PAY-to-PLAY NEW WORLD ORDER This timeline shows how insiders sell access & manipulate politicians, police, intelligence, judges and media to keep their secrets

Clintons, Obamas, Summers were paid in cash for outlandish speaking fees and Foundation donations. Sycophant judges, politicians, academics, bureaucrats and media were fed tips to mutual funds tied to insider stocks like Facebook. Risk of public exposure, blackmail, pedophilia, "snuff parties" (ritual child sexual abuse and murder) and Satanism have ensured silence among pay-to-play beneficiaries. The U.S. Patent Office is their toy box.

FIG. 1 – THE IBM (C.I.A.) "INTERNET OF THINGS." IBM began supplying Adolf Hitler computers starting in about 1934. Even then, they were promoting the concept of universal spying, using the sales byline "See Everything with Hollerith (IBM) Punch Cards." The Nazi scientists who had refined Hitler's mass mind control systems were hired by the newly-created C.I.A. in 1947 to continue their research after the war. Most people have looked up to IBM as an ethical company, and now we find that IBM's central role today in the warrantless mass surveillance shows that they are carrying forward their immoral WWII practices. It is evident that IBM seeks today to install the same kind of fascist socialist crony capitalism that became so efficient at population control of "unacceptables" in Europe during WWII—for which they were paid handsomely after the war. Their brazen theft in 2000 of Leader Technologies' social networking invention—without regard for Leader's constitutional rights—is yet more evidence of their intention to keep an iron grip on the dataflow of the Internet for use in rogue C.I.A.-inspired mass mind control.

EDITORIAL, SEP. 03, 2017: HE FIGHTS

This is an important perspective on why the average, non-elitist American supports President Donald J. Trump and strongly rejects MSM (should be renamed C.I.A. Mind Control Media (MCM)) and its breathless, dishonest, Alinsky attempts to prevent their choice for President from doing the job we sent him to Washington to do. NEWLY DISCOVERED, SEP. 06, 2017: WHISTLEBLOWER REVEALS C.I.A.-FUNDED SOCIAL MEDIA MIND CONTROL PROGRAM

In 2013, a DARPA (Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency) whistleblower revealed to fellow scientists an active C.I.A. mind control project that targeted Christianity and Islam. The documents were just uncovered by an AFI researcher. The secret government program sought to induce and disrupt religious "narratives" with desired propaganda. This project (lead: Steven R. Corman PhD) entered its implementation Phase III in the run up to the 2016 election. The Arizona State project leaders are experts in social media and received $6.1 million to develop actionable strategies to disrupt "master narratives" (like a person's Christian or Islamic beliefs) in the name of, naturally, controlling extremism. [Editor: The opposite is also true: one learns how to incite extremism also.] The program focused on finding trigger words and phrases that provoked desired emotional responses by using words in lieu of magnetic resonance pulses to the brain—irrespective of the truth or proper context of the information (aka "virtue signalling"). For example, "Crusades" emotionally triggers some Moslems, as does "jihad" for some Christians. Considering the inordinate number of times Hillary Clinton repeated it, an effective Corman-inspired (?) fake news propaganda trigger tied to candidate Donald Trump was evidently "p_ssy" and "(bent wrist) duhhh," among others. See Anonymous. \(Jan. 29, 2013\). \(4.5 MB\) Whistleblower Reveals Military Mind Control Project BAA 12-03 ASU 12040772 at Arizona State University—secret DARPA Mind Control Project Revealed. (AUG. 24, 2017)—America’s founder John Adams said that property and privacy were “inviolable precepts” if we are to be a free people.

America’s Founders believed that a free people could not tolerate a government that confiscated personal property and rummaged through personal effects capriciously.

A rogue C.I.A.-controlled federal bureaucracy is currently engaged in AGITPROP (Agitation Propaganda) using invasion of privacy by warrantless surveillance and confiscation of property through regulatory abuse.

AGITPROP uses state-controlled news, arts and entertainment to demonize a target before taking him or her out (e.g., assassination, “car accident,” “suicide,” “plane crash,” coercion, blackmail, regime change, firing, resignation). By the time that happens, the public has become so dumbed down and fatigued by the lies and misinformation that they don’t protect the victim.

Bookmark: #agitprop-failing | <https://tinyurl.com/y9twk6ql>

AGITPROP: FAILING PROPAGANDA WEAPON? THE BOY WHO CRIED WOLF?

AGITPROP has worked. It has numerous successes like 9/11, the Adolf Hitler, Arab Spring, Afghanistan, Bolshevik Revolution, Bundy Standoff, Gulf of Tonkin, Iraq, ISIS, Kosovo, Kristallnacht, Lewinsky Affair, Libya, Oklahoma City Bombing, Ruby Ridge, Rwanda, Sheriff Joe Arpaio, Syria, Vietnam Antiwar protests, Waco, Watergate, World Trade Center. However, now it has devolved further into the abyss with historically illiterate air head accusations like Bolshevik!, Conspiracy Theorist! Dangerous!, David Duke!, Dead!, Demagogue!, Deranged!, Distrubing!, Dying!, Erratic!, Fascist!, Fearmonger!, Fringe!, Garbage!, Groper!, Grotesque!, Homophobe!, KKK!, Lord Voldemort!, Mental!, Monstrous!, Muddled!, Mussolini!, Mysogynist!, Nazi!, Neo-Nazi!, Nut Job!, Pathological!, Putin’s Puppet!, Rasict!, Russian Agent!, Scary!, Sexist!, Swindler!, Tax Cheat!, Uncle Tom!, Unfit!, Unhinged!, Vulgar!, What-e-v-e-r Triggers a Snowflake!, White Nationalist!, White Supremecist!, Womanizer!, Wrecking Ball!, Xenophobe!, Astroturfing (fake grassroots comments on blogs) and WHATEVER FOOLS THE UNTHINKING, UNINFORMED AND UNSUSPECTING “MASSES.”

Advertisers and the C.I.A. have known about the effectiveness of immoral “virtue signaling” to trigger the unthinking masses with fabrications for many decades. Given the way these misanthropes have hurled every adjective in the dictionary against President Donald J. Trump, we can only hope and pray that we may finally be seeing the DEATH OF AGITPROP as an effective weapon of propaganda.

Given the lack of an uprising in the general American public to protect their privacy and property from the rogue C.I.A.’s warrantless surveillance and property confiscations through regulatory abuse, we can only conclude that, we are actually no longer a free people as we were in our parents’ generation.

BARACK OBAMA'S DARK POOLS OF CORRUPTION

JAMES P. CHANDLER & IBM —WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

Michael McKibben and Leader Technologies—the true inventors of social networking—discovered that their former patent attorney, James P. Chandler, III, and his client IBM are wolves in sheep's clothing.

McKibben said, “Chandler was recommended to us by Maj. Gen. James E. Freeze (US Army ret.), the former #3 at the NSA. Freeze was our first outside company director in 2000. After meeting Chandler in Washington, D.C., just a few blocks from the White House, we engaged Chandler as our patent lawyer and second outside director. We naturally expected him to honor his Constitutional duty and protect our invention. Sadly, he personally stole it.”

“What was so important about our invention that Chandler sacrificed his integrity and honor to steal it? Now we know. Chandler's world of rogue C.I.A. spies wanted our social networking platform to spy on the planet, while making lots of money for themselves and their friends.”

CHANDLER & IBM USE SOCIAL NETWORKING TO SPY ON EVERYONE

“To our horror, we have discovered that Chandler not only stole and distributed our invention through IBM, but they now use it to violate the privacy and property rights of EVERY American,” McKibben explained.

STOP FACEBOOK PROPERTY THEFT

W LL HUMANK ND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOV ET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

ASK CONGRESS: PASS THE INVENTOR PROTECTION ACT!

(Proposed)

America needs to practice what it preaches.

We have no business lecturing the world about free enterprise and the rule of law, when we permit the investors in Ohio-based innovator Leader Technologies to go uncompensated for the risks they took to help invent social networking . . .

- a technology upon which the President and U.S. government now rely;
- a technology stolen by the “Facebook Cabal” who recruited the federal courts and Patent Office into their club of corruption.

Rescind. Investigate. Sanction. Certify.

Contact your representatives. Ask them to pass it.
Real American inventors need your support.

WHY SHOULD YOU CARE IF THE GOV'T COLLECTS ALL OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Mckibben continued, “For example, take your personal family photos. Behind the scenes, the social sites run facial recognition programs on everyone in all your photos. Then, they store that “linking relationship” information in your “Dark Profiles.” In other words, even those who are not on Facebook are being secretly catalogued—adults and children alike—just like the Nazis catalogued Jews and other undesirable citizens in Germany on IBM computers. Their fate is infamously known, may God rest their souls.”

