12,178 Athletes Take Part in 10th World Veterans Championships

More than 300 athletes from the USA marched in the opening ceremonies in Miyazaki. Colorado's Jerry Donley (left) and California's Dave Jackson carry the USA banner.

Japan Welcomes Participants from 78 Nations to Miyazaki

It was an almost-spiritual experience for many of the 12,178 athletes from 78 nations who came to Miyazaki, Japan, for the 10th WAVA World Veterans Athletics Championships on October 7-17.

Long after the intensity and non-stop activity of the 11-day extravaganza have faded into a hazy, sentimental blur, what will remain firmly in the mind are the friendliness, the efficiency, the dedication, and the generosity of the people of Miyazaki.

Athletes were invited into the homes of Miyazaki residents. Local school childen came to the track and besieged participants for their autographs. People went out of their way to be helpful to the visitors.

Thousands of local residents volunteered their time at the meet. The events went off beautifully, with only a few serious problems, most of which were quickly solved. The entire community was involved.

"From the youngest child to the oldest person, they were all wonderful to us," said California's Nick Newton.

Miyazaki is a city of 300,000 on the island of Kyushu in southwestern Japan. It's the capital of Miyazaki prefecture (state) which contains about one million residents.

By Japanese standards, Miyazaki is a small, rural community. It's often looked upon by the rest of the nation as New Yorkers might look upon Dubuque or Peoria — nice, but a bit slow and quaint.

One of the goals of the Miyazaki organizers was to put that image to rest.

That they did.

USATF is a major funding supporter of NMN. Ex-ecutive Officers of USATF: Larry Ellis, President: Ollan C. Cassell, Executive Director.

The National Masters News is devoted exclusively to track & field, long distance running, and racewalking for men and women over age 30. Each month it delivers 24 to 48 pages of results, schedules, entry forms, age records, rankings, photos, articles, training tips, and all the inside scoops and information that affect the world of masters athletics competi-

Some masters events are sponsored by USATF, the national governing body for athletics in the USA. Some are sponsored by individuals, clubs or other senior organizations.

Generally, anyone age 30 or over may come to a masters event and participate. Some events are limited to ages 40+, 50+ or 55+; (please check the schedule for details). Some events require advance registration. Some require a current USATF card ($7 to $12 per year, depending on the region). To inquire about a USATF card, call USATF in your area, or 317/261-0500. There are no qualifying standards for most masters athletics events.

WAVA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

I had a wonderful time in Miyazaki. I can't say enough about the friend-liness and generosity of the people of Miyazaki. It was an experience I will never forget.

Our group of Earl Fee, Bill Weinacht, Mel Larsen, Gordon Seifert, Bill Daprano and myself all agree it was the finest meet we have ever competed in. We all thank Miyazaki for the greatest time and track meet of our lifetimes.

Everything was great: hotels, food, parties, fireworks, entertainment. The farewell party at the Kanko Hotel was spectacular; the food beyond belief.

The visit and meal in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kojima was a nice experience and a chance to meet wonderful people. The party at the home of artist W. Fujeno was a heart-warming experience. I can't thank these people enough for everything.

Much praise and thanks are in order to Barb Kousky and Tom Jordan for putting together a wonderful, detailed, perfect tour package that could not be improved on.

Thanks to everyone involved for making this trip so wonderful.

Chuck Sochor Gowen, Michigan

The age-70 middle-distance runners at the World Veterans meet were awesome. I ran my best times of the year in the 800, 1500, and 5000 but couldn't get a medal. Two Australians — Gordon McKeown and John Gilmour — and James Todd (GBR) took seven medals in these events, leaving two for the rest of the world.

But Norman Hansen, Naoto Inada and I won the M70 team silver medal for the USA in the marathon. The meet was exciting, exotic and well managed.

Carl Hammen Sarasota, Florida

I have just returned from an extremely pleasant trip to Miyazaki, with one exception — the management of the relays. Thanks are due to Sandy Pashkin for the work she put into organizing the relay teams. However, I believe there is room for improvement in this area and that all runners need to contribute to this improvement.

In my age group (W35) there were only four competitors who expressed interest in the relays. We knew we might not win a medal but were excited that all of us would participate.

I was confused, therefore, by Sandy's announcement at the relay meeting that an older competitor would be dropping down onto the W35 team. This bumped one of the W35 runners into the alternate slot and, eventually, out of a race. We knew that the W35 runner would bust her gut to run her best for us. It was not clear to any of the original team members what recourse we had in this situation.

Another confusing change took place the morning of the relays. Somehow the order of runners in one team was changed, but at least three of us were never informed.

May I suggest that it would be beneficial to the outcome of the races to have the team manager speak with runners about changes and listen to their opinions on those changes. We are all adults, and many of us, including me, have decades of competition experience which we would happily contribute to the team's benefit.

On another topic, I think a thank you note should be sent to Brian Keavany, the Canadian team leader, for the help he voluntarily and graciously gave to a USA athlete. Let us not forget that the behavior of our USA officials contributes to the image of the United States which we present to the world. No one should have to apologize to someone from another country for the less-than-polite behavior of a fellow athlete or team official.

On a personal note, having raced for over twenty-five years on three continents, I was impressed by the pure athleticism and friendliness of most of the people I met in Miyazaki. I hope to see everyone again at future competitions.

Lynn Davis Washington, D.C.

(Pashkin said she followed the USATF-approved criteria, which says preference for selection of relay runners must be given to those who have run a 100 or 400 in the World Championships. She said the W35 runner mentioned above did not run a 400 in the meet and so was dropped in favor of the older runner, who had run a 400.—Ed.)

At the USA team relay meeting in Miyazaki, October 16, I spoke up regarding the relay strategies of several other countries. They appeared to be moving runners down in age groups in order to win the most medals.

However, Sandy Pashkin, the U.S. team manager, said that wasn't how our teams would be selected. With few exceptions, age groups would be kept intact and filled with the athletes available.

I said I didn't think this method would give the USA the best teams, but was told this was the system. Ms. Pashkin then proceeded to select the teams.

The next day, the USA men's 4×100 teams in the 45-49 and 50-54 age groups both finished fourth. I ran anchor on the 50-54 team. After both teams failed to medal, I was very upset. I felt we could have created a 45-49 team (including Paul Edens and myself from the 50-54 group) that would have been very competitive.

Another runner said "athletes are here to participate, not win medals." I couldn't believe my ears. I certainly would not have volunteered to compete (and paid $7 per relay for the privilege of representing my country) if I thought we were there "to participate." This was not some weekend all-comers meet. This was the world championships.

If the people in authority for international competition think the criterion for choosing our relay teams should be "opportunity to participate" rather than "putting together teams that can win," then I obviously have no business running on those teams. But I don't think I'm unique. I think most American athletes compete to win. They strive for excellence, and winning a gold medal is the clearest evidence that they have achieved it. Corporate managers seek to hire the best person for the job. We should do the same in staffing our relay teams.

How could we improve the way relays are selected? I don't have the answer, but I have some suggestions.

First, we should state a basic commitment to winning for USA teams.

Second, we could identify a half-dozen U.S. meets each spring and summer where athletes could get qualifying times to be used in selecting relay members for major competitions. This would eliminate having to choose teams solely on the times that athletes made earlier in that meet's open competition. It would also mean athletes wouldn't have to run in the early rounds of the 100 and 400 to get a time and then scratch from the later rounds.

Third, we should consider having team managers for each age group. These managers would be in a better Continued on page 5

Finally, American corporations have recently learned the value of empowering their employees. The U.S. masters' administrative body should consider modifying the relay decision process to give the athletes some input into who is on their team. The athletes know who can contribute most and their voices should be heard.

Stephen P. Robbins Del Mar, California

The largest gathering of master walkers converged in Miyazaki, Japan for both the 10K/20K road walks and the 5K track walks. That's the good news. The bad news is that these judged events were innundated with both men and women walkers who showed no sign of ever having learned the basic principles of the sport of racewalking, sadly to the point of embarrassment.

There should absolutely be no reason for such a reputable organization as WAVA to allow judges to turn their heads on the numerous blatantly illegal racewalkers. It's not only embarrassing, but it weakens our sport tremendously. They should never have been allowed to continue racing. Carl Acosta North Hollywood

DON'T GO METRIC

In response to Mr. Jones' article in last month's NMN, "Go Metric," I'm sure there are many of us "19th Century-type number" people left in the USA who will disagree with his comments. How often I have heard friends and family say, "I saw your meet results, but it was in meters so I don't know how high you jumped." Well, I'm sure they could have gone to their calculators and multiplied it out (if they could remember what number to use) to see how high. But, instead, they more than likely dismissed it all with increasing disinterest.

I find that non-competitive track buffs tend to relate field-event heights and distances back to what they remember when they were in school, therefore metrics to the over-forty crowd may as well be hieroglyphics. Let's not drive another nail into the track and field coffin here in the U.S. by making our sport less interesting for our fans and supporters. After all, what fun is it to clear heights or throw distances if you can't share them with friends? I personally enjoy a compromise of both metric and feet listed side by side in meet results, but not total metrics, please.

I say this: "When in Rome . . . But when in the U.S.A

LEARN THE RULES

As I continue my career as a USATF certified official, I periodically find myself in conflict with athletes and coaches regarding the athletes' compliance with the rules. I find that these misunderstandings are primarily caused by the athletes' and coaches' lack of knowledge and understanding of the rules and not by an intentional violation of the rules.

The governing bodies of track and field require that officials know and firmly enforce the rules while being objective and courteous. The rule books published by these governing bodies are neither perfect nor complete. The rule books do not cover all unusual situations and in these cases the meet referee, not the event official, must make a decision on how to fairly proceed with the competition.

It is not the event official's job to teach an athlete the rules just prior to or during a competition. The responsibility for knowing and understanding the rules rests with the athlete.

Athletes can also be a part of the rule making process. Event officials will welcome questions and suggestions on how to better manage competitions. My officiating specialty is the vertical jumps. I am presently soliciting suggested changes to the vertical jump rules from athletes and coaches. I believe that we can implement changes that will simplify the vertical jump rules by virtue of making them more consistent.

Finally, please remember that your event officials are unpaid volunteers who graciously donate their time to officiate your event. Being courteous to them when you question a ruling is very important. Officials are always proud of a competition that provides athletes with the opportunity to excel. Taking the time to thank the event officials for their work is something that keeps them coming back.

Doug MacGregor Never Got the Word

s they say in the military, there are guys who never get the word. Doug Mac-Gregor, a resident of Lebanon, New Hampshire, is one such guy. He doesn't know that he's not supposed to be setting personal records at age 54, especially with some 15 years of running behind him.

He doesn't know that you're supposed to train more than three times a week if you want to run 33:27 for 10K (the PR), as he did during August.

He doesn't know that you're not supposed to race every weekend if you want to remain rested and run your Heck, this guy McGregor thinks that pushing a lawn mower five times a week is cross-training.

To show you how really out if it he is, MacGregor had never even heard of National Masters News until I contacted him for this column.

In spite of all he doesn't know, MacGregor is one of the hottest ageclass runners in this country. That 33:27, recorded on a certified course in the Saunders 10K, should speak for itself. He also has a recent 16:10 5K and a 1:15:30 half-marathon.

Like a Carleton Fisk

"I'm almost like a Carleton Fisk, I guess," he replied when asked to explain his emergence as an elite masters competitor during the past two years. "I ran through high school and college, then I stopped. I didn't get started again until I was 39. But then I injured a hamstring at 40, and wasn't really healthy again until I was 44. Of course, I still had a son playing high school sports at the time, so I only ran five or six races a year. It wasn't until I got to be 48 or 49 that I really began to get into running full time, doing speed work and racing in racing shoes, things like that.'

Born in Boston, MacGregor, now a junior high school science teacher, grew up in Tilton, N.H., where he ran cross-country at Tilton-Northfield High School. He then went on to compete in cross-country for the University of New Hampshire, winning the Yankee Conference championship in 1958 and finishing second in both '59 and '60. He also competed on the track, but can't remember his best times. "Maybe 4:35 or 4:36 for the mile, around 9:40 for two miles, something around there, not very fast," he said. "My heart was never really into it back then."

Drinking and Overweight

After leaving college, MacGregor, like so many others, went astray. "I had a drinking problem, was overweight, had a lousy diet, and did everything else wrong as far as my health was concerned," he said.

Five-foot-seven and now 130 pounds, MacGregor recalled that his weight got up close to 160 pounds. It wasn't until June of 1978 when some friends asked him to join them in preparing for a local race that MacGregor began to reverse things. But his progress in the direction of elite status was slowed by the injury and family priorities.

"There were so many years that I didn't run, that I never had the chance to break down like other guys my age," MacGregor said.

