Preamble

The FMBA is the world governing body for the sport of freeride mountain biking. The FMBA was founded in 2010 and is registered as a non-profit organisation in Munich, Germany. The FMBA promotes Mountain Bike Freeride Sports which comprises the development, governance and structure for freeride disciplines: Dirt Jump, Park, Slopestyle, Big Mountain. The main objective of the FMBA is to continuously develop and support the progression of the sport, athletes and events. The FMBA owns and administers the FMB World Tour.

The FMB World Tour is the official international circuit of amateur and professional Freeride Mountain Bike competitions in the disciplines Dirt Jump, Big Air, Slopestyle and Big Mountain governed by the Freeride Mountain Bike Association e.V. („FMBA“). The FMBA sanctions events, which are part of the FMB World Tour, in 4 different categories: Diamond, Gold, Silver, Bronze. The Crankworx FMBA Slopestyle World Championship (SWC) is the highest echelon of the Slopestyle sport and determines the annual Slopestyle World Champion. Athletes must compete at Diamond, Gold, Silver and Bronze Events on the FMB World Tour, collecting points for the FMB World Ranking, in order to qualify for the SWC. The FMB World Ranking is a roll-over ranking system, which considers the three best results of each athlete in the past 52 weeks.

1.3.1. Category of Events

FMB World Tour events are classified in four categories:

- FMB World Tour Diamond Events
- FMB World Tour Gold Events
- FMB World Tour Silver Events
- FMB World Tour Bronze Events

Each category stands for a specific set of criteria that reflect the quality and sportive level of the respective event. The four categories span a path from grassroots, regional events, and athletes to practice their skills (Bronze) via proving grounds on a National to International scale (Silver) over International top tier qualifying events (Gold) to the global pinnacle events for the world's elite athletes (Diamond).

FMB Diamond Events: are an international level event that hosts the top professional athletes within the sport of Slopestyle. Diamond level events attract a wider onsite audience and a global online audience.

FMB Gold Events: are an international level event. Gold events attract higher level professional athletes so points, prize money, onsite support and event coverage is positioned accordingly. Gold level events appeal to a regional audience onsite and a global audience online.

FMB World Tour Silver Events: are intended to be a national or international level event. It is aimed at up-and-coming professional riders. Points and prize money awarded at a Silver event, are reflective of the level of athletes this event aims to attract.

1.3.2. FMB World Tour Calendar

The FMB World Tour Calendar is the official competition schedule of licensed Events. The FMBA provides the overall organization and communication of the FMB World Tour through coordination of the international calendar, communication to Athletes and media. - Existing Event names need to be respected from other Events. Naming conflicts of events will be reviewed by the FMBA on a case-by-case basis. New Events with naming conflicts to existing FMB World Tour Events might need to change their Event name in order to be integrated in the FMB World Tour Calendar.

1.4. FMB World Tour Athletes

- The next top 3 ranked male athletes will each receive 1 x guaranteed entry (referred to as a Golden Ticket) to 1 x SWC event in the next season (excluding the last SWC event of the season). Only one Golden Ticket per SWC event is permitted. Selection for which athlete will attend each SWC event will be through a draft format in order of rank based on the Gold Cup final standings following the last Gold event of the season.

If one of the Top 4 Gold Cup male athletes is already PQ'd as part of the top 5 from the SWC final standings, eligibility goes to the next ranked rider on the Gold Cup final standings.

NOTE: For the 2024 and 2025 Crankworx FMBA SWC seasons, Female PQ GC athletes and Golden Tickets will not apply.

1.5.5. Rookie Standings

The FMBA Red Bull Rookie Standings are a seasonal ranking considering athletes with either a World Tour License or an Amateur License. To be eligible for the Rookie Standings an athlete must be between the ages of 16 – 25 years old of the current calendar year.

Rookie Rankings are comprised of an athletes' total score from their best three results from Gold, Silver and/or Bronze events in the current calendar year.

The Rookie Standings are updated after every stop and are published on the FMB World Tour website.

1.5.6. National Standings

When the FMBA sanctions a National Championship event in a specific country, the FMBA will create and maintain a National Standings for that country only. The National Standings will only include riders ranked on the FMBA World Tour Ranking who reside in that country, according to their FMBA Member License.