According to Edwin Black, author of IBM and the Holocaust: The Strategic Alliance between Nazi Germany and America's Most Powerful Corporation, we now know the numerical categories of each of Hitler’s “unacceptables.”

GIBSON DUNN LLP exposed as one of the most corrupt law firms in America

Investigative Reporter Julia Davis investigates Facebook's Leader v. Facebook attorney Gibson Dunn LLP. She credits this firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulyot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in support of democratic principles. They promise to conduct themselves in a manner than instills confidence among the citizenry in the rule of law and the judicial system. These promises appear to be meaningless. OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

. . . our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

CURRENT EDITORIAL FOCUS

We are an opinion blog that advocates for strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. "AGITPROP" DEMONIZES OPPONENTS

BEFORE TAKING THEM DOWN

At the end of WWII, the newly-formed C.I.A. co-opted some 1,600 Nazi scientists, brought them to the U.S. and allowed them to continue their research. Some of them had worked on a Soviet mass mind control technique called AGITPROP (Agitation Propaganda).

AGITPROP stages events with messages reinforced by media, news, films, literature, plays, pamphlets and other art forms to demonize opponents and condition the general population for an eventual crackdown on those opponents.

Kristallnacht (Night of Broken Glass) on Nov. 9-10, 1938 in Germany is a prime example. 7,000 Jewish businesses were confiscated (including the business and home of the family of an AFI editor), and 1,000 synagogues were burned. The German populace was largely silent. Hitler then ratcheted up this persecution that eventually led to 6,000,000 Jews killed in the "Final Solution" extermination camps. The property and privacy of the minority German Jewish population was ignored, along with those of Jehovah's Witnesses, Poles, gypsies, homosexuals, clergy, etc.

The rationale for bringing these scientists to the U.S. was to prevent them from working for the Soviets, Chinese or North Koreans. Some of these

BEWARE THE C.I.A. SPYMASTER PROMOTING A BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

McKibben said, “Even after we met Chandler, we never gave him a full copy of our programming source code, which is the Holy Grail of any program. We had protected it so well that one former U.S. intelligence asset called us a ‘hard target,’ meaning our security was virtually impenetrable.”

“After dragging his feet for several years after promising to bring us business prospects, Chandler suddenly one day brought us what appeared to be a ready-made business opportunity through his friends at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL).”

“They wanted us to test our new social networking technology with LLNL’s perimeter security cameras. The system passed with flying colors and was certified for use with Defense-grade encryption. Shockingly for us, after that our business prospect base just dried up, almost overnight.”

“Hindsight says we should have been wary of Chandler’s LLNL introduction. It was a Deep State set up. Chandler produced a 72-page LLNL license agreement. Tellingly, he wrote himself into the agreement so that he would hold a copy of the source code in a custody agreement for ‘legal safekeeping.’

“The LLNL co-signer was Jeffrey Wadsworth, who we had never met, but soon thereafter appointed CEO of the Battelle Memorial Institute and president of the Ohio State Trustees—even though he is British with no Ohio loyalties. Ohio State then teamed up with IBM and John Kasich and moved the Ohio State data center off campus where it became the network hub for the national university equivalent of Common Core called ‘Massive Open Online Course.’”

“Source code custody agreements are not uncommon in software. We actually thought we would be more protected since Chandler was our attorney.”

“On June 06, 2002, we provided Chandler with an encrypted CD-ROM containing $10 million worth and 650,000 lines of source code written with 145,000 man-hours of programming.”

Judge Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, trial judge in Leader Techs, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 770 F. Supp. 2d 686 (D.Del. 2011). Judge Stark heard his jury foreman admit that the jury made the on-sale bar decision without any evidence other than speculation, and yet he supported that verdict anyway. Just months before trial, Judge Stark allowed Facebook to add the on-sale bar claim after the close of all fact discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader’s prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook’s entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the “heavy burden” of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

The Federal Circuit was specially formed to appoint patent-knowledgeable judges to patent cases. “My Privacy is the right to enjoy my liberty without unlawful government interference. “

“A patent is a contract between an inventor and the American people.”

“My property right is crystal clear. I entered into contracts with the federal government that resulted in multiple patents. The government loved my inventions so much they stole them right off the design storyboards, even before they were fully functional! FIG. 12 – IBM FIRST CENTRALIZED DATA ON CITIZENS FOR NAZI, GERMANY STARTING IN 1933. Today, IBM and the C.I.A. have continued that goal with different packaging, calling it IBM "The Internet of Things." The illegal mass surveillance of Americans has been bad at stopping terrorists, but it has been good at collecting all information about a person (work history, bank accounts, education, political beliefs, spirituality, opinions, relationships, health history, etc.)—the real goal of the program—to develop a highly accurate mathematical profile. Author Edwin Black shows how this is exactly what IBM achieved for Adolf Hitler that made his "Final Solution" against the Jews so effective. The Nazis had embraced the teaching of American eugenicist Margaret Sanger (Planned Parenthood) in their beliefs about race and genetic superiority. Those same goals have been repackaged with cute emogis to lull citizens to sleep while their civil liberties are destroyed . . . in the name of safety and counter-terrorism.

TEX ILLUSTRATES THE IDIOTCY OF AGITPROP:

Email comment by TEX:

Please do NOT use the $1, $20, $50 or $100 bills any more as they depict slave owners on them. Gather all of these hideous symbols of racism and trash them. Throw them out.

While we are at it, please eliminate July and August from your calendars they were named after the two Roman "Caesar" emperors that used slaves. Oops, the Egyptians use slaves to build the pyramids. Tear those down!!!! And after the Scottish invasion of Ireland, the Scots enslaved the Irish. No more Scotch whiskey or hop scotch or those cute kilts for me. And , by the way, we must quit using the word "slave", it is not a nice word. It comes from the root word "slav". The Slavs (South, Central and Eastern Europe) were captured and enslaved by the Muslims of Spain during the ninth century AD. Whoops, that messes up the jihadi narrative.

Twenty million Africans were enslaved from the mid 1200's to the mid 1800's, the majority of whom were captured and sold by other blacks. It's not justifiable but it was accepted at the time. It's a dark part of human history, but history nonetheless. Can't we just admit that it was a terrible practice and just move on. Should we ban baseball because they didn't allow black players in the league until Jackie Robinson put on the uniform? Same with football. And the NY Philharmonic. And school teaching, and IVY League schools. Should we ban school buses because early on black kids couldn't ride with whites? And that "Black History Month" should be removed from our calendar as well. It's a hurtful reminder of how bad we are in this country. History can no longer tolerated.

C. Facebook puppet masters:

81. President Barack Obama (appointed Leonard P. Stark to the judge's seat in Delaware Federal District Court eight days after Stark's court allowed Facebook to get away with jury and court manipulation of an on-sale bar verdict which was attained without a single piece of hard evidence; Barack and Michelle Obama were evidently protecting their 47 million "likes" on Facebook)
82. Lawrence "Larry" Summers (Harvard President who aided Zuckerberg's light-speed rise to prominence with unprecedented Harvard Crimson coverage; Obama bailout chief; Clinton Treasury Secretary; World Bank Chief Economist; "Special Advisor" to Marc Andreessen in Instagram; co-creator of the current Russian robber baron economy; close 20-year relationships with protégés Sheryl Sandberg & Yuri Milner; aided in recommendations that created the Russian robber baron economy—and Yuri Milner/DST/Asmanov's money used to purchase Facebook stock)

And by the way, the Democrats were always the party of slavery. And they still are. Every heard of Senator Byrd? He was a Democratic Senator and the grand poopah of the KKK at the same time. As the loving liberals expand the scope of entitlements, they steal the individual dignity of earning one's way. Welfare is slavery. Taxes are sharecropping. By supporting abortion, liberals encourage death of minorities. By supporting the attack on our police officers, the Democrats encourage destruction of our inner city life. Crime , especially gang warfare, has taken over Chicago and Baltimore. Our nation's capitol has one of the highest crime rates per capita in the whole world. All three of this cities have been controlled by Democrats for years. Maybe it's because George Washington and Lord Baltimore had a few slaves. Surely we are going to eliminate that wooden-toothed George Washington from our history books. By the way, at the end of his life he freed every one of them and gave them a monetary stipend to help them begin their free life in America.