Of course, you have to wonder how fast MacGregor might have been had he run seriously at a younger age. You also have to wonder if his current training regimen is allowing him to maximize his potential.

Typical Training Week

He said that a typical week of training calls for 20-25 miles, including a 10 miler, a track session of anywhere from four to 12 quarters in 80 seconds, and a race every weekend beginning in April. He takes a few months off during the winter.

"This might sound crazy, but I do a lot of cross-training by pushing lawn mowers," he said. "I have this lawn business during summer vacations and mow about five lawns a week by hand, not a power mower. Each lawn takes an hour or an hour-and-a-half to do."

MacGregor said he also stretches for a half hour every morning and that he has to stretch and warm up for about an hour before every race. No one ever told him that too much stretching can be bad for a person.

Maybe it would be better for all of us if we didn't get the word.

But I don't think you should go so far as to cancel your subscription to National Masters News.

Cummings, Hutchison Tops in Tulsa 15K

by JERRY WOJCIK

Paul Cummings, 40, Lehi, Utah, and Jane Hutchison, 48, Joplin, Mo., were masters winners in the 16th annual Tulsa 15K on Oct. 30.

Cummings, a recent 40, with a swift 46:10, defeated Earl Owens, 44, winner (32:06) of the USATF Masters 10K Championships, Oklahoma City, Sept. 25, and Paul Raether, 40, masters first (14:58) at the Juan In A Million 5K, Las Vegas, Oct. 9. Owens finished in 49:26, with Raether at 51:18.

Fay Bradley took the M55 race with a sizzling 53:15. Jack Gentry ran a 61:12 for the M65 first.

Hutchison covered the course is 57:07, leaving second place to Martha O'Rourke (59:06), and third to Mary Hydrick (60:24). Ruth Nalepa, W50 winner in 60:35, was fourth.

About 7800 entrants braved freezing temperatures and wind gusts of up to 25 mph to vie for a share of the $29,000 prize money, $3000 of which went to masters.

George Sheehan Loses Race to Cancer

On Nov. 1, four days short of his 75th birthday, Dr. George Sheehan succumbed to a six-year bout with prostate cancer

Sheehan, guru to thousands of runners, motivated his followers to reach out for their dreams through his inspiring books and personal appearances. He was sometimes referred to as "Mark Twain in sneakers."

A middle-distance runner in college, Sheehan gave up running when he became a cardiologist. In 1963, at age 45, he resumed his running career andsoon became a strong age-group competitor. A highlight was his 3:01 Boston Marathon at age 61.

Sheehan began his journalistic career in 1968, at the Mexico City Olympic Games. For the past 20 years he was medical editor for Runners World.

He leaves his wife, Mary, their 12 children, 13 grandchildren and a multitude of runners for whom life will no longer be quite the same. So long, George. See you at the finish line.

Dashing Through the Snow -Chicago Marathon '93

by JANE DODS

Following a week of mild weather, Oct. 31 dawned cold and snowy. But that didn't stop some 7000 runners, including this writer, from taking a 26.2 mile sightseeing tour through the heart of Chicago. Dressed in clothes usually seen on ski slopes, runners stamped their feet while waiting in line at the snow-bedecked porta-potties. Picasso's famous statue in Daley Plaza also had a coating of white.

Once we were on the move, the 34° (12° wind-chill factor) atmosphere seemed bearable. As a runner far from the lead pack, I was able to get a pretty

Kurtis Wins in Detroit Free Press Marathon

Six-time winner and defending champion Doug Kurtis, 41, Northville, Mich., settled for third place overall with a 2:22:46 in a steady downpour in the Detroit Free Press/Mazda International Marathon in Detroit on Oct. 17.

In his third marathon in two weeks, Kurtis broke from a pack of six leaders with the eventual winner, Peter Maher (33, 2:19:53), but was unable to maintain the pace. Kurtis' winnings, including $2000 for masters first, totaled $3000, $500 more than the secondplace prize.

Second and third place went to Bob Schlau, M45, Charleston, S.C., with a 2:32:51, and Terry McCluskey, M45, Brookfield, Ohio, in 2:34:14.

Linda Leonard, W40, Kalamazoo, Mich., won the masters women's race with a tenth-place 3:08:02. Wen-Shi Yu, Kew Gardens, N.Y., took the W55 division win in 3:33:29. The first female was Amy Legacki (24, 2:43:07).

About 2400 runners, racewalkers, and wheelchair competitors covered the course in a steady downpour. Dr. Edward Kozloff of the Motor City Striders coordinated the race.

good look at the diverse neighborhoods we ran through - from downtown and the Sears Towers, past "Planet Hollywood's" 40-foot high Godzilla, Comiskey Park, Soldier

Field and Chinatown. (The pagodas and sinewy dragon sculptures were shrouded in a snow shower as I passed through.)

After the turnaround on Lake Shore Drive at mile 22, we were literally blown towards the finish line in Grant Park. A short hobble through the chute led me directly to a heated tent where the Chicago School of Massage had set up business. Here I gratefully had some of my kinks rubbed out. Al Capone could not have done better!

Overall masters winners were Gary Moss, 2:34:37, and Nancy Rollins, 3:12:30. □

Waigwa, Nalepa Best in Cherry Street Mile

by JERRY WOJCIK

Kenyan Wilson Waigwa, 44, of El Paso, Texas, urged on by the crowd at the Cherry Street Mile, Tulsa, Okla., on Oct. 23, won the Elite Masters Championship race with a 4:03.08, knocking 25 seconds off the masters course record of 4:28.

Australian John Bermingham, 45, residing in Canada, was second in 4:07.99, with Charles McMullen, 42, Rochester, N.Y., third in 4:14.79.

Vic Heckler, 50, Chicago, was fifth in 4:29.70.

Ruth Nalepa, 50, San Antonio, Texas, won the Elite Masters Women's race with a 5:14.13 over Martha O'Rourke, 43, Tulsa, who finished in

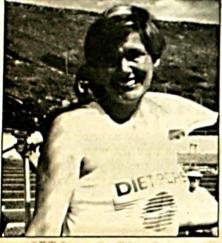

The 20-event program (all mile races) attracted nearly 1500 runners and racewalkers of all ages from 8-andunder to 70-and-over.

In the M70+ race, Tulsaross Waltzer, 71, Tulsa, won with a 6:10. Lydia Borges, 50, Tulsa, took the W50-54 race in 6:15.

Racewalkers Paul Johnson, 56, Fort Smith, Ark., and Linda Brown, 52, Tulsa, winners in the Elite Masters division races, were also first walkers overall, Johnson in 7:16 and Brown in 8:35.

Poland's Michal Bartoszak, 23, repeated as World Class Male division winner with a narrow victory (3:48.56) over Ireland's Marcus O'Sullivan, 31 (3:48.93). Debbie Marshall, 27, Bridgeport, Pa., was the female titlist in 4:29.64.

The event, run on downtown Tulsa's Cherry Street, which has a downward slope, was directed by Fred Ebrahimi, and benefits charities in the Tulsa area.

Foot Soaks

One of the most commonly asked questions from veteran runners is:

• How should I soak my feet when they get sore or after races?

This is a good question. After long runs our feet tend to get tired and swollen. Many times we have some strange foot condition or athlete's foot that defies description. Our toe nails become loose and the sides become infected and sore. Open blisters form from rubbing on shoes. All these conditions respond well to foot soaks.

The concept of foot soaks derives from the use of wet dressings to take care of biatetic ulcers and open sores on the extremities. Solutions were applied with gauze compresses to the affected areas.

In the case of athletic problems, the salt solutions can be prepared, and we soak our feet in containers of the preparations.

Foot soaks are used to reduce inflamed, oozing types of sores on the feet; athlete's foot; ingrown and inflamed nails; swollen ankles and feet. Salt solutions reduce inflammation and help rid the area of crusts, debris and infection.

Probably the most common and easiest soak to prepare is a normal 9.0% saline solution. This is compounded by adding one levele teaspoon of salt to one pint of water. It is good for simple erythema and simple skin problems. Soak for 20 minutes.

Epsom salt soaks or magnesium sulfate may be prepared by dissolving one tablespoon per quart of water. The affected area can be soaked for 20 minutes. This is similar to the saline solution but a little stronger.

Burrow's solution is known as solution of aluminum acetate. This comes as a commercial preparation such as Domeboro tablets or packets. This solution is prepared by dissolving one tablet or packet in a quart of cool water. This makes a 1:40 solution. Remember, however, that after half an hour the solution becomes concentrated into a 1:10 strength and this will probably be too irritating and drying to the skin.

Potassium permanganate is a great solution. However, this must be made by a dispensing pharmacist. It is a solution that must be made fresh. One needs to crush a 65 mg. tablet of potassium permanganate into a quart of water for a 1:16,000 solution. This solution is antiseptic and drying, and stains the skin and clothing.

For those with persistent dry or moist fungus of the foot, you may wish to try a simple 1:1 solution of apple cider vinegar and water. Twenty minute soaks, 2-3 times a week, usually changes the acidity of the skin and kills the superficial fungus.

Tracy Big Winner in Las Vegas

by JERRY WOJCIK

Diana Tracy, 40, Hermosa Beach, Calif., was the top female overall in the Juan In A Million 5K, in Las Vegas, Nev., on Oct. 9, with a W40 + course-record 16:53, worth a $750 first prize. Tracy finished 35th of 491 finishers.

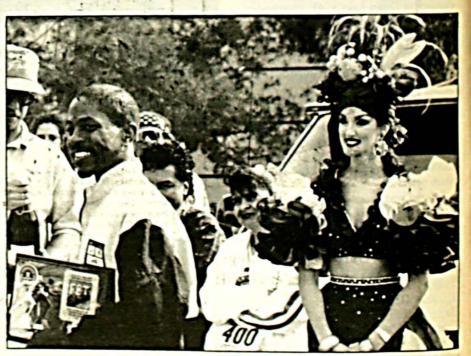

Four of the first five females were masters runners. Linda Mantynen, W45, Markleeville, Calif., finished second and 43rd overall in 17:20 for a $500 award. Valerie Pinocci, W40, Las Vegas, Nev., was fourth (17:44), and Loi Coker, W40, Huntington Beach, Calif., fifth (18:21).

Paul Raether, 40, Portland, Ore., 11th overall, won the masters title and $500 with an M40+ course-record 14:58. Nolan Smith, M40, Pasadena, Calif., 12th overall in 15:16, collected $250 as masters second, and Ron Gee, Los Angeles, 14th overall in 15:28, won the $125 third prize.

Division winners included Tom Curry (52, 15:52), Las Vegas; Sonny Monioz (57, 17:49), El Segundo, Calif.; and Gaylon Jorgensen (64, 18:39), Henderson, Nev.

Mbarak Hussein, of Kenya/Arizona, was the overall winner in a course-record 13:30. Seventy percent of the finishers set personal bests in the race, directed by Ed Preciado. The primary sponsors were The Carpet Barn and Citibank of Nevada.

Proceeds from the event, the fourth annual, which included a fun run and kids' races, are applied to scholarships for children of Nevada's law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty.

Stenberg, Putnam Win National 10K X-C in Cold & Snow in Louisville

by JERRY WOJCIK

Clay Stenberg, Seattle, Wash., who joined the masters ranks on Sept. 28, took command early at the threequarter mile mark and finished with a 33:01, well ahead of second-place Rory Trup's 34:56, despite a snow-covered, mud-slick course in the USATF National Masters 10K Cross-Country Championships on Oct. 31. Unseasonable temperatures in the mid-30s and over two inches of snow greeted the 84 entrants - 76 men and 8 women - at the start of the race, held at E.P. "Tom" Sawyer Park in Louisville, Ky.

"It was flat; the snow wasn't too big of a problem," said Stenberg, adding that the mud did cause trouble in his bid for finishing under 32:30. His win was the second in a row for Seattlebased runners. Seattle's Herman Atkins, who did not return to defend his title, won last year.

Other division winners were Bob Bettencourt, 46, 36:13; Don Coffman, 50, 36:34; Frank Wagner, 55, 39:16; Ken Combs, 60, 41:06; and John Burton, 70, 50:06.

Vickie Putnam, 45, of the Detroit Motor City Striders, was the winner of the women's race with a 42:43; Carol Bellora, 46, was second in 45:11. Cecilia Brzys, 44, 50:28; Ellen Nitz, 53, 46:49; and Rose Taylor, 57, 49:13, were the remaining division firsts.

Trup's runner-up finish led the way for the Jamul Toads of San Diego to take the M40-49 team title. The M50-59 title went to the local Victory Athletic Club, one of the sponsors of the championships, in Louisville for the third time, along with the Mason-Dixon AC, and the Metro Parks TC. [

Bohdan Bulakowski — Part II

BB: As the racing season approaches, we go into the next level of training. We have built the foundation in the first three months of Level 1 training, and now we go forward.