1.5.7. Injured Rider Protocol

Under the "Injured Rider Protocol" a rider can request to freeze the points on the FMB World Ranking due to an injury. During the period of injury (injured status) and for a period of time after the rider has recovered from the injury and resumed competing (recovered status), the rider's points will be frozen. The rider will be ranked based on these frozen points, allowing the rider to retain potential seeding/invitation rights as per (2.2). The following rules apply.

1.5.7.1 Requesting Injured Rider Status

To request injured rider status, a rider or their designated representative (e.g. coach) has to contact the FMBA Administration office (riders@fmbworldtour.com) and provide a medical certificate in electronic form (pdf), signed by a medical doctor within 30 days from the date of injury. The medical certificate has to be in English and include the following information:

- Athlete Name
- Athlete Date of Birth
- Exact date the injury occurred
- Type of injury
- Approximate period of recovery
- Doctor Name / Signature

The rider's injury request will be reviewed by FMBA Administration. On acceptance of the request, the rider will be granted injured rider status and their status set to “injured”. Injuries have to be reported immediately when the rider notices that his/her ability to compete will be impacted for a longer period of time. Injury requests which are submitted weeks or months after the actual injury occurred do not have to be accepted but will be reviewed. FMBA Administration has the right to deny requests from riders if the injury is considered marginal or short-term.

1.5.7.2. Frozen Points / Frozen Status

The ranking points value a rider is ranked on at the time of injury will be frozen when the injury status is enacted. A rider ranked on frozen points is considered having a “frozen status”, either “injured” or “recovered”. The frozen points determined at time of injury are called the “initial frozen points”.

If the rider status 52 weeks after the injury is still “injured” or “recovered”, the rider’s frozen points will be reduced by 50%, regardless of his/her frozen status. This points value is called the “reduced frozen points”. For as long as the rider remains in frozen status, he/she will be ranked based on the reduced frozen points.

During the period of injury or recovery, a rider’s ranking position will be calculated using either his/her initial or reduced frozen points.

1.5.7.3 Period of Injury / Injured Status

A rider’s injury status will be enacted on Monday of the week the injury occurred as stated in the medical certificate. The date when the status is enacted is called the “initial injured status date”. This date also marks the start of the injury period. A rider’s FMB World Ranking points as of the week of the initial injured status date will be frozen and the duration of the rider’s injury period will be calculated from that date onwards.

During the injury period, the rider status will be “injured”, indicated on his listing on the FMB World Ranking with a prefix “ * ”. A rider’s ranking position on the FMB World Ranking will be calculated based on the frozen points. The injury period of a rider shall last a maximum of 52 weeks from the initial injured status date. If a rider does not resume competing within 52 weeks, his/her status will be automatically changed from “Injured” to “Recovered” and the rider’s frozen points will be reduced by 50%.

1.5.7.4. Period of Recovery / Recovered Status

A rider’s recovery status will be enacted if

- A rider resumes competing within 52 weeks since the injured status was set. This is the case when the rider is listed with a final placement on a competition result submitted by the event organizer. Participating in a practice session, being listed on the start list of a competition, or being listed on the result of a competition with no rank but status DNS does not result in a status change.
- 52 weeks have passed since the initial injured status date.
- The rider declares him/herself as recovered.

The date when the status is enacted is called the “initial recovered status date”. This date usually is the date of the Monday of the week immediately following the date of the event the rider competed in or the 52nd Monday following the initial injured status date.

During the recovery period, the rider status will be “recovered”, indicated on his listing on the FMB World Ranking with a prefix “ + “. The recovery period of a rider shall last a maximum of 52 weeks from the initial recovered status date.

A rider will continue to be ranked based on his/her initial or reduced frozen points during the recovery period until one of the following conditions applies. The check takes place on every recurring update of the FMB World Ranking.