And let's not forget that it's the Democrats that want no borders and they want our country to be managed in a One World Order. Why? Because America is bad, really bad. Thus, Americans are bad, really bad. And folks in other societies can do a better job of offering freedom, peace, and prosperity for all. After all, 250 years ago we had slaves. Well so did every country, every race, every tribe, and every religion throughout history.

Where will this end? George Soros is loving every minute of it. Evil has grabbed this great nation by the neck and is choking our ability to survive. The agenda proposed by President Trump has the makings of significant solutions. I am mad as hell that he continues to take the bait. His mouth could be his downfall. He still has a chance but he had best move from the bully pulpit to the persuasion pulpit and do it soon. Even his strongest supporters are questioning his approach to management. History is watching.

Have a great day, TEX

Aaron Klein. (Aug. 23, 2017). EXCLUSIVE - NSA Whistleblower: Russia 'Hack' of DNC Server an 'Outright Lie'. Breitbart Jerusalem.

TEL AVIV — The narrative of a Russian hack into the computer system of the Democratic National Committee (DNC) is an “outright lie” and “manipulation process,” William Binney, a former highly placed NSA official, claimed during in a radio interview.

Utilizing recently unlocked information from data that purportedly originated on the DNC's servers, Binney claimed that he is “something like 99%” sure that the DNC servers were not hacked from the outside. He urged the U.S. Intelligence Community to immediately release any evidence utilized to draw the conclusion that Russia may have been associated with the breach of the DNC servers.

Binney was an architect of the NSA's surveillance program. He is a former NSA technical director who helped to modernize the agency's worldwide eavesdropping network, co-founding a unit on automating NSA signals intelligence. He became a famed whistleblower when he resigned on October 31, 2001, after spending more than 30 years with the agency.

Mariella Moon. (Aug. 25, 2017). CIA uses a secret tool to spy on NSA, FBI and other intel partners. Engadget.

Apparently, nobody's exempt from the CIA's intelligence gathering, not even its own intelligence partners. According to a set of documents published by WikiLeaks, the CIA uses a tool called "ExpressLane" that hides behind a fake software update to collect information from agencies around the world that use its biometric collection system. In the US, the list includes fellow government agencies like the FBI, the NSA and Homeland Security. These partners are supposed to share data with the CIA, but clearly, the intelligence service wants to make sure they're not keeping anything from the agency.

Based on the info written in the documents, the CIA pre-installed ExpressLane in the systems of newer partners. For older ones, it gets installed by an agent personally visiting a partner site under the guise of installing a software update. ExpressLane disguises itself as a harmless exe file in Windows' System 32 folder, but it actually collects files of interest. When an agent inserts a thumb drive to run the fake software update, ExpressLane automatically uploads the compressed and encrypted files it gathered.

WikiLeaks Revelation

Staff. (Aug. 25, 2017). CIA is supposed to have spied partner agencies with snooping software. Der Spiegel.

The CIA apparently also spied partners like the FBI and the NSA and secretly read out biometric data. This is from secret documents published by WikiLeaks.

According to information from WikiLeaks, the US intelligence agency CIA apparently spied his own partners with a trick. According to the secret documents published on the Julian Assange's unveiling platform on Thursday, the CIA has secretly read out biometric data from government agencies such as the FBI, the NSA, and the Ministry of Homeland Security. To this end, the CIA has used a snooping software called ExpressLane, as asserted in the documents dated to the year 2009.

According to WikiLeaks, this espionage tool has undetected CIA agents to their own biometrics software. This was also made available to other services, in return, the authorities provided certain biometric data to the CIA. According to WikiLeaks, CIA employees have consciously tapped the software, in order to be able to read data records independently of the agreed cooperation. Biometric features that might be of interest to authorities are, for example, the fingerprint of a person or his face, captured by biometric passport photos.

So far, the administration of former President Barack Obama has gotten away scot-free with targeting Tea Party groups, using the IRS to harass conservatives, and denying patriots their First Amendment rights.

But that could all change soon. Experts say it looks like liberal lawbreakers could be getting set to face some jail time after a federal judge gave an order that could blow the entire conspiracy wide open this week.

The judge looked the IRS's lawyers in the eye and demanded that they name every official involved in the scandal to deny Tea Party groups their First Amendment rights. He wanted all the details that would let him punish the guilty parties.

"Lay it on the line. Put it out there," Judge Reggie B. Walton said.

The co-founder of Black Lives Matter believes President Trump is "literally" trying to "kill our communities" on a scale comparable to Adolf Hitler.

"We wouldn't as a movement take a seat at the table with Trump because we wouldn't have done that with Hitler. Trump is literally the epitome of evil, all the evils of this country, be it racism, capitalism, sexism, homophobia and he has set out the most dangerous policies not just that impacts this country but that impacts the globe," Patrisse Cullors, one of BLM's three co-founders, told the Los Angeles Times in a Friday interview.

"And so for us, the answer is not to sit with Trump but to resist him and to resist every single policy that he's implemented that impacts our communities," Cullors said. "I'm thinking about what I want my children to know in 30, 40, 50 years and I want them to know that I resisted a president at all costs because this president literally tried to kill our communities."

Is it too much to say that since the French Revolution, the left has been the source of virtually all political evils, and continues to be so in our day?

There can be no doubt that great cruelty and violence can be and have been inflicted in the name of preserving the existing order.

But when we compare even the worst enormities of the more distant past with the leftist totalitarian revolutions and total wars of the twentieth centuries, they are in general a mere blip. The entire history of the Inquisition, said Joe Sobran, barely rises to the level of what the communists accomplished on a good afternoon.

The French Revolution, and particularly its radical phase, was the classic manifestation of modern leftism and served as the model for still more radical revolutions around the world more than a century later.

As that revolution proceeded its aims grew more ambitious, with its most fervent partisans demanding nothing less than the total transformation of society.

Ford Fischer began LiveStreaming video 7 minutes 40 seconds before the charlottesville car attack. His video is an absolute bombshell for the following reasons:

1. He films the murder vehicle (a Dodge Challenger) on Water Street 7 minutes before the attack.

Emigrate While You Still Can! Learn More...

2. He films the maroon van involved in the incident 5 minutes before the attack. It is already at the intersection of 4th and Water. Ford's video shows that it does not move in the intervening 5 minutes, despite being able to. Nobody appears to be in the front seat.

3. Ford abandons the protest and the neo-Nazis he claims to be following and waits on 5th and Main St for 3 minutes before reacting to the attack. Why is he waiting? He seems to know that something will occur nearby.

We need to look at Ford Fischer and his video very closely. Some questions to consider:

Jazmine Ulloa, (Aug. 27, 2017). California passed a law boosting police transparency on cellphone surveillance. Here's why it's not working. LA Times.

Several years ago, little was known about the StingRay, a powerful surveillance device that imitates the function of a cell tower and captures the signals of nearby phones, allowing law enforcement officers to sweep through hundreds of messages, conversations and call logs.

The secrecy around the technology, which can ensnare the personal data of criminals and bystanders alike, spurred lawsuits and demands for public records to uncover who was using it and the extent of its capabilities. In California, a 2015 law requires law enforcement agencies to seek permission at public meetings to buy the devices, and post rules for their use online.

But a Los Angeles Times review of records from 20 of the state's largest police and sheriff's departments, plus the Alameda County district attorney's office, found some agencies have been slow to follow or have ignored the law. Several that partner with federal agencies to work on cases are not subject to the law's reporting requirements. The result is that little information on StingRay use is available to the public, making it hard to determine how wide a net the surveillance tools cast and what kind of data they gather.

Has anyone seen Barack Obama lately? What about Valerie Jarrett, who actually MOVED IN to the Obama household shortly after exiting the White House? Why would Obama's 60-year old former senior advisor move into his house with his wife and daughter who is still in high school? Unless there was some obvious reason for her living with the Obama's, it makes no sense whatsoever. Why does no one in the media find this arrangement to be even remotely odd? Is it possible that Barack Obama and his evil puppet-master had something to do with orchestrating what many believe was a fake protest in Charlottesville, as a way to create hate for white people, the Right and more importantly to give Americans a reason to blame President Trump and the Republican Party for the actions of the racist groups who participated in the protests.

A Washington, D.C. council member urged his constituents Friday to report "xenophobic" flyers declaring "build the wall" to the police department.

Residents from Ward 4 have said that posters focused on illegal immigration and building the wall have cropped up around the area, the DCist reports. Council member Brandon Todd has told residents to call 911 if they are handed one of the flyers.