During the foundation building, we had two easy running days for those who had no technique problems. In the second phase of training, Walk 2 replaces running. Walk 2 is very important because you almost have the speed and distance that you do in competition. This walk is like a middle process between basic training and racing. Your body reacts more like it does when racing. Essentially, the objective is to build up distance and build up pace.

A typical beginning one-week microcycle at Level Two training would be:

 Walk 1 - one hour - heart beat range of 120-140 for younger masters, and 110-130 for older masters.

 Walk 2 - ½ hour - heart beat range of 140-160 younger masters; 130-150 older masters.

• Walk 1 - one hour - as above.

• Technique Training with short tempo work.

• Walk 1 - one hour - as above.

• Walk 2 - 1/2 hour - as above.

• Rest day.

Remember it is important to stay in the heart-beat range prescribed above. If you are to do Walk 1, you must stay in the lower heart-beat range. If you go faster, then you are accelerating and doing Walk 2 and losing the benefits of training at the speed of Walk 1.

Recovery is extremely important to training; if you don't recover, you can't do the training. For example, if you fird that your pulse rate is up the first thing in the morning and a speed workout is scheduled for that day, you don't do the speed work. You cut your workout back immediately and either do light training or rest. The body will let you know.

If you are sick for three or four days, the next three days you would do very light training such as Walk 1 and observe yourself. See how you feel. If you are not ready to train, give up and go home. Drink lots of fluids. If you feel fine, you are ready.

Speed work is a little faster than Walk 2. The heart beat should be higher, almost race pace; i.e., 90 to 95 percent. If you were training for a 20K, you do 4 x 3K. In Europe, a 20K for men is a short distance. Or you might do 2K and 1K intervals. If you are going the longer interval, you go slower; if you are going a short interval, you go faster.

Day Before and Race Day

BB: The day before a race, we always do a "warm-up." We do exactly the same routine we do to warm-up for a race but longer.

For example, we might start with an easy five-minute run, stretch for 10 minutes, do 20 minutes of Walk 1, do three times 100 meters of speed. If you are not on a track you can do one minute of speed, one minute slow, one minute of speed and one minute slow. After that, we cool down with a five minute walk and some more stretching.

After the warm-up on race day, we relax the 10 minutes preceding the race. You don't want to go to the start line tired. In other words, you don't want to warm up right to the start of the race so that when the gun goes off, you are already breathing hard. If you are tired and everyone else is rested, the gun will go off, they are gone, and you are wondering where they went.

You probably have noticed that some competitors go the first 100 excep meters of a race full out. In that 30 extra seconds, they can get their heart beat up to 160. That can tire you for the rest arms, of the race.

During a race it is important to keep in control. Don't go out at a 1:40 lap pace if you can't hold a 1:40 lap pace. If you can hold a 2:00 minute lap, do the first lap in 2:00 minutes. Go your own pace regardless of what others are doing. The competitor who goes out too fast is going to slow down. If you average your steady pace, you may be surprised to find that there is little difference in the final time between you and the person who goes out too fast except that you are not tired and have extra push to win at the end.

In a race, use your head, use your arms, use your legs. When you move your arms well, your legs are going to go well. When you use your head well, you can observe and assess what is happening in the race and can monitor your own pace and strategy. You can't change your level of training. If someone is a lot better than you, you can't do anything about that. But you can use your head at any time during a race to assess your resources and the possibilities of passing someone in front of you or keeping others from passing you.

Bulakowski, Berlin Best in 30K Racewalk

from JIM NORVILL

Bohdan Bulakowski, M40, a Polish Olympian now residing in the U.S., was first in the USATF National Masters 30K Racewalk Championships, Atlanta, Ga., on Oct. 31. Bulakowski, the subject of Elaine Ward's "Masters Racewalking" column in this issue, finished in 2:29:20.

Edward Whiteman, 54, Covington, La., was the first U.S. citizen in 2:47:34. Art Grant followed with a 3:07:47. Cokey Daman won the M70-74 race in 3:26:57.

Only two women finished: Arlette Berlin, 44, Dunwoody, Ga., in 3:32:40, and Kathy Frable, 48, in 3:34:10.

Contestants braved freezing temperatures, howling winds, and snow flurries in the race, staged by the Georgia Walking Club.

Levisse, Gibson Take New York Marathon Masters Titles

by MARILYN J. MITCHELL

Pierre LeVisse (41, France, 2:20:17) and Ellen Gibson (42, Park City, Utah, 2:50:17) took the masters titles in the 24th annual New York City Marathon, Nov. 14.

It was the second straight win for LeVisse, who clocked 2:19:42 last year.

Gibson's 16th overall place made her the first U.S. female finisher, since both the much-touted Anne Marie Letko and Kim Jones dropped out and were briefly hospitalized, the former for severe dehydration and the latter for a severe asthma attack.

Both Gibson and LeVisse took home $3000 for their masters wins, neither qualifying for the time bonuses (additional amounts for a sub-2:15 for the men and a sub-2:33 time for the women).

Although the race was a week later than normal and cool weather was expected, this turned out to be the warmest November 14 in recent New York history — 70 degree temperature, 61% humidity and sunny skies with a 12 mph southwest wind.

More than 50 runners were hospitalized, with two of them being evacuated by helicopter in serious condition. Nonetheless, three of the top five male finishers and four of the top five female finishers recorded personal bests.

Gibson ran a 2:43 + marathon last year, but admits to racing too much last year at shorter distances and experiencing burn-out. "So I came (to New York) and this was great. I turned 43 recently, and I thought I should come while they still wanted me (as an invited runner). I've done a lot of 50K cross-country ski races, so I've done a lot of endurance events." Although the Boston Marathon looks attractive to her, she has no plans at this time to run it, as March is the height of her competitive ski season and that, coupled with copious amounts of snow in Utah. make it very difficult to do serious marathon training.

This year's second place woman, Judith Hine, who won this division last year said, "...this year's time is fairly similar to when I won it last year. It's been a couple of years since I've run 2:41. I think I have to work a little bit harder. I think I've been a little too consistent at 2:50. I've always liked the results I've had at New York. I've always been a person who could handle the hot weather. Even in the hot weather, I find I can run without drinking...This was my 48th marathon."

Where will 49th and 50th be? "As I'm running, I'm thinking, 'Should I take a break?' I did my first marathon in 1979 and I was one of those rare people in New Zealand doing distance work at that time. I will go back to New Zealand in January for a few months' break. I don't win enough money to keep myself over here for a whole year, but I'm lucky to have a friend in Atlanta for whom I keep house in exchange for low living expenses."

Diane Legare (42, Canada, 3:00.32) and Maritza Martinez (41, Costa Rica, 3:03.11) rounded out the 40-year old female category. Fifty-year old Rae Baymiller of New York, who only started running last year, posted a very creditable 2:53:53 to take first place in the fifty-year old category, making her third masters woman overall.

On the men's side, LeVisse, who finished 22nd overall, said "My race was not very hard because I would like only just to win this race and save my energy for other races... in France. The first 10 miles, the pace was 2:17 +. It's not bad, but after the 25K, I was the first master and the rest was (to) finish for me." Even under questioning he was not forthcoming about which races he was saving his energy for.

Doug Kurtis, second master in a time of 2:24:34, said he had done five marathons in the last six weeks with a best of 2:20 + and a worst of 2:25 +, which was a marathon in Providence, R.I., two weeks ago. In an upbeat and cheerful mood, he said, "I sat behind Pierre until just about halfway. (laughs) "I let him do a lot of the work... Paul Cummings went out so fast the first mile, I thought he was way over his head... Pierre ran a smart race... a tough race... I'm just happy to finish second here today. We were 1:09 at the half (marathon). I run 100 miles per week and I'm blessed with a body that can recover real fast. And I just go out and have fun. I think this is my seventh New York Marathon, and this was the most fun. There are a lot of runners who go out and try to run as hard as they can, and that's not how you run on a (hot, humid) day like today."

Peter Gschwend (50, Switzerland, 2:25:16), Claudio Padilha (42, Brazil, 2:31:31) and Jose Rubio Jimenez (41, Mexico, 2:34:11) rounded out the men's field.

The women's winner, Uta Pippig, led from mile three, but the second pack of women provided a lot of excitement by constantly surging and changing position. Particularly exciting was 39-year old Emma Scaunich of Italy, who ran anywhere from second place to 9th place from the fourth mile to the end of the race, finishing 6th overall with a time of 2:35:02. Scaunich hails from Friuli in the vicinity of Veneto and now lives near Bologna. She should provide a lot of excitement next year in the masters category and perhaps it was her strong finish which prompted Grete Waitz to announce at the post-race awards ceremony, "If everything goes well, next year I may be 100% a part of everything." Previously Grete had said that she was not particularly interested in running masters events. She has been spending her time coaching other athletes, including the physically challenged. With a Grete Waitz and Emma Scaunich entrance onto the masters marathon scene, things could get very interesting in 1994.

Sixty-two percent of this year's competitors were over the age of 40. The oldest male and female finishers were both 86 years old — Mavis Lindgren from Orleans, Calif., and Sam Gadless of Boca Raton, Fla. Sam was the oldest finisher and has done four marathons in the past 12 months. He thought that this marathon was "Great!" and although the New York Road Runners provided a limousine and driver for Mrs. Lindgren, Gadless insisted upon walking back to his hotel "... in order to cool down."

Next year will mark the 25th running of the New York City Marathon and demand for entry is expected to be very high. The race will be November 6, and in a departure from previous procedure, entry blanks may be requested by any American runner after January 2. Application forms will be mailed out simultaneously to all requesting them about May 16 or 17. Foreign entrants will be required to go through their New York Road Runners-designated tour operators. Approximately 12,000 places will be filled by Americans requesting forms, another 8000 by foreigners going through their tour operators, and approximately 6000 to 7000 runners will be selected by lottery. The balance of the field is made up of elite invited runners. This year's race had 26,401 finishers (5,761 women and 20,640 men) with 583 men and 32 women running under three hours. Last year's race had 27,797 finishers.

Open winners were Andres Espinosa (30, Mexico) with a time of 2:10.04 and Uta Pippig (28, Germany) in 2:26:24. Complete results next month.

(A few days after the race, Mitchell reported that ABC-TV, which has televised the NYC Marathon for several years, will not broadcast the race next year. —Ed.)

Philippa (Phil) Raschker

This month's Sorbothane Masters Athlete-of-the-Month is, once again, Philippa (Phil) Raschker of Marietta, Ga. The 46-year-old, 5-4, 100-pounder was phenomenal at the WAVA World Veterans Athletics Championships in Japan, Oct. 7-17.

She won an amazing ten medals — seven gold, two silver and a bronze — more than any other competitor has ever won in any World Veterans Championships.

She set a new world record in the pole vault for women age 45-49 with a leap of 3.14 (10-3½). She won the triple jump (10.50/34-5½), 80-meter hurdles (12.75), heptathlon (5681 pts.), 100 (12.90), 200 (26.58), and 400 (60.04).

In the one-lapper, she fought back from third place at the top of the stretch to dig deeper and find more, collapsing at the finish line in one of the meet's great races.

She grudgingly accepted two silver medals in the high jump (1.55/5-1) and long jump (5.26/17-3), and anchored The USA W35 1600-meter relay team to a bronze medal.

It gave her a total of 34 medals — 22 gold, 9 silver, and 3 bronze — in her six World Championships from 1983 to 1993.

There were many other athletes who performed brilliantly at the World Championships. Just to name a few.

- California's Johnnye Valien won nine medals in the W65 division.
- California's Paul Spangler won seven gold medals as the oldest competitor in the meet at age 94.
- Georgia's Phil Mulkey set an M60 decathlon record and won three other gold medals.
- Oregon's Dan Bulkley won four gold medals in Miyazaki in outstanding times.
- Virginia's Leonore McDaniels won seven medals in Miyazaki, including Phil Rašchker, 46, of Marietta, Ga., won a record 10 medals (7 gold, 2 silver, 1 bronze) in the WAVA World Veterans Championships in Miyazaki, setting a new world W45 pole vault record of 3.14 meters (10'3½").

three gold, in the W65 bracket.

 Nevada's Joe Keshmiri set a world M55 shot put record.

Sorbothane sponsors the Athlete-ofthe-Month Award every other month in NMN. Sorbothane is a lightweight, shock-absorbing, air-infused insole which can be found at most sporting goods stores.

For her efforts, Raschker will receive a check from Sorbothane of $100.

