13-year-old, to which Polanski had pled guilty before fleeing the country. Weinstein, whose company had distributed a film about the Polanski case, questioned whether Polanski committed any crime, prompting Los Angeles County District Attorney Steve Cooley to insist that Polanski's guilty plea indeed qualified his action as a crime, and that several other more serious charges were still pending.

On 3 April 1980 three members of staff at the home, William McGrath, Raymond Semple and Joseph Mains, were charged with a number of offences relating to the systematic sexual abuse of children in their care over a number of years. All three were later convicted and jailed. Mains, the former warden, received a term of six years, Semple, a former assistant warden, five years and McGrath was jailed in December 1981 for four years.

1268. > For 30 years, Georgia Tann made millions selling children. A network of scouts, corrupt judges and politicians helped her steal babies. She also targeted youngsters on their way home from school, promising them ice cream to tempt them away from their homes. Legal papers would be signed saying they were abandoned - most would never see their families again. Now, her story has been revealed in a new book. After painstakingly contacting her surviving victims and a forensic search through the archives, Barbara Bisantz Raymond calculates that Tann sold more than 5,000 children - and killed scores through neglect. During the time she ran her 'business', the infant mortality rate in Memphis was the highest in the country. Tann molested some of the girls in her care and placed children with pedophiles. She charged fees to couples desperate to be parents. Some victims were sold as underage farm hands or domestic skivvies. Others were starved, beaten and raped. The lucky ones were sold to wealthy parents, with Hollywood stars, including Lana Turner and Joan Crawford - who adopted twins Cathy and Cynthia - lining up for babies. Some of the children were featured in magazine articles. A number were placed with families in Britain.

1281. > "Experts have noted that the victimized children showed a level of knowledge that defies rational explanation if the kids have not experienced what they claim to have experienced. For instance, these children can accurately describe the look, smell, texture and colors of human viscera (internal body organs). This is an ability, it has been argued, that very few adults possess, other than those trained as surgeons or coroners. These children also display a remarkable level of knowledge of a wide variety of unconventional human sexual practices, including many acts that, again, most adults do not have knowledge or awareness of. If these children did not experience these things firsthand, then how did they gain such knowledge?"

FOREWARD DISCLAIMER

I would just like to begin by saying I am not the original Pedowood guy, nor claim to be. I made a few additions and gathered up as much new material that has been generated as possible. The size and scope has increased, so I put in a few hours to fit everything in. Some of the newer elements have to do with psychological research and operations, while others simply expand into a wider spectrum of previously covered topics. Feel free to use at your discretion and to make any corrections needed for future editions.