- A. 52 weeks have passed since the rider’s frozen status was changed from injured to recovered
- B. The riders ranking points based on his current results are equal or higher than his/her frozen points (initial or reduced frozen points)
- C. The rider’s current number of counting results equals the number of counting results required for the FMB World Ranking (currently 3 counting results are required)
- D. The rider requests to have his/her frozen points dropped

If any of the above conditions A-D applies during the rider’s recovery period, the rider’s frozen status will be dropped. The rider status will be changed to normal, the prefix “+” on the rankings will be removed and the rider will be ranked based on the points from his/her current results.

Note: A rider’s “current results” are his/her results in any given week which are not older than 52 weeks looking back from the current date. A rider’s “current number of counting results” refers to his/her best results in any given week.

2. FMB World Tour Competition Regulations

2.1. FMB World Tour Event Format

FMB World Tour events of the categories; Diamond, Gold, Silver and Bronze shall comply with the following event format regulations. The information about the final event format shall be submitted together with the Event Application Form.

2.1.1. Competition Rounds

Generally, every Event shall consist of two Competition Rounds, 'Qualifications' and 'Finals'. FMB World Tour events are not allowed to hold Superfinals. Superfinals are understood as when a specific number of athletes in the Final round (e.g. the best 6 ranked athletes in Finals Round after 2nd run) are given an additional, 3rd run while the other athletes only get to do 2 runs.

FMB World Tour Diamond and Gold Events may host a Finals Round only. In that case, the Event host needs to request this at the time of event application and receive FMBA's approval in the signed Event License Agreement. The requirements listed below for the minimum number of athletes in a Finals Round only, refers to the number of accepted invitations 1 week out from the event. If an injured athlete withdraws and there are no alternates confirmed for the competition, then the injured athlete's starting position will not be filled and there may be less than the required number of athletes in Finals.

Diamond events require a minimum of fourteen (14) male athletes and six (6) female athletes to be invited to the Finals Round, even if a Qualifications Round is held prior to Finals.

Gold events are strongly encouraged to hold a Qualification Round and a Finals round.

Qualifications and Finals Round Format: A minimum of fifteen (15) male athletes and six (6) female athletes are required in a Finals round when a Qualification Round is held prior.

Finals Round Only Format: In the case of an approved Finals Round only at a Gold event, the following is required in order to be able to guarantee fair and proper access and judging over all athletes; a minimum of twenty-five (25) male athletes and maximum of thirty (35) male athletes and a minimum of two (2) female athletes and a maximum of fifteen (15) female athletes. Furthermore, the FMBA Judge Director needs to confirm on the judge panel of the respective event that is to only hold Finals Round.

Competition Eligibility rules only apply to the Competition Rounds (Qualifications and Finals). If an Event Organizer holds pre-qualifications to their event to determine wildcards, they must take place outside of the sanctioned FMB Event.

2.1.2. Qualification Round

The Qualification Round determines the best athletes of the event that qualify for the Finals.

- Starting order shall be reversed order of the current FMB World Ranking

- A minimum of 2 runs per athlete is recommended.
- Most expected format on the FMB World Tour is 2 runs, best run counts.
- However, an event organizer can suggest a format that makes sense for the event's specific characteristics (e.g. combined run scores, jam format ...).
- The event organizer must clearly communicate the format that is intended towards in their Event Application. FMBA holds the right to approve the format.
- The organizer shall clearly communicate the format and how many athletes will advance from a previous competition round into the next round.
- Results must comply with Event Result Requirements (3.2.7)

Exception: Qualifications Round at Gold/Silver Events can be held as a jam format with no restricted number of runs. Results of jam formats also must comply with the Event Result Requirements (3.2.7).

2.1.3. Finals

The Finals consist of the best athletes of the Qualification Round. The Finals determine the winner of the Event as well as the ranking of the best Athletes of the event.

- Starting order shall be reversed order of the Qualification results
- If the Event is a Finals Only format, starting order shall be reversed order of the current FMB World Tour Ranking
- The required format for Finals is 2 runs, best run counts.
- Results must comply with Event Result Requirements (3.2.7)

Incomplete Rounds due to unforeseen events

- See 3.2.7

2.1.4. Seeding at FMB World Tour Diamond, Gold, Silver and Bronze Events

Seeding is based on the FMB World Ranking as of the week of the event. The rider with the lowest FMB World Ranking position of all participants will start first and the rider with the highest FMB World Ranking position of all participants will start last. Riders without a FMB World Ranking position will start before all other riders. If there is more than 1 rider without a FMB World Ranking rank, the seeding positions beneath those will be assigned randomly.

