To the National Masters Track Meet:

GREETINGS:

Welcome to Madison — we're happy to have you with us!

You have chosen one of the finest cities in America — indeed, a true All-American City — as your host, and I'm sure you're already finding everyone you meet to be friendly and helpful. You can be assured, everyone is anxious to make your visit to Madison a most pleasant experience.

While Madison enjoys a national reputation for a great quality of life, the State Capitol, centered on the beautiful Capitol Square, is world-renowned for its architecture, its art and over-all beauty. Surrounding the Capitol are nationally-honored grounds and a quiet stroll around the Square, a peaceful break from the business of your schedule, will be pleasing and refreshing.

Madison looks forward to your visit. We wish you most productive and rewarding meet and, come back and see us again — soon.

Cordially,

TOMMY G. THOMPSON

March 27, 1987

The City of Madison is pleased to join the Madison Convention Bureau in welcoming the National Masters Track Athletes to our city.

Our city of lakes has been recognized not only for its beauty and charm, but for the excellence of the accommodations, restaurants and entertainment we have available as well. Madison has so much to offer that a successful event is all but assured.

We are proud of our public service, quality of life, our people and our beautiful city. We are pleased to be your host.

Best wishes and enjoy your stay in Madison.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sensenbrenner, Jr.
Mayor