Boston AA Disqualifies Candy Dodge

by MARILYN J. MITCHELL

The Boston Athletic Association announced on October 22 that it had officially disqualified 45-year-old Candy Dodge (Canyon Country, California) who had been the 5th masters woman in the 1993 Boston Marathon, which was run on April 19. BAA Director Guy Morse said, "Our on-course video documentation clearly revealed that Dodge did not complete the entire 26.2-mile marathon distance. The review of Dodge's participation at this year's Boston Marathon was the result of a request from officials of the City of San Francisco Marathon, who on July 23 disqualified Dodge from that marathon (held July 18) due to similar circumstances." Elizabeth Oberli-Schuh (Germany, 3:01:19) was moved into 5th place and all following women in that age division were moved up one place in the final standings.

Another Boston spokesman said that as far as he knew no attempts were being made to recover the prize money from Dodge, but that the disqualification has been brought to the attention of USA Track and Field in Indianapolis. Dodge had been considered an elite runner by the 1993 Boston officials and was, therefore, invited and provided with financial support for expenses.

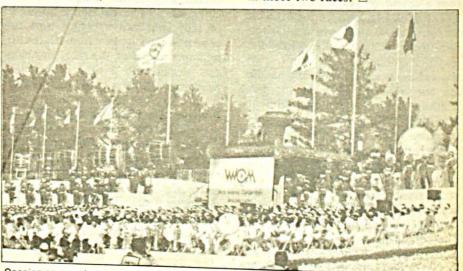

On November 10, Al Boka, Race Director for the Las Vegas International Marathon revealed that he had likewise disqualified Dodge from her Las Vegas finish (10th overall, 2nd masters woman), as she did not show up anywhere in that race's videotapes. He will make no attempt to recover the prize money nor will he re-number the finishing positions of his women finishers, but as far as he is concerned. Dodge is a non-finisher and he will never accept another race entry form from her. In his case, there was a 30-day period following the race before he issued the award check, and there were no protests nor allegations made in his race.

Dodge was diqualified in the 1993 San Francisco Marathon by the event's Games Committee pursuant to a protest filed by the fourth-place competitor, who alleged that Ms. Dodge never passed her. The Games Committee subsequently made a favorable ruling on the protest after reviewing the verbal testimony of runners and officials, checkpoint bib number sheets and race videos. The prize money had not yet been given to her, so the only action taken by the SF marathon officials was to disqualify her and to move each subsequent woman up a position. No further action was being contemplated in early August.

When contacted by San Francisco race director John Mansoor in August, Ms. Dodge issued an official statement, saying in part, "I cannot begin to say how disappointed I am with the events that took place in the aftermath of the 1993 San Francisco Marathon. Since then, a few people have said and written some terrible things about me. This is the first time in my life that anyone has ever questioned my integrity, and it is not a very nice thing to go through. I would like nothing more than to be able to prove everyone wrong right here and now. But at this point in time, there is nothing I can either say or do that is going to change anyone's mind. For that reason, I have decided to accept the decision of the San Francisco Marathon to remove my name from the official race results. There will be no further comment on this issue. I would simply like to get on with my life now."

Las Vegas Race Director Al Boka as are some race directors and officials elsewhere - is somewhat mystified because the elite masters know who their competitors are, and he cannot understand why no one expresses surprise nor lodges protests at the finish of the race when an unknown walks away with the win. As far as the writer of this article can tell, the 1993 San Francisco finish was the first time that Ms. Dodge's finish had been challenged. after a number of top finishes (several with prize money awards) in 1993 marathons, including San Diego (2nd overall, masters title), Los Angeles (7th overall, masters title), Las Vegas (10th overall, 2nd master) and Boston (5th master). She had also been the masters champion in the 1991 San Francisco Marathon and 3rd woman overall (2nd master) in the 1992 San Francisco Marathon, and there were no protests in those two races.

World Veterans Championships

Led by their progressive governor, Suketaka Matsukata, the people of Miyazaki proved that they were more than up to the task of staging such an enormous event — with style and an abundance of grace. They put on a show that many participants called the best World Championships ever.

From the elaborate opening ceremonies to the sentimental closing, athletes were in awe of the tremendous attention to detail displayed by the Japanese and their desire to make everything as perfect as possible.

There seemed to be two or three people for each job. Dozens of volunteers manned the packet pick-up tables, so athletes didn't have to wait. There was one helper to move each hurdle—about 80 volunteers in all, plus supervisors. There were judges everywhere—all courteous, soft-spoken and knowledgeable. Thirty-two officials worked the javelin, alone. Some of the top officials from throughout the country were flown in.

Contrary to the larger Japanese cities, few people in Miyazaki speak English. But interpreters were everywhere — in each hotel lobby, at the stadiums, in downtown information booths. They were essential — a vital part of the meet's success. Some were professionals flown in from Tokyo or Osaka. Most were volunteers who took crash courses in English, Spanish, French, and German earlier this year.

When problems developed, they were handled at once. The shuttle bus from the hotels to the Sports Park, where all the action took place in three stadiums, was free. But when the buses became crowded, the organizers quickly added new buses to handle the load. When the buses from the track to downtown didn't stop at convenient points, the organizers got police permission to make the extra stops.

Many athletes said their fondest memories of Japan will be the experiences they shared when invited to the homes of Miyazaki residents.

"We were complete strangers, but these friendly people invited us for dinner and gave us gifts," said California's John Kelly. "These Games were the best in every respect."

Largest Meet Ever

It was the largest track and field meet ever held. The competition was held in five-year age groups, beginning at age 40 for men and age 35 for women.

The Championships are held every other year under the auspices of the World Association of Veteran Athletes (WAVA). They were staged by the 10th World Veterans Championships Organizing Committee, led by the governor with hundreds of government officials and volunteers from the Miyazaki community.

Flags of 78 nations greeted athletes on their arrival at Miyazaki airport.

To try to make the event as perfect as possible, the Organizing Committee (OC), backed by the full taxing power of the prefectural government, spent a phenomenal US$20 million — about 20 times more than was spent by any of the last three Championships (Turku in 1991; Eugene in 1989; Melbourne in 1987).

Since the revenues totalled less than US$2 million, the event lost about US$18 million.

Why spend so much on a track meet for older athletes?

"We consider it an investment in our future," said Shoichi Chuman, the brilliant Director of Planning for the event.

The Governor and his staff used the Games to address three major Japanese social problems:

1) Aging. The Japanese society, like other Western cultures, is rapidly aging. What should be done about it? This was a chance to focus attention on how older people can stay healthy, if they work at it.

2) Internationalization. The citizens of Miyazaki have previously had little opportunity to meet people from other nations. This was an opportunity to develop an ongoing cultural exchange program.

3) Information. New information and values from other areas of Japan and the world were not getting to Miyazaki fast enough. This was an attempt to help speed up that process.

"The staging of the Championships was not just for the competition," Chuman explained, "but for the exchange of ideas and values between our people and our guests from all over the world. It was our first experience with overseas visitors."

Governor Matsukata said the successful staging of the Games "has built up the confidence of our people to do a successful job of such magnitude. They have learned not to be afraid to take on a big task. We are pleased that people around the world now know how friendly Miyazaki people are."

Cesare Beccalli, WAVA President, congratulated the governor on the enormous success of the Championships, saying: "The people of Miyazaki are lucky to have a governor like you."

194 Heats in 100

The scope of the event was staggering. There were a record 194 heats, semi-finals and finals in the 100-meter dashes, compared to 123 in Eugene, 110 in Turku, and 124 in Melbourne. There were 20 heats in the M40 100. The marathon drew nearly 6000 entrants. Almost 2000 runners finished the cross-country course. Over 1000 ran in the 5000-meter races.

About 2300 of the 12,178 entries were from outside Japan; 313 were from the USA; 19% of the total were women; 728 athletes were over age 70; 169 were over age 80; five were over age 90.

The total number of event entries was an astounding 19,675. After the normal 25% scratches, that left about 15,000 actual event-participants. Amazingly, most of the events went off on schedule, or close to it.

The track and field events, the racewalks, and the finish of the marathon were all staged in Miyazaki Sports Park, a beautiful flowerbedecked park 20 minutes from town and separated from the Pacific Ocean by 1000 meters of pine forest.

Two tracks and one throwing field, including a new, state-of-the-art, 400-meter track, built especially for this event, were in use from morning to sunset, with portable lights brought in on the first few event-crowded days.

Festive Atmosphere

With almost all the activity within the confines of the Park, a wondrous, festive atmosphere prevailed. It was a joy to walk back and forth between the venues, greet friends, buy souvenirs, check the results and message boards; eat in the cafeteria; select photos; get a massage; buy postcards, exchange currency, and watch the action. A swimming pool and tennis courts were open to all visitors.

Each competitor's packet contained a superb, free, 252-page official program with entrants listed alphabetically by age group and numerically by event. Also enclosed were a comprehensive 36-page competitor's booklet and a detailed 96-page guide book, containing the shuttle-bus schedules and tourist information.

Communication was not always easy, but was smoothed somewhat by daily managers' meetings with WAVA and the OC. The national managers would then convey the latest information to their country's participants. USA manager Sandy Pashkin held a 9:45 a.m. daily meeting in the grandstand.

The press and TV coverage was plentiful. The 400 and 1500 finals were nationally televised, live. The local newspaper printed daily results with an English summary, the first time English had ever appeared on its pages.

An international salon was held each evening in the Plaza Hotel. Visitors experienced many aspects of Japanese culture, and could sign up to exchange letters with Miyazaki citizens.

One official was assigned just to keep tabs on new world records and to work closely with Pete Mundle, WAVA's Records Chairman.

"Mr. Okada was wonderful," Mundle said after the meet. "He processed all the forms perfectly, so we'll be able to ratify every world record that was set."

That was good news, since many pending world marks from Rome (1985) and Turku (1991) have still not been approved because organizers never followed through on the paper-

One of the minor complaints was a lack of drinking water on the grounds. And the Japanese don't put towels in bathrooms, feeling it's not clean. One is expected to use one's handkerchief to dry the hands.

There was no charge for spectators. Hundreds of school children attended on the first few days.

Some complained about the announcing; it was in Japanese, of course, with some English translations. Each competitor in a final was introduced to the crowd, but there was little commentary on the races and no mention of the background of any competitor.

Award presentations were made in the grandstand with no drum roll or fanfare, so as not to interfere with the action on the field.

The most disturbing aspect of the Championships was the serious charge that some athletes were using performance-enhancing drugs. Because of the enormous expense and other complications in performing drug tests, the WAVA Council reversed its position and decided not to do drug testing. But the quiet accusations diminished the enjoyment of the meet and led Council members to resolve to try to find a way to implement drug testing in the future.

showers came true. A massive typhoon fortunately bypassed Miyazaki, but its tail still brought driving wind and rain on the first two days, Thursday and Friday, when the decathlon/hep-tathlon and 10,000 finals were held. Rain delays caused decathletes to compete under portable lights until 10 p.m. on Thursday. The weather brightened at midday on Friday and was perfect until the last few relays on the final day with temperatures in the mid-70s, Fahrenheit (low-20s, Celsius).

A handful of athletes, including New York's Cassandra Clark, whose entry forms had not been received, attempted to enter the meet, but were turned down after a two-hour meeting of OC management. The OC was divided, but finally voted to adhere to the rules and not allow any late entries, regardless of the reason.

"We feared if we let one person in late, we'd have to do it for everyone, and it would cause many problems,' they said.

Clark was devastated. Athletes had been advised in the entry form to contact Miyazaki if they didn't receive entry confirmation. But a few forgot to do so and, unfortunately, had to watch the meet from the sidelines.

Despite the rain, a tree-planting ceremony was held at the new stadium on Friday morning. Matsukata and Beccalli unveiled a commemorative statue, and a representative from each he man at the desk bowed. "Hi-gi-du-san?" he asked, examining the slip I had just handed him.

I bowed and corrected him: "Higdon-san."

He bowed and went to retrieve my race packet. Returning, he bowed again:

"Here is your number, Hi-gi-du-san."

I thanked him, bowing more deeply.
I had been practicing the bow since seeing Sean Connery in "The Rising Sun." A slight head tilt works greeting others. Dipping from the shoulders is useful in thanking someone for a service rendered. I hadn't mastered the full bow, offered on special occasions, but my stay in Japan would last only a week.

I had come to Miyazaki, Japan for the Tenth World Veterans Championships. "Veterans" is what they call "masters" overseas. The World Vets is a track and field meet for men over 40, women over 35, held biennially in different cities.

Of the ten championships, which began in 1975, I have run all but one. The meet for masters has been held successively in Canada, Sweden, Germany, New Zealand, Puerto Rico, Australia, Italy, U.S.A. (Eugene, Oregon), and Finland. The 1995 Championships will be held in Buffalo, New York.