"Xenophobic and hostile flyers in Ward 4 will not be tolerated," Todd wrote in a Facebook post. "All residents, regardless of background, deserve to feel safe in their community. If you receive one of these hateful flyers, call the Metropolitan Police Dept. at 911 immediately. I will remain in close contact with 4D Commander and Police Chief. Ward 4 must and will remain welcoming to all."

One of the posters features Supreme Court Justice Ruth Ginsburg with "Even RBG backs the ban. Build the wall," emblazoned over her face, while another urges people to "Report illegal aliens to DHS or ICE" and tells the story of a man who allegedly sexually assaulted an elderly lady after being deported more than 20 times. Another poster has Florida Rep. Debbie Wasserman-Schultz's face on the still image from "Debbie Does Dallas," a 70's porn movie. This poster features the phrase "Debbie Does Pakistan."

How Americas Most Powerful News Media Worked Hand in Glove with the Central Intelligence Agency and Why the Church Committee Covered It Up

n 1953, Joseph Alsop, then one of America's leading syndicated columnists, went to the Philippines to cover an election. He did not go because he was asked to do so by his syndicate. He did not go because he was asked to do so by the newspapers that printed his column. He went at the request of the CIA.

Alsop is one of more than 400 American journalists who in the past twenty-five years have secretly carried out assignments for the Central Intelligence Agency, according to documents on file at CIA headquarters. Some of these journalists' relationships with the Agency were tacit; some were explicit. There was cooperation, accommodation and overlap. Journalists provided a full range of clandestine services—from simple intelligence gathering to serving as go-betweens with spies in Communist countries. Reporters shared their notebooks with the CIA. Editors shared their staffs. Some of the journalists were Pulitzer Prize winners, distinguished reporters who considered themselves ambassadors without-portfolio for their country. Most were less exalted: foreign correspondents who found that their association with the Agency helped their work; stringers and freelancers who were as interested in the derring-do of the spy business as in filing articles; and, the smallest category, full-time CIA employees masquerading as journalists abroad. In many instances, CIA documents show, journalists were engaged to perform tasks for the CIA with the consent of the managements of America's leading news organizations.

WORKING PRESS — CIA STYLE

To understand the role of most journalist-operatives, it is necessary to dismiss some myths about undercover work for American intelligence services. Few American agents are "spies" in the popularly accepted sense of the term. "Spying" — the acquisition of secrets from a foreign government—is almost always done by foreign nationals who have been recruited by the CIA and are under CIA control in their own countries. Thus the primary role of an American working undercover abroad is often to aid in the recruitment and "handling" of foreign nationals who are channels of secret information reaching American intelligence.

Many journalists were used by the CIA to assist in this process and they had the reputation of being among the best in the business. The peculiar nature of the job of the foreign correspondent is ideal for such work: he is accorded unusual access by his host country, permitted to travel in areas often off-limits to other Americans, spends much of his time cultivating sources in governments, academic institutions, the military establishment and the scientific communities. He has the opportunity to form long-term personal relationships with sources and—perhaps more than any other category of American operative—is in a position to make correct judgments about the susceptibility and availability of foreign nationals for recruitment as spies.

"After a foreigner is recruited, a case officer often has to stay in the background," explained a CIA official. "So you use a journalist to carry messages to and from both parties"

Journalists in the field generally took their assignments in the same manner as any other undercover operative. If, for instance, a journalist was based in Austria, he ordinarily would be under the general direction of the Vienna station chief and report to a case officer. Some, particularly roving correspondents or U.S.-based reporters who made frequent trips abroad, reported directly to CIA officials in Langley, Virginia.

Admin. (Aug. 27, 2017). Congressman Confirms FBI Awan Probe Involves Bigger Crimes & Accomplices; Possible 'Ties' to Wasserman Schultz (VIDEO). True Pundit.

Former Congressman Jason Chaffetz just dropped an anvil on the FBI's Imran Awan and Hina Alvi fraud investigation which is showing increasingly strong signs of becoming a Congressional albatross, despite assurances from the officials implicated that the case is baseless.

The case, Chaffetz said, is much larger than mere bank fraud. True Pundit reported on Tuesday, six days before the Chaffetz revelations, the Awan case was much larger than believed and the family was tipped off prior to the indictment by Congress.

Chaffetz, who retired just weeks ago, predicted the Awan and Alvi bank fraud indictment could explode and expand into something much larger. He said the case could prove the proverbial tip of the iceberg, involving accomplices, according to the former chairman of the Oversight Committee for the House.

Federal investigators are worried that the shady IT staffer at the center of Debbie Wasserman Schultz' widening scandal may have sold intelligence to foreign governments, particularly Russia and Pakistan, reports the New York Post.

According to officials, the government is currently probing whether Imran Awan, Schultz' top computer technician, had access to sensitive emails and other communications and then sold that information to foreign intelligence agencies.

The investigation of Awan began in April of 2016, when Congressional staffers noticed several "irregularities" in the Capitol's computer equipment and billing information. What began as a suspected case of fraud is now spiraling into a "massive scandal" according to one government aide.

Authorities now believe Awan had access to secret material, and moved that information from government-owned servers to private devices, possibly with the intent to distribute the classified information.

Tyler Durden. (Aug. 29, 2017). FBI DENIES FOIA REQUEST FOR HILLARY DOCUMENTS DUE TO "LACK OF PUBLIC INTEREST". ZeroHedge.

It was just over a year ago that James Comey boldly consolidated the roles of investigator, lawyer, judge and jury when he announced that, although Hillary was "extremely careless" in her mishandling of classified State Department emails, no reasonable prosecutor would be willing to bring charges against her.

The decision sparked national outrage, particularly since it came just a few days after Bill Clinton happened to be spotted by a local reporter meeting privately with then Attorney General Loretta Lynch on a tarmac in Phoenix. Combine that with Comey's admission under oath that Loretta Lynch clearly attempted to interfere in the FBI's investigation and it all wreaked of just another Clinton coverup...said another way, just a bunch of Republicans trying to "criminalize things that are normal."

Be that as it may, at least one attorney, Ty Clevenger of New York, has been working diligently to make sure that Hillary and various members of her staff face at least some consequences for their alleged crimes which range from perjury under oath to willful destruction of evidence protected by a Congressional subpoena (see: The "Oh Shit" Moment: Hillary Wiped Her Server With BleachBit Despite Subpoena), among many others. We noted the efforts of Clevenger to get Hillary disbarred in the state of Arkansas back in June in a post entitled "Hillary Not "Out Of The Woods": Arkansas Bar Considers Disciplinary Action Over Email Scandal."

Staff. (Aug. 15, 2017). BOOM: CHARLOTTESVILLE POLICE OFFICER TELLS ALL! Headlines With A Voice.

Police: Charlottesville Was 'Inside Job' To Ignite Race War

A Charlottesville police officer has come forward to express his anger at being told to "stand down" by the city mayor during violent clashes between protesters. He also claims the protests, which pitched "white supremacists" against members of Antifa, were "set up" to further the agenda of the elites.

"We [Charlottesville police] were ordered to bring the rival groups together. As soon as they were in contact with each other, we were told to stand down. It was outrageous. We weren't allowed to arrest anyone without asking the mayor first. We weren't even allowed to stop the driver as he sped away."

"The event was being set up as far back as at least May and it went like clockwork."

Michael Signer, the mayor of Charlottesville, ordered police to stand down during the most chaotic and destructive period of the protests - despite police protests against the orders.

"We wanted to do our job and keep the peace. But these mothers in charge really want to destroy America."

Fox News reporter Doug McKelway was on the scene in Charlottesville and he backs up the police officer's claims.

"I can say, having been in Emancipation Park from early on that morning, that what I saw with my own two eyes confirms what this law enforcement source told us. At least from all visible appearances. We saw people coming out of that park who had head wounds, who were bleeding from the head, people walking into that park with bats, with sticks - you saw what they were wearing - helmets, body armor, they had come - and this pertains to both sides - they had come to do damage.. you cannot help but notice from that video that police had been more pro-active, they could have potentially calmed this thing down to some degree." ...

IMHO: We actually live in a 'simulation' and 98% of the people are 'asleep' inside a mental disorder called 'cognitive dissonance'....where one perception is always in conflict with the observable perception...one is induced, one observed, and the result is 'disbelief'. It is a state of being created by media, information, technology, and massive input of 'shit'. The young generations are being 'isolated' by technology to 'sub-optimize' their humanity...many young people who have grown up with 'smart phones' and being connected all the time...function at the level of classic autistic children. Chuck Ross. (Aug. 31, 2017). COMEY DRAFTED STATEMENT CLEARING HILLARY BEFORE INTERVIEWING KEY WITNESSES. Daily Caller.