2.1.5. Seeding at Crankworx FMBA SWC Diamond Events

For the first Crankworx FMBA SWC event of the season, seeding is based on the final SWC ranking of the previous season. For all other Crankworx FMBA SWC events of the current season, seeding is based on the SWC standings, as of the week of the event. The rider with the lowest SWC ranking position of all participants will start first and the rider with the highest SWC ranking position of all participants will start last. Participating athletes that do not have a SWC rank will be seeded before the athletes with a SWC rank. If there is more than one rider without a SWC rank, the seeding positions beneath those will be assigned according to their FMB World Ranking as of the week of the event.

2.1.6. Procedure for replacing a withdrawn athlete from an event in progress:

If Athletes who qualified for Finals due to their performance in Qualifications, withdraw or will be withdrawn from Finals (because of injury or similar), the Event Host can replace this position and grant the available starting place to the next ranked Athlete/s according to the decisive ranking of the Qualification results.

The special result requirements in 3.2.7 comply.

2.2. FMB World Tour Competition Eligibility and Access for Athletes

The Event Host shall invite, guarantee starting places, and grant event access to athletes based on the following regulations for a Diamond, Gold, Silver, Bronze and National Championship Level.

Event Hosts that are subject to a qualified invitation process using the FMB World Tour Ranking as of 6 weeks out from the event:

- Are permitted to set a deadline of 1 week out from the first day of scheduled training for athletes to accept or reject their invitation.
- Are not obligated to continue the invitation process within 1 week of the first training session of their competition.
- Unfilled invitational starting positions cannot be filled by wildcards or open registration.
- Event Hosts are required to include the FMBA (riders@fmbworldtour.com) on the initial athlete invitations that go out 6 weeks prior to the event and keep the FMBA Administration Team informed on the confirmed athlete line-up for the competition.

FMB World Tour licensed Athletes need to acknowledge their event invite based on the FMB World Ranking within 10 days of receiving the invitation. The event invite expires without this acknowledgment and the event organizer is not obligated to reserve a starting place after the 10 days. The event organizer will then continue with invitations based on the determining World Tour Ranking.

FMB World Tour Diamond Events:

- Only FMB World Tour License Athletes according to the invitation rules below are eligible to compete in FMB World Tour Diamond Events (see wildcard regulation for exceptions)

The FMB discipline of Slopestyle requires a specifically designed jump track that flows downhill, via the natural terrain or a temporary construction. The track must have trickable features that allow the rider to become airborne, execute an aerial trick and safely land on their bike to continue down the track.

The following elements are required of a Slopestyle Competition Course:

- There must be a clear start and finish.
- Riders must travel in a linear direction down the course, without repeating a feature or section of the course.

The following elements are not permitted within an FMB Slopestyle Competition Course:

- Air bags
- Mulch

There should be no distinction between the Men's and Women's course or features within a course, unless the Men's and Women's competitions are sanctioned as different event categories.

2.3.1. Designation of an FMB Competition Course

Outside of the above regulations, Event Hosts are expected to design a course that is safe and appropriate for the level of rider expected at their competition. The eligibility requirements and skill level of competing athletes is what primarily defines an FMB competition, with the competition course being secondary.

The FMB therefore does not designate specific technical requirements for each event category; however, the FMB retains the right to assess and approve or deny any competition course hosting a sanctioned event.

The FMB requires a minimum of 3 trickable course features per event category.

2.4. FMB World Tour Bike Requirements

The FMB sanctions Slopestyle and Dirt Jump competitions which have the following bike and wheel size requirements in place:

- 24-inch wheel minimum
- Mountain bike frame
- BMX bike frames are not permitted

3. FMB World Tour Event Regulations

3.1. FMB World Tour Event License

Every professional mountain bike competition / event of the disciplines Slopestyle, Dirt Jump, Big Air or Big Mountain or any combination thereof can apply for a FMB World Tour Event License according to the FMBA Rules, in particular the FMB World Tour TCs.