Sometimes I medal, sometimes not. In Finland, I had taken gold in the steeplechase. In Miyazaki, chances seemed slimmer. There were 12,163 entered in all events, three times more than previous championships. Half of us were running the marathon.

Other commitments forced me to fly to Japan only a few days before I raced. Leaving Tuesday morning, I arrived Wednesday evening, having "lost" a day crossing the international time line. I slept fitfully that night. It was the middle of the day back home. With no races Thursday, I attended a meeting of the World Association of Veteran Athletics, then headed to my room around 5:00 for an hour's nap before going out to dinner.

I awoke after midnight!

That killed my carbo-loading schedule, but I recovered at breakfast, focusing on fruit, juice and rolls plus the eggs and sausage that were part of the hotel's regular fare.

Hopping a shuttle bus, I headed to Miyazaki Sports Park, Friday, to obtain my race packet. In the U.S., most athletic facilities are connected to schools or colleges. For example: Notre Dame University with its multiple arenas and sports fields, of which the football stadium is but one part.

In other countries, facilities often are built by the government. Miyazaki Sports Park probably equalled in size the entire Notre Dame campus and had four tracks, one specially built for the World Vets at a cost of $300,000. Multiple tracks are a necessity for a meet with every Olympic event, but complicated by the dozens of age groups.

I watched part of the meet Saturday. Sunday, I jogged to the marathon starting line and joined the pack awaiting the gun. Most were Japanese, wearing identical yellow uniforms trimmed in red with a rising sun insignia.

Lost in a sea of yellow, I thought, "This can't be Kansas."

The course looped around downtown, then along the Pacific Ocean before finishing at the Sports Park. Spectators lined the streets, waving flags and shouting "Gomba-Re!" and "Haiko!" which I interpreted to mean, run faster.

Alas for that. I ran well for half the distance despite high humidity and a hot sun. Water seemed scarce. I had difficulty breathing. I decided to quit near my hotel, but somehow made it past that point and finished.

I was handed a card identifying my overall place as 936, a long drop from first two years before, but it is good that the proud be humbled. Later, I traded my red-white-and-blue singlet to a Japanese runner for his yellow singlet featuring the rising sun. His wife took a photo. I bowed.

It was a long flight home with two more years before the World Vets shuffle off to Buffalo. Would 12,000 appear for that event, including a marathon finishing at Niagara Falls? Whatever the answer, Hi-gi-du-san will be there.

of the six WAVA regions planted a tree. The ceremony was amply covered by the media and appeared on TV and in the newspaper.

U.S. Olympians Frank Shorter and Evelyn Ashford were featured participants. Shorter placed second to Belgium's outstanding Omer Van Noten in the M45 10,000 and cross-country, while Ashford easily won the W35 200 on Sunday.

"This is the only meet I've ever been to where the top officials are as concerned about their own competition as they are about the meet," Shorter noted.

Ashford said: "I don't know much about the vets, but I'd like to learn more."

For the first time in memory, there were no problems with lap-counting in Continued on page 17 the 10,000. There was one lap counter for every one or two runners in all the distance races and walks.

On Friday evening, many athletes went to a special three-hour flame-lighting ceremony at Heiwadai Park, obseving a colorful display of kimonos and traditional Japanese Noh theater.

An early problem came when athletes were asked to confirm (declare) their partipation in an event by signing a sheet at the "Roll Call 1 Station" between 90-60 minutes prior to the event. Many athletes felt that was inadequate to allow for proper warm-up, and the OC later obligingly switched the check-in time to 120/60 minutes.

Thirty minutes prior to the event, athletes checked in at "Roll Call 2 Station" where they were assigned lanes, given hip numbers, and formally ushered into the stadium by a volunteer carrying a large sign displaying their age division. It was all quite impressive.

Day 3

The competition got under way early with the javelin and long jump finals. The advancement from heats to semifinals went well in most cases, but some problems arose which caused WAVA officials to resolve to spell out advancement procedures in detail with future organizers.

For example, in the 800, the M40s, M50s and M60s had eight runners in lanes in each heat, with 24 advancing to three semi-finals on Sunday and eight to the final on Monday. Perfect. But the M45s and M55s, with about the same number of entrants, had four 15-runner heats with no semis and only the first two advancing to the final. It made for brutal heats, with a bruising first turn and the chance that bad racing luck would eliminate a potential medalist.

"Overall, everything was well done, but athletically, the meet was not as good as Eugene," said England's Wilf Morgan.

Saturday afternoon, an estimated 18,000 people watched or participated in the most elaborate opening ceremony of any World Veterans Championships. It featured a 600-member women's choir, a Usutaiko Dance performed by 500 school children, marching by 200 high school students, a 100-member brass band, thousands of balloons, and a parade by nations of most of the participating athletes. Each nation's athletes were preceded by a banner and flag of their country.

Giving national visibility to the event was the appearance of the Prince and Princess of Japan. The ceremony was televised live, nationally, with dozens of photographers and press reporters on hand.

Day 4

Sunday was "All-Sports Day," a national holiday in Japan and something for other countries to consider adopting. The three venues were in use from early morning until 7 p.m. with heats in the sprints, and finals in the shot,

Miyazaki Was A "Trip"

Some of the wives who accompanied their husbands to the World Championships in Miyazaki enjoyed the experience of Miyazaki's newest luxury hotel, the Kanko.

To try and describe this towering marble masterpiece of open airy design is not easy. The masterful huge lobby dominated the area where a delicious "western" buffet held court. Here everyone "hung out" and gaped at the ceilings that seemed to stretch up hundreds of feet to the encircling balconies. Warm intricate paisley, floral, and striped fabrics warmed the icy marble floors. It was one of the most inviting lobbies I've ever seen.

The wonder of Japanese technology was everywhere, no expense having been spared. Plumbing was barely a whisper when flushed. The tubs were wide and deep, and the bidet was temperature controlled. It was the first time I ever sat on a "warmed" toilet seat. What a trip.

The Sports Complex to which we were all bused every day was huge. Three tracks dominated. Communication and all facilities were top-notch. All volunteers and officials got free box lunches.

But the things that counted the most were the people of Miyazaki. They turned out to be the friendliest, most accommodating — often going miles out of their way when you asked for directions. They allowed you to take endless photos of their beautiful babies and toddlers, the most enchanting in the world.

Parents do not hit their children in Japan. They are gently admonished, instead. The parents must be doing something right, because it works. The children travel everywhere with the parents; no "babysitters."

Theirs is a culture of dignity and graciousness. I was completely captivated by their many kindnesses.

The weather was hot and sultry, just like South Florida, as I soon found out, when doing some judging on the track. This had to be the largest venue I'd ever seen. Tents housed food displays for sampling, toys, woodwork, and entertainment. I, for one, appreciated the total good organization of these people.

One of the more delightful experiences, and somewhat laugh-provoking, was our attempt to learn Origami, the ancient paper folding art. Easy for them (toddlers are weaned on Origami). We were all thumbs. The "grandmothers" all sat in stalls, legs tucked under, as they cut and snipped away, making the most beautiful bookmark souvenirs for us all to take home, free.

We made only one short side trip to a seaside area. Here you could see the largest domed complex in the world, where an "artificial environment" had been created under temperature controlled conditions. For US$12, you could take your bathing suit, and enjoy a day at the "beach."

To sum it all up, I took away happy memories of a truly unique society. Some aspects of the Japanese culture could well be copied by us. Space forbids my writing the volumes more that I could. Suffice it to say, it was well worth the jet lag I'm still suffering.

short hurdles, men's high jump, and women's 200, 800 and pole vault.

Meanwhile, cross-country runners were bused to the city of Saito, a 45-minute ride northwest of Miyazaki. The course and the races were "outstanding," according to many competitors.

A two-day holiday festival was held on Sunday and Monday evenings in Tachibana Park, on the bank of the Oyodo River and close to most of the hotels. Athletes mingled with local residents amid a plethora of food, bands, performers, and fireworks. The festival is normally held each summer, but was postponed to All-Sports Day to coincide with the Championships.

"It was a wonderful experience being exposed to Japanese culture," said California's John Cosgrove.

Day 5

Action was again non-stop on Monday with finals in the men's 200, 800 and pole vault, women's high jump, discus, 5000, and road walks.

"The road walks had mid-80-degree weather, 50% humidity, and tight turns at each end of the course," said Bev LaVeck, USA Masters Racewalk Chairman. "Although medal winners appeared to be legal, the judging was very lax. In the track walk, the judging was much improved."

When schedule quirks forced fieldevent athletes to compete in two events at the same time, volunteers would run from one event to the other to inform the athlete of the status of the other event and when their turn was coming.

Day 6

Tuesday was an off-day for competition. Some athletes attended the WAVA Regional Meetings in the morning and the Stadia and Non-Stadia Committee Meetings in the afternoon. Others went to a sports symposium at Miyazaki University, featuring Frank Shorter and simultaneous translation in English and Japanese.

Still others went sightseeing to the "Segaia," an Ocean Dome/amusement center featured in Time, Newsweek, and other magazines when it opened earlier this year. It's a self-enclosed indoor beach, complete with surf and waves.

Others toured the city, sampling the food and marveling at the civility of the Japanese. There are small bumps in the sidewalks to guide blind persons. There are also beepers at each major intersection to announce when the light has turned green. Bike paths are everywhere. People get around on bicycles and mopeds more than in cars. The streets are completely safe; there is practically no crime, and the people are honest.

"I never saw a cop anywhere," said Newton.

The term "sticker-shock" was raised to a new level in Miyazaki as astonished visitors shelled out US$5.00 for a cup of coffee in the hotels, and spent between $75 and $200 per night for their hotel rooms. However, prices for fruit, pastry and meats at small grocery stores and bakeries were tolerable. A can of Coca-Cola sold for a reasonable US$1.05 anywhere in Japan.

That evening, about 200 women gathered at the headquarters Kanko Hotel for the biennial Women's Meeting.

Day 7

On Wednesday, the first of the 194 heats in the 100 began, while finals were held in the long hurdles, steeplechase, triple jump and hammer throw — all in perfect sunny weather with mild temperatures.

Some athletes and their families joined in a tea ceremony and listened to the music of the "koto" and other traditional Japanese instruments in the Japanese Garden in the Sports Park.

best ever that we'll see in our lifetime," said Phil Mulkey of Marietta, Ga. "They've spent a fortune on equipment. I counted $10,000 in new javelins lined up against the wall."

Day 8

Thursday was another noncompetition day, as WAVA's General Assembly meeting was held all day at the Kanko Hotel (see separate story).

Some who skipped the meeting toured the Miyazaki Prefectural Museum, the Saitobaru Museum, the Aoshima Botanical Gardens, the Miyazaki Science Center, the Miyazaki Municipal Museum, the Saito Folklore Museum, or took a day-trip on the train to nearby cities.

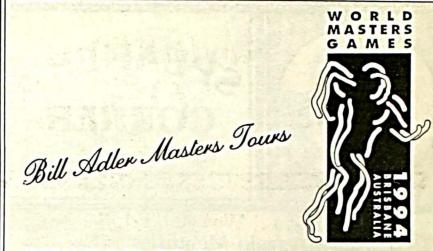

Day 9

Heats in the 400 and 1500, and finals in the 100 filled Friday's agenda. That evening, a Kusunamiki Street Festival was held in downtown Miyazaki with stage shows, a chorus and terrace cafe.

Day 10

The meet was winding down, but Saturday produced exciting action with the finals of the 400, 1500, 5000 racewalk and weight pentathlon, an "unofficial" event this year which will be official in 1995.

The farewell party was held Saturday night, and could have been better. It was crowded. The food ran out early, but was quickly replenished by the ever-alert Japanese. The music was Continued on page 21

e'll carry with us for a long time some very special memories of our trip to Miyazaki, Japan, for the World Masters Championships:

- Visiting the most civilized society we have ever seen.
- The inflexibility of the Japanese bureaucracy — everything has to be done by procedure, and decisions are by committee.
- Under USA constitutional law, that which is not specifically prohibited is allowed. In Japan, that which is not specifically allowed is prohibited.
- The inscrutable nature of the Japanese written language.
- The shortage of water and trash baskets. The Japanese don't drink much and don't trash much.
 - The lack of graffiti.
- The high-tech electronic Japanese society, coupled with pre-historic brooms.
- The Japanese police force, like the Maytag repairman, has nothing to do. No guns, no batons, no handcuffs. No crime.
- The showering of gifts by the Japanese.
- Osaka Airport funnelling ten million passengers through a single entry portal — world record bottleneck.
- Bow, bow, bow. And then bow once more.
 - Not a cat to be seen, and few dogs.
- Shoe-box-size restaurants, stores, and houses.
- Everywhere you go, take your shoes off before you go in, even in the laundromat.
- The high cost of everything.
- The high incidence of osteoporosis old people bent over.

loud, but many enjoyed the dancing.