As FBI director last year, James Comey began writing drafts of a statement exonerating Hillary Clinton, even before all witnesses in the investigation - including Clinton herself - had been interviewed.

The Senate Judiciary Committee obtained the Comey memos as part of its investigation into his firing by President Trump, which occurred on May 9.

The revelation that Comey had begun drafting memos of his exoneration statement comes from transcripts of interviews given last fall by two FBI officials.

James Rybicki, Comey's chief of staff, and Trisha Anderson, the principal deputy general counsel of national security and cyberlaw at the FBI, gave the interviews as part of an investigation conducted by the Office of Special Counsel into the FBI's handling of the Clinton email investigation.

In a July 5, 2016, press conference, Comey said that he would not be recommending charges against Clinton for mishandling classified information despite her use of a private email server as secretary of state.

Christophe Morin. (Sep. 01, 2017). INSIDER: GOOGLE GREATEST THREAT TO CONSERVATISM. Newswars.

A former think tank program director and antitrust expert suggested he was fired after criticizing Google, warning the rise of monopolistic companies like Google are a threat to society - a fear validated after the company recently warned a conservative website to censor content or lose ad revenue.

Barry Lynn, the former director of the Open Markets program at New America, a prominent think tank in Washington DC, and the author of "Cornered: The New Monopoly Capitalism and the Economics of Destruction," detailed his firing from the organization after publishing a piece praising the European Union's decision to fine Google for violating antitrust laws.

"For the last fifteen years, I've done my antimonopoly writing and research at a think tank in Washington named New America," he wrote. "This last June 27, my group published a statement praising the European Union for fining Google for violating antitrust law. Later that day I was told that Google - which provides substantial support to other programs at New America - said they wanted to sever all ties with the organization."

"Two days later I was told that the entire team of my Open Markets Program had to leave New America by September 1."

Anne-Marie Slaughter, a former State Department staffer under Secretary of State Hillary Clinton who now serves as president of New America, denied Lynn was fired because of his comments on Goggle - yet, in her email to Lynn she suggested he was "imperiling the institution as a whole."

New America has received more than $21 million from Google, executive chairman, Eric Schmidt, and his family's foundation since the think tank's founding in 1999. Schmidt currently serves as chairman emeritus of New America's Board of Directors, alongside board members including Jonathan Soros, David Bradley (chairman of the Atlantic Media Company), and CNN's Fareed Zakaria.

HERE IS THE PETITION TO DECLARE GEORGE SOROS A TERRORIST

Whereas George Soros has willfully and on an ongoing basis attempted to destabilize and otherwise commit acts of sedition against the United States and its citizens, has created and funded dozens (and probably hundreds) of discrete organizations whose sole purpose is to apply Alinsky model terrorist tactics to facilitate the collapse of the systems and Constitutional government of the United State, and has developed unhealthy and undue influence over the entire Democrat Party and a large portion of the US Federal government, the DOJ should immediately declare George Soros and all of his organizations and staff members to be domestic terrorists, and have all of his personal an organizational wealth and assets seized under Civil Asset Forfeiture law.

<http://www.fbcoverup.com/docs/cyberhijack/cyber-hijack-findings.html#slaughter>

IN 2010, while I was pushing to break up big banks because they had become too powerful, I started to realize that the problem in America wasn't just big banks, it was corporate monopolies. But it was hard to find a strong contemporary voice writing about it or thinking about it, without going back a few generations.

Then I found Barry C. Lynn and the Open Markets team at the New America Foundation in Washington, D.C. They were doing deep investigations into the agriculture industry, looking at Monsanto and Tyson, and they were looking into how big companies privatize courts through arbitration. They were also looking at a troubling new feature of our digital economy - the great power wielded by a handful of tech companies, including Amazon, Facebook, Apple, and Google. The Open Markets team was grounded not only in critique, but solutions: showing how old antitrust laws and principles could address the political and economic distortions caused by monopolies in our turbulent era.

New America's leadership must have gotten an earful. Within 72 hours, New America's president, Anne-Marie Slaughter, told Lynn that he — and all of us on the Open Markets team — had to leave. As the New York Times reported yesterday, Slaughter emailed Lynn to say that “the time has come for Open Markets and New America to part ways,” and the email accused Lynn of “imperiling the institution as a whole.” (After the Times story was published, Slaughter tweeted that the article was “false,” though she later added, “facts are largely right, but quotes are taken way out of context and interpretation is wrong.”)

THE NEW AMERICA FOUNDATION'S Open Markets group was a rare, loud voice of protest against Google's ever-growing consolidation of economic and technological power around the world. But New America, like many of its fellow think tanks, received millions in funding from one of the targets of its anti-monopoly work, and according to a New York Times report today, pulled the plug after the company's chief executive had enough dissent.

After EU regulators fined Google $2.7 billion earlier this summer, Barry Lynn, who ran the Open Markets division, cheered the decision, adding that "U.S. enforcers should apply the traditional American approach to network monopoly, which is to cleanly separate ownership of the network from ownership of the products and services sold on that network, as they did in the original Microsoft case of the late 1990s." It didn't take long for Lynn and his colleagues to suffer the consequences, the Times reports:

Google is increasingly similar to Big Brother's Oceania in 1984

Google is "coming after critics in academia and journalism," according to the Washington Post, who added that the company "is forming into a government of itself."

"Google has established a pattern of lobbying and threatening to acquire power. It has reached a dangerous point common to many monarchs: The moment where it no longer wants to allow dissent," claimed Zephyr Teachout, an academic, activist, and former Democratic political candidate in an article for the Washington Post.

Referencing the news this week that members of the Open Markets team she was part of at the Google-funded New America Foundation think tank had been kicked out after they praised the European Union's decision to fine Google for violating anti-trust regulations, Teachout highlighted the irony of Google's former slogan "Don't be evil," adding, "It appears that Google may have lost sight of what being evil means, in the way that most monarchs do: Once you reach a pinnacle of power, you start to believe that any threats to your authority are themselves villainous and that you are entitled to shut down dissent."

"Google is forming into a government of itself, and it seems incapable of even seeing its own overreach. We, as citizens, must respond in two ways," proclaimed Teachout. "First, support the brave researchers and journalists who stand up to overreaching power; and second, support traditional antimonopoly laws that will allow us to have great, innovative companies – but not allow them to govern us."

I wrote recently about how Google is in danger of breaking the implicit social contract with its users by becoming seen as a politicized organization. But that was when Google was seen by the Right as being politicized for firing an engineer who expressed politically incorrect ideas.

Now Google is using its political influence against the Left by getting a group of scholars bounced out of a center-left think tank for supporting antitrust action against Google's "monopoly."

Now, all of a sudden, Google being politicized is bad. I guess it all depends on whose ox is being gored.

John Nolte. (Sep. 01, 2017). AS ITS INFLUENCE WANES, INCREASINGLY MILITANT MSM PROMOTES VIOLENCE AND CENSORSHIP. Breitbart.

Yes, the MSM [mainstream media] has admitted they got 2016 exactly wrong and that they are out-of-touch with the average American. What truly terrifies the media about 2016, though, is something that has remained largely unspoken.

It is what Trump's victory said so clearly about the MSM's inability to influence public opinion and, by extension, the outcome of elections. What has also remained unspoken is the media's desperate and dangerous reaction to this waning influence.

As a 25 year media-watcher, I have never seen anything close to the propaganda campaign the national media launched to defeat Donald Trump last year. It was 24/7, it was coordinated across every news outlet, it was all-hands-on-deck. And Trump still won. Which can only mean that the media's influence has eroded to a point where, despite hurling every kitchen sink available, they suffered a humiliating loss last November.

Before I get into the grit of the nit, it is important to keep in mind that our media is nothing more than the communication branch of the Democrat Party. When you look at everything the media does – the lying, the campaigns of personal destruction, the fake news, the focus on stuff like Melania's shoes – this explanation is the only one that makes sense. The media is a full-blown leftwing political operation run, for the most part, by former Democrat operatives like Jake Tapper, George Stephanopolous, and Chuck Todd, as well as those related to Democrat operatives.

I was censored across all media and Google emails, which means I can't use YouTube either, within minutes of posting the correlation between the Muslim refugee invasions and the need for OPEC to reduce its banking liabilities based on the political structure where oil is the only revenue and the people basically live on welfare from the state, similar to Alaska's per diem on oil exports. Arab oil producers have to 'unload' people they are supporting. As the price per barrel drops to $40/barrel, it will go lower as America's energy production from fracking puts over 1 million wells back into production. The price may go as low as $20/barrel, which will decimate the OPEC countries. As soon as I posted that....I was censored, within minutes. No one is talking about this or reporting a correlation. Very strange, as it is inevitable within a year. What better economic move than to move millions to the welfare states of Europe and save the 'ruler's' investments in those countries.