- Application as Bronze Event: 10 weeks prior to Event

(in case of a late application the FMBA is entitled but not obliged to accept the application of the Event Host)

For Bronze Events, the Event Fee is due at the time the Event License Agreement is issued.

Gold or Silver Events that include a Bronze Event on the same weekend are exempt from the Bronze Event Fees.

3.1.2. Granting of License: Event integration and categorization

Granting of the FMB World Tour Event License is at the sole discretion of the FMBA. The FMBA grants the FMB World Tour Event License to the Event Host by signing and submitting the Event Licensing Form to the Event Host in accordance with the FMB World Tour TCs.

Events will be categorized by the FMBA in one of four Event Categories outlined in 1.3.1. according to the Event requirements that are outlined in this Rule Book. The categorization has the purpose to outline a path that spans from grass-roots events to proving grounds to professional international qualifier events to elite world class events. Each category indicates an expected level of course building, riding skills that are required, media and public attention and organizational requirements.

For assessment of the FMB World Tour Event Category, the FMBA looks at the event's FMB World Tour Event Categorization Points as outlined in Appendix I that refer to the Event Requirements document. Besides the rating of the Event through FMB World Tour Event categorization points the Event will be reviewed by the FMBA Tour Administration staff and/or the executive board or the advisory board to assure the compliance of the Event with the according Event Category requirements. E.g. qualitative impressions such as the organization/persons behind the event or course build or the event's history are looked at.

To guarantee a certain level of organization and sportive performance, a Gold event host applicant that is new to the FMB World Tour (meaning this event has never been on the FMB World Tour before or has not been part of the FMB World Tour as a Gold or Silver Event within the past three years) has to host its event as a Silver category event (while meeting all Gold requirements already) in the first year before it will be considered for a Gold category in the consecutive year(s). Exceptions from this rule can be made through application to the FMBA Board.

In any case the FMB Tour Administration staff and/or the FMBA advisory board will make the final decision about the integration of the Event in the FMB World Tour calendar and a certain FMB World Tour Event Category.

3.1.3. Event License Period

The FMB World Tour Event License is valid until end of the season of the FMB World Tour according to the FMBA Rules, in particular the FMB World Tour TCs. However, the FMBA is entitled to agree with the Event Hosts on a longer Term.

3.1.4. Changes to the Event

No FMB World Tour Event may be cancelled, postponed or substantially changed in comparison to the details of the Event License Agreement established by the FMBA.

In special cases that force the Event Host to cancel, postpone or substantially change the Event compared to the details set forth in the Event License Agreement the Event has to notify the FMBA in written form regarding the changes promptly.

For those special cases and forced changes of the event the following regulations regarding the FMB World Tour Event License Fee apply:

- a) For event cancellations that are communicated to the FMBA eight (8) weeks prior to the actual event date the Event Host will be refunded 50% of the overall Event License Fee.

3.2.6.1. Training times & duration

Minimum standards on training times and duration are essential for athletes to get used to the course and deliver their highest level of performance in competition. Furthermore, consistent conditions on training times and durations are vital to keep injury risk to a minimum. Thus, the below guidelines shall be followed based on event level.

Diamond and Gold Events:

- Official Training: the course should be ready for training a minimum of 24hrs before the first official training session is scheduled. A minimum of two (2) official training sessions must be scheduled prior to Qualifications or Finals. These sessions cannot take place on the same day as Qualifications or Finals.
- The duration of an official training session has to take the difficulty of the course and the number of riders into consideration. As a benchmark, each rider should be able to get at least 3 full training runs in to get used to and establish a feeling for the course. Course builders shall be prepared to react to rider's feedback during the 1st training session and make adjustments if needed before the 2nd training session.

- Training on the day of Qualifications or Finals: Training/Warm-up on the day of a competition round shall be scheduled well before the competition starts, however, not too early to avoid riders cooling down in between end of training and start of competition. Duration shall be calculated so that each rider can get at least two full training runs on the course.
- Training In-Between Competition Rounds on the Same Day: If several competition rounds happen on the same day, the time between the competition rounds needs to be calculated based on the following; if the next competition round happens straight after the foregoing, with a maximum of 15mins between competition end and the start of the next, no warm-up is required. If more than 15 min will pass until the next competition round can be started, a minimum of one (1) training run per athlete is required.