Tickets had sold for US$30, but no one collected tickets at the door and many athletes who didn't pay got in

The Japanese were so nice, they were reluctant to say no to anyone, whether it was refusing admission to the farewell party or disqualifying athletes in the racewalks or steeplechase.

Or perhaps they couldn't imagine how anyone without a ticket would attempt to crash the party.

"We've never bought a ticket to any World Games farewell party," said one chicken-munching couple, "but we've always gotten in, anyway."

At the party, more than 20 athletes were honored by the organizers with plaques for participating in all 10 Championships.

Day 11

The marathon began downtown at 9 a.m. on Sunday, wound its way through the city and continued on a flat road along the ocean. With a phenomenal 6000 runners, there were some congestion problems on the course and a lack of results at the finish, one of the few problem areas of the Championships.

The relays went off without a snag until rain came with three races to go. The elements shortened the planned 90-minute closing ceremonies to 30-minutes, but no one seemed to mind. Athletes swarmed on the field, anyway, exchanging pins, T-shirts, and addresses.

"I think these Games were the best ever," beamed Florida's Dick Lacey.

There were many moving personal stories in the Championships - some inspirational, some unfortunate. Among them:

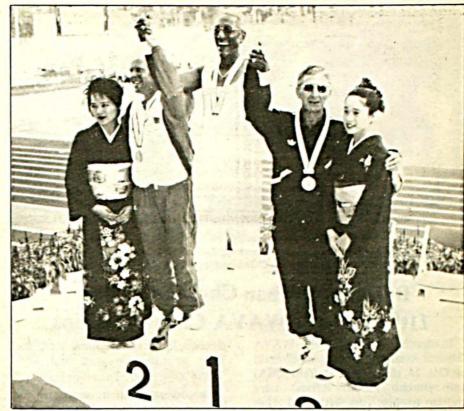

• England's Keith Whittaker, 61, a near-certain medalist in the 300-meter hurdles, was told by his doctor three days before the meet not to compete because of an enlarged heart muscle. Incredibly, Whittaker had done "too much" intensive training and his heart muscle had become too large for his heart; it was clogging his breathing and circulation apparatus. The President of the British Veterans made the trip anyway, but only as a spectator.

"They say I should be okay after about a year's rest," Whittaker said.

• Canada's Liz McBlain, 45, was on her way to the Edmonton airport to join the Canadian team on the flight to Miyazaki when she developed pains in her side and was rushed to the hospital for an appendectomy. Amazingly, she felt well enough five days later to fly to Miyazaki. Even more remarkably, she found the strength and courage to compete in two relays and the weight pentathlon on the closing days, winning the meet's "blood-and-guts"

· California's Marion Sanchez, 61, a surefire gold-medalist in the 300 hurdles and possible medalist in five other events, pulled a hamstring muscle in a 200-meter heat after winning a silver medal in the 100-meter hurdles and racing to a near-world record Award ceremonies for the M65 200: Jim Law (USA, 1st, 26.05); Allan Meddings (GBR, 2nd, 26.39); Xavier Anton-Bofill (Spain, 3rd, 26.84).

44.24 in a 300-meter hurdle heat. He gallantly attempted the 300H final, but couldn't make it over the first barrier. Undaunted, he was a guest speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Miyazaki Rotary Club.

Sally Young, 40, a 1991 W35 gold medalist from England, had to withdraw from competition when a car ran over her foot on opening day.

· Mexico's Antonio Villanueva, one of the most impressive performers in Turku in 1991, didn't show up because he had donated a life-saving kidney to his son. He reportedly is finished with competitive running.

Post-Meet Tours Following the Championships, many athletes went on post-meet tours. Some went to China, some to Hong Kong. Others toured Japan on the 150-mph Shinkansen "bullet" trains, visiting the Hiroshima Peace Park, the Kyoto shrines and temples, the Japanese Alps, and the bigger cities of Tokyo, Osaka and Nagoya. Many flew directly home to be at work the following day.

WAVA Secretary Torsten Carlius of Sweden records the votes in the dramatic runoff between Durban (South Africa) and Malmo (Sweden) at the meeting of the WAVA General Assembly in Miyazaki for the right to host the 1997 World Veterans Championships. Durban pulled ahead to win, 64-47.

Buffalo, Durban Chosen to Host 11th and 12th WAVA Championships

In dramatic voting at the WAVA General Assembly meeting in Miyazaki on Oct. 14, the cities of Buffalo (USA) and Durban (South Africa) were chosen to host the 11th and 12th WAVA World Veterans Athletics Championships in 1995 and 1997, respectively.

Buffalo, Durban, and Malmo (Sweden) first vied to stage the 1995 event. After 30-minute presentations by each, Buffalo received a majority of 58 votes on the first ballot to 39 for Malmo and 15 for Durban.

Two other cities — Concepcion (Chile) and Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) — joined Malmo and Durban in the bidding to host the 1997 Games.

On the first ballot, Malmo got 38 votes, Kuala Lumpur 32, Durban 26, and Concepcion 17. Since no one received a majority, the city with the fewest votes was eliminated.

The second ballot saw Durban pick up most of Concepcion's votes, with a total of 42. Malmo gained two to 40, while Kuala Lumpur dropped to 30 and was eliminated.

In the final showdown between Malmo and Durban, the counting of the votes went back and forth before Durban pulled away to win, 64-47.

The biennial non-stadia Championships, held in even-numbered years, were awarded without opposition to Toronto (1994) and Brugge, Belgium (1996).

Buffalo, which had won out over four other U.S. cities in an intense campaign to be the USA representative, waged a strong campaign in Miyazaki with about 10 city officials and sports people working hard for votes throughout the week. They set up shop at the Sports Park, gave a good pitch at each Regional Meeting, and sponsored an elaborate buffet for delegates the night before the vote. Overall, they spent $100,000 on their successful effort.

Durban didn't spend that much, but its athletes set up a booth at the park and handed out brochures throughout the meet.

Malmo, the early favorite with much to offer, kept a low profile. Its twoperson delegation had no presence at the Sports Park and didn't make a presentation at the Regional Meetings. They basically shrugged and said: "Here's our offer. Take it or leave it."

The delegates left it, and opted for Buffalo. Many felt it was too soon to go back to Scandinavia, since Finland hosted the Games in 1991. Most felt South Africa is still in turmoil and might be too dangerous in 1995.

Buffalo promised a high-quality Championships at low prices. It has 3000 dorms at the University of Buffalo, where the 6000-athlete University Games were held in 1993, at $34 a night for a single with three meals. There are motels across the street from the venues. Luxury hotels are a low $50 to $90 per night.

Two quality tracks — a new 8-lane and a secondary 6-lane — are within walking distance of an athletes' village. A third track is available. The marathon will use the famed Skylon Marathon course, host to the 1984 U.S. Olympic Trials.

The main track has lights, shade and a scoreboard. Free shuttle bus service will be provided. The racewalk course will be in nearby Niagara Falls.

"The Buffalo community will be very involved," said Barbara Kousky, USA Masters Track and Field Chairman.

A press release issued by Buffalo after the vote said: "Erie County has been awarded the World Veterans Games for 1995. The county, which went into the bidding as an underdog, beat out Sweden and South Africa for the designation. The games were held in Eugene, Oregon in 1989 and turned a profit of $80,000. The Veterans Games are expected to attract some 10,000 older track and field athletes and guests and have an economic impact of $25 million. The Games will be held in the summer of '95 in the new U.B. Stadium."

Kuala Lumpur waged a strong campaign to host the 1997 event, offering financial support from the government, a proposed new stadium (not to be completed until 1996, however), a new airport, and reasonable hotel rates.

But the WAVA Championships have never been to an African country. And despite the inner turmoil today in South Africa, delegates hoped the internal problems would be solved in four years. Durban offered ideal weather, government support, free shuttle buses, moderate hotel prices

($62/$105), low dormitory costs ($15/$29 w/meals), $800 RT air fare from New York or London, two adjacent first-rate tracks, and a chance to see some of the most beautiful scenery in the world. □

Eugene Wins 1996 North American Bid

At a meeting of WAVA's North American Region in Miyazaki, Oct. 12, Eugene, Oregon was chosen, 16-3, over Puerto Rico, to host the 1996 WAVA North American Track and Field Championships.

Held in even-numbered years, the 1994 event will take place in Edmonton, Canada, four days after the WAVA World Veterans Road Racing Championships in Toronto, and four days before the USA National Masters T&F Championships in Eugene.

Tour packages are being arranged to enable athletes to compete in all three major events in that 16-day time span.

As WAVA President Cesare Beccalli looks on, Governor Suketaka Matsukata tells athletes at the closing ceremonies: "By bringing people together from all over the world, WAVA is a force for world peace. We hope you never forget Miyazaki and we look forward to seeing you again in the future."

The information table at the Kanko Hotel was usually crowded with athletes seeking information. The women on the left are interpreters.

Rain failed to dampen the dedication of the 10th WAVA World Veterans Championships Commemorative Stone, in the third stadium, Oct. 8.

Delegates confer before voting on a constitutional amendment at the WAVA General Assembly meeting in Miyazaki, Oct. 14.

Becalli Re-Elected WAVA President

At an eight-hour session of the WAVA General Assembly in Miyazaki on Oct. 14, Italy's Cesare Beccalli was re-elected President by a vote of 63-47 over Owen Flaherty of Great Britain.

England's Bill Taylor was re-elected Stadia Vice-President over Russia's Vadim Marshev, 84-27.

Re-elected with no opposition for another two-year term were Bob Fine, Executive Vice-President; Jacques Serruys, Non-Stadia Vice-President; Torsten Carlius, Secretary; and Al Sheahen, Treasurer.

In open voting on Constitutional amendments, delegates unanimously approved motions to:

Guschmann Elected WAVA Women's Rep

Hannelore Guschmann of Belgium was elected as Women's Representative to the WAVA Council with a majority vote on the first ballot over Marilyn Mitchell of the USA, Barbara Dunsford of Great Britain, and Liz McBlain of Canada.

England's Bridget Cushen, the former Women's Rep, stood down after serving the maximum five two-year terms.

1) Require a two-thirds majority to amend the constitution;

2) Prohibit a suspended athlete from serving as a delegate;

3) Permit voting substitutes for Regional delegates;

4) Require that each delegate of an affiliate must be a member of that affiliate:

5) Change the Council quorum from five to two-thirds of its members;

6) Establish the weight pentathlon as an official event, beginning in 1995.

In a heated debate, delegates eventually voted to stage a men's 30K and women's 20K Racewalk Championship in conjunction with the even-year Non-Stadia Championships. The current odd-year 5000 track walk and 20K (men)/10K (women) road walk champpionships will remain a part of the Stadia Championships.

The Council withdrew its proposal to stage a World Veterans Cross-Country Championships in conjunction with the IAAF XC Championships.

Finally, a proposal by the Nordic countries that an athlete's age be determined by year of birth rather than the date of birth was rejected, 32-73.

Detailed minutes of the meeting prepared by the WAVA Secretary will be published in a future issue.

Kudos for staging a successful Championships went to, from left: Shuhei Nishida, Vice-President of the Organizing Committee and 1936 Olympic silver medalist in the pole vault; Hidenori Kawasaki, Executive Director of the meet; and Suketaka Matsukata, Governor of Miyazaki Prefecture, whose vision and dedication inspired his staff and the whole community of Miyazaki.

Three who deserve much of the credit for the successful World Championships. pionships that it's impossible to name them all. Besides, the Japanese way is to do things as a team, not as individuals. After the meet, Governor Matsukata went on television to thank 6000 workers.

But a few extraordinary individuals stand out, including:

- The Governor, himself, whose dedication to the Games inspired his staff and the whole community of Miyazaki;
- Shoichi Chuman, Director of General Affairs and Planning Division;
- Hidenori Kawasaki, Executive Director:
- Shuhei Nishida, Vice-President of the Organizing Committee and 1936 Olympic pole vault silver medalist;
- Kyoshi Kounoike, Chairman of the Nippon Masters Board of Directors, a longtime participant in veterans athletics who fulfilled his dream of bringing the Championships to Japan.
- bringing the Championships to Japan;
 Katsuya Abe, meet director on the field;
- Yutaka Nishida, Event Sections Coordinator;
- Hiromi Kanaya, head of the Athletic Facilities and Transportation Division:
- Mikio Oda, President of the OC and President of the Nippon Masters Athletic Union;
- Yasutake Kuroki, Deputy Executive Director;
- Hisashi Zinjenji, Chairman of the International Committee for the Nippon Masters and M40 sprinter;
- Saeko Matsuo, International Committee Member of the Nippon

Masters;

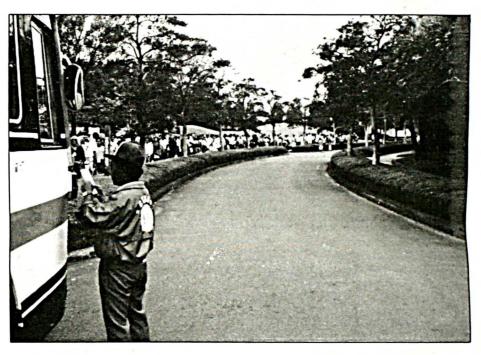

- Mutsonori Kai, Section Chief of the Planning Section;
- Robert Henderson of Great Britain and Vance Harper of the USA, who were working in Japan and were recruited by the OC. Their language and administrative skills were invaluable:
- Yuji Watanabe, General Affairs Staff Member.