Totally true. I've been trying to figure out the relationships and connections between the political factions and the petro-dollar. Nations need dollars...how do they obtain dollars? They need dollars to buy oil. If they do not need dollars, the trillions of dollars in circulation become worthless, and they come home to America creating massive inflation and political disruption. Is this the "September surprise" that is on the 'wire' now? Without the petro-dollar, the Fed cannot keep the Ponzi debt scheme alive. The neo-cons can't keep the military industrial machine alive either. So, it doesn't seem to make sense that the greatest weapon, the petro-dollar, would be undermined by our 'domestic policy' when in fact it will destroy our 'military policy' being underwritten by 'inflationary debt'.

The thing to understand, what has always been the most important thing to understand, is that Jim Comey was out in front, but he was not calling the shots.

On the right, the commentariat is in full-throttle outrage over the revelation that former FBI Director Comey began drafting his statement exonerating Hillary Clinton in April 2016 - more than two months before he delivered the statement at his now famous July 5 press conference.

The news appears in a letter written to new FBI Director Christopher Wray by two senior Senate Judiciary Committee Republicans, Chairman Chuck Grassley and Senator Lindsey Graham. Pundits and the Trump administration are shrieking because this indicates the decision to give the Democrats' nominee a pass was clearly made long before the investigation was over, and even long before key witnesses, including Clinton herself, were interviewed.

President Donald Trump’s proclamation that Sunday, September 3, shall be a National Day of Prayer for the victims of Hurricane Harvey follows a tradition first established by George Washington and continued by presidents including Abraham Lincoln and Ronald Reagan, as well as being ratified by Congress.

“No people can be bound to acknowledge and adore the Invisible Hand which conducts the affairs of men more than those of the United States,” Washington declared in his first Inaugural Address, the first words uttered by a president of the United States.

It is therefore hardly surprising that when the first Congress passed a resolution on September 25, 1789, calling upon Washington to proclaim a National Day of Prayer, the Father of His Country issued a proclamation to all Americans that November 26, 1789, would be a day to “offer our prayers and supplications to the Great Lord and Ruler of Nations, and beseech him to pardon our national and other transgressions.”

PROMOTES VIOLENCE AND CENSORSHIP. Breitbart.

Yes, the MSM has admitted they got 2016 exactly wrong and that they are out-of-touch with the average American. What truly terrifies the media about 2016, though, is something that has remained largely unspoken.

It is what Trump's victory said so clearly about the MSM's inability to influence public opinion and, by extension, the outcome of elections. What has also remained unspoken is the media's desperate and dangerous reaction to this waning influence.

As a 25 year media-watcher, I have never seen anything close to the propaganda campaign the national media launched to defeat Donald Trump last year. It was 24/7, it was coordinated across every news outlet, it was all-hands-on-deck. And Trump still won. Which can only mean that the media's influence has eroded to a point where, despite hurling every kitchen sink available, they suffered a humiliating loss last November.

CNN. (Sep. 03, 2017). JUSTICE DEPARTMENT: NO EVIDENCE TRUMP TOWER WAS WIRETAPPED. Infowars.

"Both FBI and NSD confirm that they have no records related to wiretaps as described by the March 4, 2017 tweets," the department's motion reads.

The Justice Department said in a court filing Friday evening that it has no evidence to support President Donald Trump's assertion in March that his predecessor, Barack Obama, wiretapped the phones in Trump Tower before last year's election.

"Both FBI and NSD confirm that they have no records related to wiretaps as described by the March 4, 2017 tweets," the department's motion reads. NSD refers to the department's national security division.

The motion came in response to a Freedom of Information Act lawsuit by a group pushing for government transparency, American Oversight.

On March 4, Trump tweeted: "Terrible! Just found out that Obama had my 'wires tapped' in Trump Tower just before the victory. Nothing found. This is McCarthyism!"

Jesse Lee Peterson. (Sep. 03, 2017). TRUMP DERANGEMENT SYNDROME CHILLING PEEK INSIDE JOHN MCCAIN'S WICKED HEART. WND.

Exclusive: Jesse Lee Peterson exposes senator who 'fooled public, pretended to be Republican'

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? - Jeremiah 17:9

Sen. John McCain is at it again!

Sen. McCain recently wrote a scathing column for the Washington Post attacking President Donald Trump as "poorly informed" and "impulsive." McCain stated, "We are not his subordinates. ... we don't answer to him."

The Arizona senator also called for compromise on a litany of important items, including on Trump's campaign promise to build a "big, beautiful wall." McCain wrote that "a literal wall might not be the most effective means" to secure the border. Instead, he wants a "comprehensive" bill Democrats can get behind.

John McCain is losing it! Or, perhaps this is the real McCain finally coming out. During his 30 years in the Senate, McCain has fooled the public and pretended to be a conservative Republican. The fake news media have depicted him as a "maverick" who isn't afraid to stand up to his own party. But McCain has always been a RINO, and he is not an honorable man. The election of President Trump is exposing his true nature and lack of character.

Michael Goodwin. (Sep. 02, 2017). THE CASE FOR A SPECIAL COUNSEL TO INVESTIGATE HILLARY CLINTON. New York Post.

America tried to let Hillary Clinton off the hook. Despite cries of "Lock her up" during the campaign, most of the nation had little appetite for prosecuting her after the election, with even Donald Trump willing to give her a free pass.

"I don't want to hurt the Clintons, I really don't," Trump told the New York Times two weeks after his victory. "She went through a lot and suffered greatly in many different ways."

But the Clinton email scandal, like Clinton herself, won't go away. It remains a blot on the legacy of the Obama administration, the Justice Department and the FBI, and now comes fresh evidence that the investigation that cleared her was a total sham.

The revelation from the Senate Judiciary Committee that J. Edgar Comey drafted his statement exonerating her about two months before FBI agents interviewed Clinton or 16 other witnesses confirms suspicions that the probe was neither honest nor thorough. When the outcome is decided long before the investigation is over, the result can't be trusted.

MOSCOW (Reuters) - Moscow denounced the American decision to close three Russian diplomatic facilities in the United States as a "blatantly hostile act" that violated international law and demanded Washington reverse the order on Sunday.

The United States has ordered the closure of the Russian consulate in San Francisco and two buildings housing trade missions in Washington and New York. It is the latest broadside in a tit-for-tat exchange between the countries that has helped push relations towards a new post-Cold War low.

Russian diplomats were working to vacate the properties over the weekend, including the six-story consulate.

Longtime Barack Obama critic Charlie Daniels says the ex-president was right about one thing:

"They do cling to their God," he writes in his most recent Soap Box commentary posted online.

"The guns are not clung to, but you can bet they're around."

Daniels was referencing Obama's comment during the 2008 presidential race, when he was criticizing Americans who live in "old industry towns decimated by job losses."

Obama said, "They [Americans] get bitter, they cling to guns or religion or antipathy to people who aren't like them or anti-immigrant sentiment or anti-trade sentiment as a way to explain their frustrations."

In the Soap Box by the hall of fame country-rock musical artist, who at more than 80 years old still carries a full load of touring and recording duties, he talks about bringing out the best in America.

He talked about friends who are "loading pickup trucks with water and other basics and heading out for Texas to help" in the wake of Hurricane Harvey's decimating 50 inches of rain and damaging winds.

Charlie Daniels' "Revelation: Dawn of Global Government" explains how America, Christianity and liberty are threatened by the Trojan horse of globalism.

Government officials beat Fathers Chen Jun, Gao Binglong, Ma Ning, and Shen Xuezhong as well as several laypersons including Cui Hewen, who was assaulted by workers and suffered injuries to the head. The officials had come to demolish a building belonging to the church, but the priests along with hundreds of laypeople sat in front of backhoes and other heavy machinery to block the demolition work.

Witnessed posted a video of the clash between government representatives and the Christians and the faithful can be heard shouting "Jesus save me!" and "Mother Mary, have pity on us."

Despite the beatings, news of which went viral on the internet, many more Christians went to the site to give their support to the Church, and reportedly some 2,000 Church members gathered at the property to block the demolition, forcing the workers and security officials to leave the venue.

The thing to understand, what has always been the most important thing to understand, is that Jim Comey was out in front, but he was not calling the shots.

On the right, the commentariat is in full-throttle outrage over the revelation that former FBI Director Comey began drafting his statement exonerating Hillary Clinton in April 2016 - more than two months before he delivered the statement at his now famous July 5 press conference.