Silver and Bronze Events:

- Official Training: the course should be ready for training latest 24hrs before the first competition round is scheduled. A minimum of one (1) official training session must be scheduled the day before Qualifications or Finals take place. These sessions cannot take place on the same day as Qualifications or Finals.
- The duration of an official training session has to take the difficulty of the course and the number of riders into consideration. As a benchmark, each rider should be able to get at least 3 full training runs in to get used to and establish a feeling for the course. Course builders shall be prepared to react to rider's feedback during the 1st training session and make adjustments if needed before the 2nd training session.
- With fields of more than 20 riders, training should be run in heats to minimize the waiting time between runs for riders.
- Training on the day of Qualifications or Finals: Training/Warm-up on the day of a competition round shall be scheduled well before the competition starts, however, not too early to avoid riders cooling down in between end of training and start of competition. Warm-up duration shall be calculated so that each rider can get at least one full training run on the course.
- Training In-Between Competition Rounds on the Same Day: If several competition rounds happen on the same day, the time between the competition rounds needs to be calculated based on the following; if the next competition round happens straight after the foregoing, with a maximum of 15mins between competition end and the start of the next, no warm-up is required. If more than 15 min will pass until the next competition round can be started, a minimum of one (1) training run per athlete is required.

Each Event shall have an event jury, consisting of:

- Event/Sport Director
- Athlete Representative(s)
- Head Judge
- FMBA Official (if applicable)

- Head Course Builder (if applicable)

The Event Host shall arrange, prepare and hold a pre-Event jury meeting to which all event jury members shall be invited. The event jury meeting shall have the following agenda:

- Event schedule (incl. training schedule)
- Event format
- Course safety
- Judging format
- "Plan B", Crisis protocols & procedures (see below)
- Miscellaneous

In general, the event jury members are responsible for the proper execution of the event and ensure that the event is run in a professional, safe and fair way. The event jury is the deciding authority when it comes to situations that have an impact on the competition and the event schedule such as:

- Competition delays & cancellation (e.g. due to critical weather conditions or other conditions threatening the safety of the athletes)
- Extraordinary training sessions (e.g. as a cause of a weather delay)
- Judging issues (e.g. due to out-of-the-normal athlete complaints)
- Compliance with FMBA regulations (e.g. seeding, starting place determination, start order, judging criteria etc.)
- Code of conduct (e.g. athlete's/organizer's misbehavior)
- Emergency & crisis protocols

In such cases, the event jury shall meet as soon as the issue becomes apparent and discuss the situation at hand to take a decision. Each jury member has a vote and the majority of votes decides. In case no agreement can be reached within the event jury, the following responsibilities and voting rights are assigned to the event jury members:

Event Host:

The Event Director is ultimately responsible for all actions that are undertaken at the event. Thus they must have the final say regarding competition delays & cancellations, extraordinary training sessions and emergency & crisis protocols. In any case they shall act in the best interest of all stakeholders and consult with the event jury before taking a critical decision (such as e.g. cancellation of the event).

Athlete Representative:

The Athlete Representative shall consult and intervene in the name and for the best of the athletes. The Athlete Representative shall ensure that athlete hospitality standards are met, monitor that event run down regulations are in compliance with FMB rules (e.g. seeding, start order, judging criteria) and judging is in compliance with FMB judging criteria. They shall inform the event jury about any critical findings.

Head Judge:

The Head Judge shall consult and intervene to ensure a fair competition and consistent and transparent judging conditions. They are responsible for ensuring the judging criteria in compliance with FMB regulations are met and must answer for the decisions and performance of the judge panel. If on-site conditions will not allow the judge team to fulfill their duty, they must report to the event jury immediately.

FMBA Official:

The FMBA Official shall consult and intervene on all aspects of the event that refer to FMB regulations and sanctioning. They shall monitor that FMB Event regulations are met and ensure that the event jury is fully aware of the FMB competition regulations and code of conduct.