Thanks must also go to the hard-working, dedicated 15-member WAVA Council, which worked closely with the OC for over two years, guiding and advising them on hundreds of details.

Many participants were reluctant to say goodbye to Miyazaki. The fun, the joy, the excitement, and the camaraderie of the 11 days had gone by too fast.

Farewell Party at the Kanko Hotel.

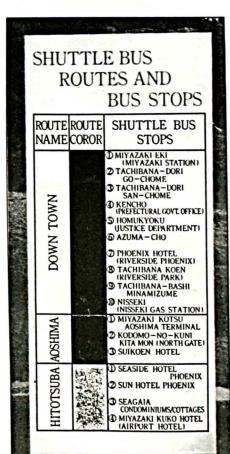

The line to get on the bus got a tad long after the closing ceremonies in Miyazaki.

The World Veterans Championships will now move on to Buffalo and to Durban and to other places. But those who came to Japan in 1993 will never forget Miyazaki. Sayonara.

There were plenty of signs in the Miyazaki Sports Park,

Free shuttle buses took athletes from the Sports Park to the hotels in the three areas of Miyazaki.

A total of 57 world age-group records were set at the 10th WAVA World Veterans Athletics Championships in Miyazaki, Japan, from October 7-17, as the level of performance was again remarkable.

Fifteen marks were set by men; 42 by women. Twenty-two came in track events; 34 in field; and one in racewalking.

German athletes accounted for an amazing 21 records, 18 of them by women. Japan was next with seven, followed by South Africa (4), Australia

(4), Sweden (3), and Great Britain (3). Athletes from the USA set two world marks (Joe Keshmiri in the M55 shot and Phil Raschker in the W45 pole vault).

USA performers picked up 60 individual gold medals, 54 silvers and 38 bronzes — a total of 152 medals, short of the 172 achieved in Turku, the 400 in Eugene, and the 199 in Melbourne.

In addition, USA relay teams garnered nine wins, five seconds and four thirds. USA cross-country teams notched three medals, while USA marathon threesomes took home a silver and bronze. The USA racewalk contingent was awesome, winning nine of the 14 team gold medals, one silver and one bronze. Japan won 14 of the 16 cross-country team titles and all of the marathon team awards.

The top medal winners of the meet were all from the USA. Philippa (Phil) Raschker, 46, of Marietta, Ga., won seven gold and two silver medals in the W45 division — one of the most impressive performances in the history of the World Championships. She added a bronze medal in the relay.

Johnnye Valien of Los Angeles won nine medals — two gold in the relays, three silver, and four bronze, in the W65 division.

Paul Spangler of San Luis Obispo, Calif., the oldest competitor in the meet at age 94, won seven golds unopposed.

Sweden's Britta Tibbling won five gold medals in the W75 division, including a world record in the 5000 racewalk. Japan's Mazumi Morita won Quadruple winners were Germany's Johanna Luther, who set four world W80 marks, Portugal's Francisco Vicente (M60), Great Britain's Josie Waller (W70), New Zealand's Shirley Peterson (W65), Sweden's Asta Larsson (W60), Georgia's Phil Mulkey (M60), Oregon's Dan Bulkley (M75), and Britain's Joselyn Ross (W65).

Triple gold medalists were Virginia's Leonore McDaniels (W65), Canada's Harold Morioka (M50), Britain's Stephen James (M55), Japan's Kunio Hosokawa (M85), South Africa's Mariet Ceronio (W35), Japan's Ritsuko Murayama (W40), New Zealand's Margaret Orman (W50), Germany's Christia Schmalbruch (W55), Britain's Rosemary Chrimes (W60), Germany's Isabel Hofmeyr (W65), Germany's Marianne Hamm (W65), South Africa's Lena Grobler (W70), Germany's Annchen Reile (W75), and Australia's Ruth Frith (W80).

Breaking the meet down by divisions, with an emphasis on USA performers, here's how it looked:

• Brazil's Jose Luiz Zogaib won the 100 (11.29) and 200 (22.60), while Tom Thompson of Texas, who was fourth in the U.S. Nationals, improved to win the 400 (51.47) and took bronze in the 100.

• Portugal's Carlos Cabral suprised defending world 1500 champion Ken Popejoy of Illinois in both the 800 (1:57.25 to 1:57.63) and 1500 (4:00.60 to 4:01.42), with Oregon's Ed Spinney courageously forcing the pace in the latter to just miss (4:01.71)

 Teams from Great Britain won both the 400 and 1600 relays, while Russia claimed the road walk team crown.

M45

• Belgium's Omer Van Noten bested 1972 Olympic marathon gold medalist Frank Shorter of Colorado in the 10,000 (32:12 to 32:44) and 10K cross-country (34:17 to 34:49).

• Australia's Peter Crombie captured the 200 (23.53) and 400 (52.76), while Holland's Ron Mercelina repeated his Turku wins in the 800 (1:59.19) and 1500 (4:04.47).

• Cleveland's Rex Harvey vaulted 4.10 for gold and garnered a silver behind Britain's John Charlton in a rain-blown decathlon. Charlton also won the 400H in 59.12.

 New Jersey's Ken Brinker sped to a 15.83 to take the 110 hurdles with California's Fred Johnston second. Norm Frable bronzed in the 20K road walk. Germany and Australia won the 400 and 1600 relays, respectively, with the USA team of Frable, Ed Kousky, and Gerald Patrick taking the road walk team gold.
 M50

 Canada's Harold Morioka was the star of this division with three wins in the 800 (2:03.42), 400H (61.03), and 400, where he established a new world M50 record of 51.76.

• California's Steve Robbins and South Africa's Stanley Wald exchanged sprint wins. Robbins took the 100, 11.58 to 11.65, while Wald got the 200, 23.52 to 23.75.

 Norway's Gunnar Gaulen impressed in the 1500 (4:16.79) and 5000 (15:56.12).

• Don DeNoon of Illinois finished first overall (1:34:55) in the 20K road walk, but had to fly home before the 5000 track walk.

 Germany's Klaus Liedtke successfully defended his titles in the shot (17.60WR) and discus (53.58).

 Pennsylvania's James Carmines got second in the 5000 walk, while Rich Hotchkiss of California spun to a bronze in the discus.

 Australia captured both relays, and the USA squad of Carmines, DeNoon and Victor Sipes walked to victory.

M55

• Britain's Stephen James was outstanding in winning the 1500 (4:27.53), 5000 (16:28.77), and 10,000 (33:12.19).

• Australia's Reg Austin repeated his Turku triumphs with wins in the 100 (11.78) and 200 (24.04), keeping alive his streak of winning a gold medal in each of the 10 World Championships. A schedule conflict prevented him from defending his 400 title, which opened the door for New York's Larry Colbert, who won in 55.11. Colbert also anchored the winning USA 1600 relay squad, and took thirds in the 100 and 200.

• Nevada's Joe Keshmiri took the shot (15.85WR) and discus (51.38), while California's Al Henry won the 100H gold in 15.78.

• Silver medals went to California's Nick Newton (59, HJ, 1.65/5-5) and New Jersey's Ken Baker (800/2:11.63), while San Diego's Ed Oleata picked off a bronze with a 65.41 in the 400H.

 Germany won the 400 relay, while the USA tandem of Colbert, Oleata, Martyn Adamson, and Cliff Pauling took the 1600 gold. Great Britain captured the team walk. M60

• Ralph Romain of Trinidad and Tobago was perhaps the most impressive performer of the meet, easily gliding through the 200 (25.37) and 400 (54.92) with amazingly graceful long strides. The lanky, 6-4, Washington, D.C. - area resident was asked to reveal his training secrets.

"Good genes," he confided.

• Portugal's Francisco Vicente captured the 5000 (16:56), 10,000 (34:26), crosscountry (37:33), and marathon (2:49:59) in one of the finest long-distance performances of the meet.

• Atlanta's Phil Mulkey won four golds in the high jump (1.56, in an exciting jump-off with Finland's Olavi Niemi), pole vault (3.40), 100H (15.56, where he nosed out California's Marion Sanchez), and decathlon, where he smashed his own world M60 record of 8347 points, demolishing the Championships records of 7591, set by Australia's Rudy Hochreiter in 1989, with an astounding 8546 points. The score was earned in two days of torrential rains brought on by a typhoon hovering just off the coast of Miyazaki.

"The rain seemed to definitely affect the overall scores," Mulkey said. "The silver and bronze that went to good friends of mine, Germany's Helmut Fackler and Australia's James McGrath, went at 6100 and 5700 points, respectively, both way below their expected 7000 plus."

Did the weather bother Mulkey?
"What weather?" he said. "I was really focused."

Perhaps the most remarkable aspect of his decathlon performance was that he won nine of the ten events outright. He also earned a silver in the long jump. Mulkey is a 1960 Olympic decathlete who had the highest score in the world in 1961.

• California's Dave Jackson peaked perfectly to edge Niemi, 11.53 to 11.51, in the triple jump.

 California's Jack Bray narrowly defeated Michigan's Max Green, 25:09.66 to 25:11.58, in the 5000 walk, but Green captured the 20K road walk (1:52:34) with Bray third.

• Jack Shields won the javelin (53.16), while silver medals behind Vicente went to Malcolm Gillis (marathon/3:10:55) and Pennsylvania's Norm Green (10,000/35:43). New England's Len Olson took bronze in the javelin.

 Japan (400) and Germany (1600) won the relays, as the USA threesome of Green, Bray and Bob Fine took home the road walk gold.

M65

• Only New Jersey's Bob Mimm (5000RW/28:24, 20KRW/2:02:20), and Japan's Yoshimitsu Miyauchi (5000/18:38, 10,000/38:43) could capture two wins in this competitive division.

Britain's Alan Meddings (100/12.71),
 North Carolina's Jim Law (200/26.05), and Germany's Wilhelm Selzer (400/59.08) divided the sprints, with Law getting the silver in the 100 and 200.

- Michigan's Chuck Sochor won the 300H (48.79) and took third in the 400, while Mel Larsen of Illinois won gold with a 5.12/16-9½ long jump and annexed the 100 bronze.
- California's Al Brenda took home gold with a 2.80 pole vault and garnered a silver in the decathlon.
- The USA foursomes won both relays, with Sochor, Law, and Bill Daprano teaming with Larsen in the 400 and Gordon Seifert in the 1600.
- Mimm, Giulio de Petra, and Bill Moreman won the team RW award for the USA.

M70

- Australia's colorful Bernie Hogan was undefeated in world veterans competition before the meet and was leading down the stretch in the 200. But when South Africa's Lucas Nel went by with 30 meters to go, all Hogan could do was turn and gape in openmouthed astonishment as Nel won, 28.04 to 28.48. Hogan got a measure of revenge later in the meet, winning the 100 in 13.45. Nel went on to win the 400 in 64.16, and barely lost the 800 to Australia's Gordon McKeown (2:36.57 to 2:36.68). McKeown also won the 1500 in 5:23.99.
- South Africa's Albertus Van Zyl won both hurdles, besting California's Walter Dahlin in each with a 15.02 (80H) and WR 51.38. (300H). Dahlin also took a silver in the high jump.
- Italy's Carlo Bomba took both walks, while Japan's Juji Tanaka won the long (4.80) and triple (9.56) jumps.
- Australia's legendary John Gilmour successfully defended his cross-country (44:52) title and also won the 10,000 (42:03).
- California's Don Cotner took silver in the 5000 walk, Texan Tim Murphy got second in the 100, California's Melvin Lees won silver in the 20K walk and bronze in the 5K walk, California's Ray Spencer took third in the 300H, and Minnesota's Paul Geyer took third in the 20K walk.
- The USA swept the relays with Spencer, Dahlin, Murphy, and Bob Hunt in the 400; and Dahlin, Hunt, Archie Messenger, and Jay Sponseller in the 1600.
- Geyer, Lees and Troy Grove won the team walk gold for the USA.