The news appears in a letter written to new FBI Director Christopher Wray by two senior Senate Judiciary Committee Republicans, Chairman Chuck Grassley and Senator Lindsey Graham. Pundits and the Trump administration are shrieking because this indicates the decision to give the Democrats' nominee a pass was clearly made long before the investigation was over, and even long before key witnesses, including Clinton herself, were interviewed.

It shows, they cry, that the fix was in!

Mike Lofgren, a congressional staff member for 28 years, joins Bill Moyers to talk about what he calls Washington's "Deep State," in which elected and unelected figures collude to protect and serve powerful vested interests. "It is how we had deregulation, financialization of the economy, the Wall Street bust, the erosion of our civil liberties and perpetual war," Lofgren tells Moyers.

Lofgren says the Deep State's heart lies in Washington, DC, but its tentacles reach out to Wall Street, which Lofgren describes as "the ultimate backstop to the whole operation," Silicon Valley and over 400,000 contractors, private citizens who have top-secret security clearances. Like any other bureaucracy, it's groupthink that drives the Deep State.

Anyone heard any mention of this in the media? When it comes to anyone not in lock step with the liberal agenda, according to the big media, your right to know supersedes your right to exist! Possibly the money is better used by the Clintons...

One more. On top of all of your questions and my questions, the big media and the liberal's had the nerve to say that Trumps $1 million dollar donation of his own money to the Houston recovery was not enough. This war against Trump has almost become a laughing matter but it is truly a tragedy. WASHINGTON, D.C. - Charles Ortel, the noted Wall Street financial analyst who has charged the Clintons with running the Clinton Foundation as a vast international criminal conspiracy, has produced new research, suggesting the Clintons could face the possibility of international investigations over their administration of UNITAID funds.

Ortel has previously argued the story of the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI)/UNITAID scam is one of the most poignant alleged Clinton Foundation abuses demonstrating how the Clintons used their tax-exempt foundation to conduct a "reverse Robin Hood," robbing the average air traveler in France to benefit the rich, namely themselves, at the expense of short-changing those inflicted by HIV/AIDS from treatment that the World Health Organization had promised the international community represented would be delivered honestly.

Ortel explained to Infowars.com that the Clinton fraud with UNITAID could lead to criminal investigations in countries including France and Great Britain, even if the U.S. Justice Department continues to decline any serious criminal investigations into Clinton Foundation activities.

Google has taken the unprecedented step of burying material, mostly from websites on the political right, that it has deemed to be inappropriate. The problem, however, is that the world's largest search engine is a left-leaning company with an ax to grind.

Let's face it, deep down in our heart of hearts we knew the honeymoon wouldn't last forever. Our willingness to place eternal faith in an earth-straddling company that oversees the largest collection of information ever assembled was doomed to end in a bitter divorce from the start. After all, each corporation, just like humans, has their own political proclivities, and Google is certainly no exception. But we aren't talking about your average car company here.

The first sign Google would eventually become more of a political liability than a public utility was revealed in 2005 when CEO Eric Schmidt (who is now executive chairman of Alphabet, Inc, Google's parent company) sat down with interviewer Charlie Rose, who asked Schmidt to explain "where the future of search is going."

Schmidt's response should have triggered alarm bells across the free world.

Peter Hasson. (Sep. 07, 2017). YET ANOTHER ANONYMOUSLY SOURCED TRUMP-RUSSIA STORY FALLS APART. The Daily Caller.

Once again, a huge Trump-Russia story that relied upon anonymous sources has fallen apart.

NBC News dropped what the network hyped as a "potential bombshell" last week. "Manafort Notes From Russian Meet Contain Cryptic Reference to 'Donations,'" the original headline read. The story claimed that Manafort's notes from the 2016 Trump Tower meeting with White House aide Jared Kushner, Donald Trump Jr. and a Russian lawyer included the word "donations" near a reference to the Republican National Committee.

NBC began walking back the "potential bombshell" almost immediately, issuing a correction the same day noting that the word "donation" didn't actually appear in the notes, but quoting one source who said the word "donor" was in the notes.

But NBC's corrected story still wasn't accurate, according to a new Politico report, which said that the word "donor" didn't appear in Manafort's notes. Moreover, Manafort's notes "are not seen as damaging to the Trump family or campaign officials," Politico reported. The outlet cited several sources who have seen Manafort's notes, while NBC relied on "two sources briefed on the evidence" to make its claim.

Even before Politico fully debunked NBC's reporting, the network's decision to publish the story came under fire. The day after NBC originally published the story, The Washington Post's Erik Wemple criticized the story, which he said "provides only fodder for innuendo and conspiracy, not for sound conclusions about what happened."

C.I.A. and IBM stole social networking to TAG you and TRACK you - just like a Nazi tattoo

<https://tinyurl.com/y7pyst7e>

FOREWARNED IS FOREARMED

Sep. 08, 2017—Take it for what this is worth from keen observers of current trends: As free Americans, our window to act to stop this madness is closing rapidly. The eugenicist’s plan for our planet is very close to full control. When the rogue C.I.A. stole Leader Technologies’ social networking invention in 2000, they knew they had the technology to speed up their timetable. They retooled it with their rogue programmers into a universal spying and profit making machine.

Today, these corporatists have deployed C.I.A.-developed mind control systems through social media (like “virtue signaling”). They have also embedded encryption backdoor keys into all digital technology—PCs, mobile phones, laptops, cards, appliances, servers, TVs, everything. These keys were developed with funding given to Bill Clinton, John Podesta and James P. Chandler from the Carnegie Endowment in 1993.

In the same way that IBM punch cards in 1933 helped Hitler organize his “Final Solution” for people with allegedly inferior genetics, Americans today are being similarly profiled by “the IBM Internet of Things cloud.” The excuse used for collecting this data is to “combat terrorism.” However, even the FBI now admits they have too much data. However, this data provides juicy blackmail information being used instead to control our government and manipulate our society.

Historian Edwin Black explains in this video the connection between the IBM of 1933 New York and Nazi Germany with the IBM of 2017.

(NevoNews.co) The question we all want to know, is where did it come from? John McCain keeps hiding and refuses to answer that question!

What we do know, thanks to an investigation by The Daily Caller, is that the McCain Institute for International Leadership received a VERY GENEROUS donation from none other than George Soros.

The institute is intended to serve as a “legacy” for McCain. It “is dedicated to advancing human rights, dignity, democracy and freedom”. It is also a tax-exempt non-profit foundation with assets valued at $8.1 million and associated with Arizona State University.

John McCain turned over nearly $9 million in unspent funds from his failed 2008 presidential campaign to a new foundation bearing his name, the McCain Institute for International Leadership.

Cohn is a psychopathic putz. He thinks he's powerful because he threw around billions of dollars in Goldman Sachs blood money. Just look at him. His body language says it all. He is a morally sick person whose eyes and expressions cannot lie.

BOSTON/WASHINGTON (Reuters) - A newly fraying relationship between U.S. President Donald Trump and top White House economic adviser Gary Cohn has raised questions about how long Cohn will stay in his job, say two people with close ties to the White House.

Several sources said Cohn, director of the National Economic Council, had long planned to stay in his post for at least a year. But one source said concern had grown among Cohn's allies over the past 24 hours that he might be pressured to leave.

Wilson is correct when he says the America no longer functions under the "rule of law". It functions on the principle of class, wealth, race, gender, etc. These are the tools of destruction. With meta-data, we now have the tools for MAB or "mutually assured blackmail".

Brian Wilson. (Sep. 09, 2017). MAB Is The New MAD. LewRockwell.

At the daily press briefing, Sarah Huckabee Sanders responded to a reporter's assertion President Trump's decision to end DACA was "cold hearted". Ms. Sanders responded, "It's not cold hearted for the president to uphold the law. We're a nation of law and order. And the day that we start to ignore the fact that we are that, then we throw away everything that gives these people a reason to come to our country...."

With respect to Ms. Sanders, that car has left the showroom. America has long ceased to be a "nation of law and order", morphing into a nation of selectively applied laws with enforcement depending on class, income, race, sexual orientation, political agenda or special interest group. One look at Clinton, Clapper, Comey, Koskinen, Lerner, Lynch, Holder, Abedin, Brazille, Podesta, Rice, Waters, Sharpton, the Clinton Foundation - all roaming the country freely, some getting new, high-paying jobs and the continued adoration of the MSM. A "nation of law and order" or a nation of Special Rules for Special People? That's a tough one.

This Marine nailed it!