The FMBA official shall act as an intermediary and external adviser who supports all parties for the best of the competition, stakeholders and the sport.

If a person or group fails to comply with FMB regulations the FMBA official has the right to announce negative sanctions in the name of FMBA. E.g., when an event fails to comply with seeding and starting place determination or judging criteria, the FMBA Official can announce that competition results will not be accepted by FMBA, or FMB sanctioning for the event will be withdrawn.

3.2.7. Event Result Requirements

Overall event results

Each Event Host shall provide the FMBA with overall Event results that include the following information:

- Name, Nation and Rank of each Athlete that participated in the event and achieved a score
- Decisive score for ranking position
- Last Competition Round the Athlete participated in

The overall Event results shall only include Athletes that participated in the Event and achieved a score.

Each Event Host shall provide the FMBA with this information by using the approved FMB Results Template, available by contacting the FMBA Administration, within the timeframe pursuant to the following schedule and event level.

- Diamond/Gold: within 12 hours after end of Finals
- Silver/Bronze: within 24 hours after end of Finals

Special result requirements for withdrawn qualified Athletes and replacing Athletes

Athletes, qualified for a Finals Round due to their performance in the Qualification Round but withdrawn from the Finals Round (because of injury or similar), shall stay in the Finals Round regarding their rank in the overall Event results and be marked as “did not start” (DNS). The Athlete(s) shall be ranked in the last ranking spot of the Qualification Round. If it’s more than one withdrawn Athlete, all of these Athletes shall be ranked in the last ranking spot of the Qualification Round and do get FMB World Tour ranking points for this position.

The replacing athletes in the Finals Round shall be ranked in the overall ranking with the ranking spot they have achieved from the Qualification Round. The ranking spot of the Qualification Round from where the replacing athlete moved up shall stay free.

Result requirements for competition rounds or runs within a competition round that can not be completed due to cancellation because of weather or other unforeseen events

If not all competition rounds of an event or not all runs of a competition round of an event can be completed e.g. due to weather, then the following can be considered as a final competition round result (Best Run out of X Runs format):

- Not all runs of a competition round can be completed but all athletes have at least completed Run 1 (e.g. 2runs best counts: Run 1 has been completed by all athletes, 70% of all athletes have already done their Run 2, now bad weather comes in with no prospect for postponement). In the case that every athlete has done their Run 1 of a respective competition round then this Run 1 shall be considered for the final result for all athletes, if Run 2 can not be completed by all athletes due to cancellation because of an unforeseen event.

If both Run 1 and 2 have been completed by all athletes and a Run 3 could not be completed by all athletes due to cancellation because of an unforeseen event, then both Run 1 and Run 2 are to be considered for the athlete's final ranking on the competition round result.

- Not all competition rounds of an event could be completed due to cancellation because of unforeseen events (e.g. Qualification on Friday went through and all athletes have a qualification result, now Finals on Saturday are cancelled because of rain throughout the whole day). In the case that every athlete has a result from a previous competition round of the respective event and the consecutive competition round(s) got cancelled due to unforeseen events then the results from the previous competition round(s) shall be considered as final overall result. Competition rounds such as pre-qualifications where not all athletes (e.g. athletes seeded directly in qualification round) have participated in yet can not be considered for a final overall result

3.2.8. Event report

The Event Host shall provide at the request of the FMBA, general information about the Event, such as a summary about the competition finals and information about special and unexpected incidents (for example weather, accidents, delay, special appearances and so on) for the communicational use of the FMB World Tour. Any Athlete found in violation of this section shall be subject to the following disciplinary action:

Where a serious violation of the FMB World Tour Rulebook has occurred at an Event, a decision by the Discipline Committee cannot be made as they cannot be contacted or come to a decision in a reasonable amount of time. In this case, the FMBA Official at an event may disqualify an Athlete from the Event with immediate effect or impose other sanctions appropriate for the cause. The FMBA Official will rule to modify, ratify or set aside the disqualification of the Athlete at the earliest convenience in accordance with this Article and the FMB World Tour Rulebook. FMBA will not be liable for damages for loss as a result of the implementation of this Article.
