

Supreme Court Oral Arguments for Upcoming Term LIVE on C-SPAN

September 28, 2022

As the Court's new term begins, C-SPAN applauds the Supreme Court's decision to continue providing a live audio feed to the media and public of its oral arguments in the upcoming term. It's an important symbolic step in transparency – and an opportunity to continue to educate the public in the Court's operations.

In a C-SPAN poll earlier this year, nearly half (48%) of the respondents said listening to the live audio feeds "gave me a more positive view of the Court."

C-SPAN will continue to provide the Court's live audio feeds of oral arguments to its audience.