From a Marine: "If you are paid $25.00 an hour to show up to a rally to "counter" the other party using physical force and violence, you are not a "counter protestor." You are a mercenary.

There is no need for further debate on this. You were paid to attack someone you don't know for reasons that you couldn't care enough about to go there for free. You did your "job" and collected your check and your reimbursement of expenses. You're a mercenary.

Not a Patriot. Not a Social Justice Warrior. Not a Defender of Freedom or Liberty. Not an upholder of Truth or Justice. None of those things you claim to be. You are a mercenary.

And mercenaries are not lawful combatants and deserve whatever comes their way at the hands of the people they are attacking.

You have no 1st Amendment rights when you're a mercenary.

Doesn't matter what side you're on. Doesn't matter what cause you're showing up to disrupt. If you can't express yourself peacefully through diplomatic means, then you better be prepared to meet your maker at the hands of someone who is only barely keeping their own violent tendencies at bay through a massive exercise of self-control.

I know it sounds romantic to attend these rallies and get shit started with the other side. And when you're young and passionate, it's really easy to get whipped up into a frenzy of raw emotions. There is a reason why young people are preferred when it comes to warfare. They are easy to manipulate and control and set off.

But I'm telling you all this right now. You've got no idea what road you are starting down. Romance and idealism wears off really fast when you're laying in a pool of your own blood trying to stuff your intestines back into your torn abdomen.

I've been lucky enough to go forty-two years without having to put the skills I learned in the Marines to use. I continue to train and keep those skills up to date because I see the madness that is happening all across this country. I don't train to attack others like you do. I train to defend others FROM you. I'm not alone either.

There are thousands of men and women in this country who have seen war and death and don't want any more to do with it. They want to live in peace. They want to forget the things they've had to do in the service of their country. They want to raise their kids and have family BBQs and build tree houses and soap box derby cars and have tea parties.

They don't want this stuff that you're selling.

You have the extremist left and the extremist right that are doing their best to get something started. To force us into a Civil War. Even in the 1860's, the violence between the North and South was nowhere near what we see today. Not even close. And yet we still had a war of ideology that consumed hundreds of thousands of lives.

All you young and naive kids on both sides of this equation who think that having a Civil War will advance your agenda or restore your vision of what you think is America, just remember this... Those of us older generations aren't having any of this shit. And if you jump off, you better be prepared to deal with US. We don't care what color you're wearing or what sign you're holding if you come after us, our friends, our family, our co-workers, our neighbors, etc., WE will [redacted] you.

So remember that when you're thinking that it's just Left vs Right, or Liberal vs Conservative, or Commie vs. Fascist. We are the variable you're not considering.

That "Silent Majority" that you pretend does not exist is getting really sick and tired of your bullshit.

Leading anti-Trump "resistance" group Refuse Fascism has condemned House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi and other critics of Antifa, saying they are abetting the "fascism" of the Trump administration.

The resistance group issued a statement Saturday declaring its support for Antifa and hammering its critics, even as Pelosi and others on the left attempt to distance themselves from Antifa, the violent far-left movement that federal authorities have said is engaging in domestic terror activity. Refuse Fascism specifically noted Pelosi's criticisms of Antifa, before attacking all critics of Antifa as siding with "fascism." The statement was titled "Shameful, Dangerous, Wrong Attacks on Antifa." (RELATED: Anti-Trump 'Resistance' Groups Spreading North Korean Propaganda)

"Differences over tactics, where they exist, must not divide the people's resistance. Distancing and effectively joining in the threats and attack by this fascist regime, and other

Jim Hoft. (Aug. 06, 2017). 10 OF 11 CALIFORNIA COUNTIES WITH MORE REGISTERED VOTERS THAN VOTING AGE ADULTS ARE DEMOCRAT. Gateway Pundit.

There are eleven counties in California with more registered voters than voting age adults in the county.

Ten of the Eleven counties voted for Hillary Clinton.

The counties include San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Judicial Watch, a conservative watchdog organization, has sent a letter to California Secretary of State Alex Padilla on behalf of the Election Integrity Project, noting that there are 11 counties in the state with more registered voters, and alleging that the state may be out of compliance with Section 8 of the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA).

The letter reads, in part:

NVRA Section 8 requires states to conduct reasonable list maintenance so as to maintain an accurate record of eligible voters for use in conducting federal elections.¹ As you may know, Congress enacted Section 8 of the NVRA to protect the integrity of the electoral process. Allowing the names of ineligible voters to remain on the voting rolls harms the integrity of the electoral process and undermines voter confidence in the legitimacy of elections.

As the top election official in California, it is your responsibility under federal law to coordinate California’s statewide effort to conduct a program that reasonably ensures the lists of eligible voters are accurate.

Judicial Watch lays out the specifics: “[T]here were more total registered voters than there were adults over the age of 18 living in each of the following eleven (11) counties: Imperial (102%), Lassen (102%), Los Angeles (112%), Monterey (104%), San Diego (138%), San Francisco (114%), San Mateo (111%), Santa Cruz (109%), Solano (111%), Stanislaus (102%), and Yolo (110%).” The letter notes that the percentage in L.A. County may be as high as 144%.

Hillary Clinton was confronted by Laura Loomer during her book signing for What Happened moments ago, with Loomer asking Hillary, “What happened to your 33,000 emails?”

The event was held at Barnes & Noble in Union Square. Hillary’s new book, What Happened, has been panned by critics as yet another example of Clinton’s inability to take personal responsibility for her election defeat.

“So the American people would like to know, what happened to your 33,000 emails?” What happened in Benghazi?” asked Loomer, to which Hillary responded, “Go read the book.”

What happened to the millions of dollars that was supposed to go to the people in Haiti?” asked Loomer, a charge Hillary then claimed was “untrue”.

"What happened to Seth Rich? What happened to your health Hillary?" asked Loomer before she was told to leave by security.

Loomer then spotted Huma Abedin and approached her before asking, "When are you gonna divorce your husband for texting underage girls?"

Loomer was subsequently dragged out by Secret Service and suffered a cut to her foot.

Rack up a win for the Council on American-Islamic Relations and a network of other U.S. Islamist organizations controlled by the Muslim Brotherhood.

Not only has the Brotherhood thus far managed to avoid the Trump White House designating it a terrorist organization, but its U.S. affiliates still hold enormous sway over the Republican-dominated Congress.

The latest evidence of that fact played out on Capitol Hill last Thursday, in a stunning turn of events that received no coverage from the national media and elicited nary a peep out of the conservative media.

Islamic Relief Worldwide, or IRW, a United Kingdom-based humanitarian relief agency with a U.S. chapter, has received hundreds of thousands of dollars in U.S. federal grants in recent years, including $370,000 for the fiscal years 2015 and 2016. Quite naturally, IRW wants to keep the spigot of federal dollars flowing, despite the charity's links to the terrorist group Hamas.

U.S. Rep. Ron DeSantis, R-Fla., introduced an amendment to the State and Foreign Operations Appropriations Act that would have banned all federal funding of IRW and its affiliates.

TRYING TO HIDE SECRET SERVER. The Daily Caller.

A secret server is behind law enforcement's decision to ban a former IT aide to Democratic Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz from the House network.

Now-indicted former congressional IT aide Imran Awan allegedly routed data from numerous House Democrats to a secret server. Police grew suspicious and requested a copy of the server early this year, but they were provided with an elaborate falsified image designed to hide the massive violations. The falsified image is what ultimately triggered their ban from the House network Feb. 2, according to a senior House official with direct knowledge of the investigation.

The secret server was connected to the House Democratic Caucus, an organization chaired by then-Rep. Xavier Becerra. Police informed Becerra that the server was the subject of an investigation and requested a copy of it. Authorities considered the false image they received to be interference in a criminal investigation, the senior official said.

In the hours leading up to Daily Wire Editor-in-Chief Ben Shapiro's hotly-contested speech at the University of California, Berkeley on Thursday, Rep. Jim Jordan (R-OH), a fierce proponent of free speech, issued a blunt warning to colleges that restrict free speech on their campuses.

Speaking to The Daily Wire on Tuesday, Jordan, who chaired the Congressional hearings in July to discuss free speech on college campuses at which Shapiro testified, issued this statement:

Colleges have historically been that place where you make your best argument, have a full and robust debate, and let ideas flow. But now we often find that if you're libertarian or conservative and are invited to speak on campus, you later get disinvented. If they're allowed to speak at all, conservatives and libertarians get shouted down or in some cases actual riots break out. If public colleges and universities continue to allow this to occur, Congress may have to get involved.
