How to Use Write.law

FLIP YOUR CLASSROOM

Link students to specific lessons to offer them engaging homework they will love. Link lessons to support your individual feedback. Or link any lesson on your school's LMS (like Canvas). Simply copy and paste the web address of any lesson and students are sent exactly where you want them.

ENGAGE DURING CLASS

Break up your live classes by playing short, targeted explainer videos for your students. Or use the writing and research activities to support live class time or for group exercises. Engage students and keep your classes fresh without any of the work.

STANDALONE SUPPLEMENTS

Assign chapters or entire courses as standalone learning resources. Have students complete the citation chapter, or legal grammar, or the entire writing or research course. Students can also receive a certificate for completing a course that they can turn in to you.

Features

ENGAGING ANIMATED VIDEOS

Focus on actionable techniques without the fluff. Our bite-sized micro lessons dish up only what you need to improve your legal writing and research skills.
