VIDEO TRACK

the title track from the group's new Elektra album. Playing off the theme of the song, it finds the bad boys of rock'n'roll taking part in their favorite pastime—touring local strip joints.

Vivid Productions just wrapped Echo & the Bunnymen's clip for "The Game," the first single off the group's upcoming self-titled Warner Bros. album. It was filmed on location in Sao Paulo, Brazil, with director Anton Corbijn, the creative force behind U2's videos for "With Or Without You" and "I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For." Richard Bell produced.

Congratulations to Houston-based Hit Video USA, which was recently honored with an Addy Award by the American Advertising Federation, 10th district, for its series of black and white ads designed for trade publications. The pieces were created by network owner and chief executive officer Constance Wodlinger and West & Associates' Stan Chrzanowski. Michael Rush was the photographer.

Production companies and post-production facilities are welcome to submit information on current projects. Please send material to Linda Moleski, Video Track, Billboard, 1515 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10036.