M75

• Oregon's Dan Bulkley was sensational as he won the 800 (2:47.61), 1500 (6:05.99),

- 300H (56.78), and 2000SC (9:44.19), and took second in the 80H.
- Double gold medalists included Japan's Izo Sato in the 5000 (22:03) and 10,000 (44:24), Finland's Esko Kolhonen in the HJ (1.35) and TJ (8.53), Australia's Roy Foley in the DT (33.96) and HT (37.98), and Germany's Walter Rennschuh in the 100 (13.99) and 200 (29.77).
- Ohio's Bill Weinacht dead-heated with Rennschuh to share the gold in the 100 and barely lost the 200 to the German (29.82).
- California's Jim Vernon won the pole vault (2.50/8-2½) for the 10th consecutive time in the World Championships. He joined Reg Austin as the only two athletes to win gold medals in each Championships.
- Florida's Jay Sponseller took the 400 (70.93), while Germany (400) and Japan (1600) split the relays.

M80

Japan's Mazumi Morita, one of the world's top veteran competitors for years, won five gold medals on his home turf: all the jumps and the 80H, including WRs in the LJ (4.12) and TJ (8.95).

• Switzerland's Lucien Aellen won the 5000 (24:44) and 10,000 (52:29), the USA's Giuilo de Petra captured both walks (35:58/2:29:00), and Italy's Mario Riboni won the DT (32.18) and HT (26.66).

 North Carolina's Bob Boal took silver in the 300H and steeple. Pennsylvania's Claude Hills got second in the HJ, and Texas' Fred White gained bronze in the 400.

• The USA 400 relay squad took second to Japan, while the 1600 foursome of Boal, White, Virgil McIntyre, and Bert Morrow won gold as the only team.

M85

- Japanese competitors were strong in this division. Kunio Hosakawa won three jumps. Masami Okazaki took the DT and HT, and Takeji Morimoto won the 800 and 1500.
- Australia's Richard Gathercole won the 100 (17.28) and 200 (35.99WR). Italy's

Lamberto Ciccioni lassoed the shot (7.24) and discus (24.00).

M90

 California's Paul Spangler was the meet's oldest participant at age 94. He entered and finished seven events unopposed, and was treated like a celebrity by the Miyazaki people and press.

W35

• South Africa's Mariet Ceronio won the 10,000 (37:10), 2000SC (7:45) and X-C (39:15). Double winners included Britain's Allison Brown in the 400 (57.12) and 400H (64.83), Estonia's Maret Kalviste in the PV

(2.80WR) and JT (50.30), South Africa's Koba Bellingan in the 800 (2:17.11) and 1500 (4:39.04), and Brazil's Conceicao Geremias in the LJ (5.85) and TJ (12.40WR).

• Evelyn Ashford won the 200, California's Kim Rupert got bronze in the steeple, and Kathy Finch of Wisconsin took silver and bronze in the racewalks. After Ashford's race, athletes flocked around her asking for autographs and thanking her for competing and helping the meet gain recognition.

• Japan (400) and Great Britain (1600) divided the relays, while New Zealand interrupted Japan's cross-country domination.

 The USA team of Finch, Lorrie Leiker, and Bev LaVeck (cleverly dropping down from W55) won the road walk team crown.

• Houston's Carol McLatchie, the USA 1992 W40 road runner of the year and the leading prize-money winner ($16,000) among women masters road runners this year, took to the track and handily won the 1500 (4:38.73) and 5000 (17:13.49).

"I really love competing on the track," McLatchie said. "I would have been in Provo (at the USA Nationals), but I was in Stuttgart at the (open) World Championships. There's money to be made on the roads, but it's a real thrill to compete in the World Championships."

In the M50 800 final, Elfas Mhkomole of South Africa is flanked by two Australians: Keith Wheeler (left) and Neil MacDonald.

• Japan's Ritsuko Murayama won the 100 (12.36), 200 (25.90), and pole vault (2.20); Japan's Akiko Ohinata annexed the LJ (5.44) and TJ (12.00) by wide margins; Australia's Christine Schultz took home golds in the SP (13.61) and DT (44.32), and Australia's Heather McDonald won both walks (5K/25:03; 10K/51:38).

• France's Annie Bellanger set a new world W40 record with a 42.02 hammer throw.

 Japan won the 400 relay, while Australia took the 1600 relay and road walk titles.

W45

• Phil Raschker was phenomenal and won the Sorbothane Masters Athlete-of-the-Month award (see page 12). The W45 400 was one of the meet's great races, with Raschker coming from third place with 100 to go to finish in 60.04, edging Australia's Marge Allison (60.29) and Canada's Avril Douglas (60.46) in the photo. All three times were more than two seconds faster than the winning W40 400 time.

• The world 800 record was broken by the first two finishers, Australia's Judy Bandiera (2:17.06) and Douglas (2:18.75). Bandiera also won the 1500 over defending champion Pat Gallagher of Great Britain, 4:52.81 to 4:54.28. "I thought I could run 2:16," a disappointed Douglas said after the race. "I was closing on her (Bandiera), but I should have moved sooner."

• Austria's Alena Plischke set a WR 1.58 high jump to beat out Raschker by one inch, and Japan's Kumiko Nischi took the long jump at 5.36.

• Britain's Elaine Statham captured the 10,000 (38:33) and XC (41:32), while Allison, at age 49, repeated in the 400H (66.73).

• Denmark's Inge Faldager improved on her Turku victory with a WR 44.56 HT.

• France's Jacqueline Bonnet gave Colorado's Viisha Sedlak her first losses in world competition, dethroning the three-time 5K and 10K walk champion in 25:27 and 54:12, respectively. "I've been out of training due to a frantic work schedule this year," Sedlak said, "but I was happy to come and compete, anyway, because participation is what this is all about."

• Another USA medalist was New York's Lorraine Tucker, who took home a bronze in the 100.

• Germany won the 400 relay, with Canada's quartet of Douglas, Liz McBlain, Pam Duncan, and Anne Rosenitsch collecting honors in the 1600 relay. The USA threesome of Sedlak, Jolene Steigerwalt, and Kathy Frable absorbed the road walk

W5

• The Germans dominated this division as Erika Springmann leaped to a WR 10.08 TJ, and added wins in the HJ (1.45) and heptathlon (5554 points).

• Germany's Martha Behrendt upset defending champion and countrywoman Brunhilde Hoffman, 54, in the 100 (13.21) and 200 (27.86), but Hoffman repeated her Turku victory in the 400 (64.59).

 Germany's Waltraud Seiler triumphed in the 5K (26:07) and 10K (54:47) walks, and the Germans won both relays.

• New Zealand's Margaret Orman broke through with impressive wins in the 800 (2:28.97), 1500 (5:13.26), and 2000SC (7:46.90).

• Linda Upton of Massachusetts was the only USA medalist in this tough bracket with a bronze in the 800 (2:33.84) and a silver — only three seconds behind Orman in 5:16.25 — in the 1500.

• The Australians won the RW team award, and South Africa's Petra Pietersen broke Madeline Bost's world standard with a 2.44 (8-0) pole vault.

W55

• Germany's Christia Schmalbruch set three WRs in the HJ (1.38), LJ (4.80), and TJ (9.82).

• Seattle's Bev LaVeck won the 5K (28:51) and 10K (58:37) walks by wide margins.

• Holland's Corrie Roovers repeated her Turku wins in the 80H (14.22) and 300H (54.58), while Sweden's Elsa Soderstrom won the 1500 (5:40.59) and 5000 (21:18).

• New Zealand's Judy Chandler notched the 800 (2:43.49) with Arizona's Katie McIntyre second (2:56.24). McIntyre also claimed bronze in the 1500 as she improved over her performances in the U.S. Nationals.

• Carolyn Cappetta of Massachusetts successfully defended her 400 crown with a strong 66.35, three seconds ahead of Chandler.

• California's Christel Miller took home bronze in the JT (31.36/102-11) and heptathlon (4274 points).

• Britain's Una Gore took both sprints from Australia's Wendy Ey (13.65/13.80 and 28.84/29.04).

• Another British double winner was Evaun Williams in the SP (12.34) and HT (43.88WR).

• Ireland's Dorothy McLennan established a new WR with a 2.00 (6-7) pole vault.

 Germany won the 400 relay with the USA squad of Miller, McIntyre, Liz Szawlowski, and Marti Thielman taking the 1600.

W60

• Britain's Rosemary Chrimes tripled in the HJ (1.25) SP (12.20) and DT (37.56), the latter two WRs.

Sweden's Asta Larssen streaked to victory in the 80H (14.78WR), 300H (58.59), heptathlon (5638), and 200 (32.34).

• Canada's Jean Horne won three in the 800 (2:51.27WR), 1500 (5:45.86), and 5000 (21:47).

• Germany's Jutta Schaefer set a HT WR (40.43).

• Japan's Mazaki Shimasaki dominated the long distance events: 10,000 (42:52), XC (49:21), and marathon (3:54:52), while Canada's June Provost walked off with the 5K (29:46) and 10K (1:00:53) RWs.

• North Carolina's Lucy Anne Brobst, recovering from cancer, courageously won the pole vault in 1.52. Australia (400) and Norway (1600) took the relays, with Germany on top in the road walk.

W6

• Five women swept 17 of the 23 gold medals in this group:

• Virginia's Leonore McDaniels won seven medals, including three gold in the HJ (1.20), PV (1.56), and heptathlon (4196).

• New Zealand's Shirley Peterson set two WRs in the 100 (14.98) and TJ (9.03), and added the 200 (32.31) and LJ (3.97).

 South Africa's Isabel Hofmeyr set two WRs in the 80H (18.33) and 300H (65.67), and added the 400 (79.77).

• Britain's Joselyn Ross swept the 1500 (6:07.13), 5000 (22:13), 10,000 (46:48), and XC (49:25)

• Germany's Marianne Hamm repeated her Turku triumph in the SP (9.46), and added golds in the DT (28.46) and JT (27.32).

• The USA showed great depth in this group. Miriam Gordon won the 10K walk (1:05:28) and placed third in the 5KW; California's Johnnye Valien picked off three silver and four bronze medals; Pat Nesley got second in both walks; Ohio's Bernice Holland claimed the silver behind Hamm in the DT and JT, and won the unofficial weight pentathlon; Sumi Onodera-Leonard got third in the 800; and Sue Barnes got the bronze in the 100.

• The USA teams won both relays, with Valien, Barnes, Onodera-Leonard, and Shirley Dietderich in the 400, and Valien, Houston's Carol McLatchie, USA's W40 1992 road runner of the year and the leading female masters prize money winner in 1993, won the W40 1500 (4:38.73) and 5000 (17:13.49) in Miyazaki. "I love running on the track," she said.

Gordon, Onodera-Leonard, and Diane Friedman in the 1600.

• The team of Dawn Russell, Annie Barker, and Elizabeth Baker was the only USA XC team to win, and the RW team won gold with Gordon, Nesley and Joann Beers.

W70

• Germany's awesome duo of Pauline Schneiderhan and Anna Mangler are always threats to break world records when they change age groups, and this year was no exception. Schneiderhan broke two of Polly Clarke's 12-year-old marks in the 100 (15.42) and 200 (33.26 in a heat).

 Mangler won the 800 in 3:26.00, and the two faced off in the 400. Into the stretch, Schneiderhan had a narrow lead, but when she put the hammer down, her hamstring gave out and Mangler coasted to an easy win in 79.14, lowering Clarke's record by 10 seconds. Earlier, Schneiderhan also won the LJ (3.58WR).

• Britain's Josie Waller lived up to her press clippings with a quadruple in the 1500 (6:40.65), 5000 (24:22.05), 10,000 (49:36), and marathon (4:09:36).

• South Africa's Lena Grobler threw the shot to a WR 8.44/27-8¹/₄, and also captured the DT (22.94) and HT (24.98), while teammate Sheila Campbell set a TJ WR (6.85)

• The USA's Ruth Van Zandt won both walks (35:50/1:16:15), edging New York's Queenie Thompson by 1:50 in the former, and by only one second in the latter. Needless to say, the USA team of Van Zandt, Thompson and Althea Jureidini won the RW title.

Missing in Miyazaki

Perhaps the only disappointment of the 10th WAVA World Veterans Athletics Championships in Miyazaki was that so many top athletes were unable to make the trip.

The high prices in Japan, plus the time of year, held USA entrants to 313, a 34% drop from the 474 that went to Turku in 1991. Other countries showed similar declines.

Some performances in the USA National Masters T&F Championships bettered the winning marks in Miyazaki:

• Bill Collins won the USA M40 100 in 10.96, but didn't go to Miyazaki, where the winning M40 time was 11.29.

• Stan Whitley won the M45 200 in 22.59, but didn't go to Japan, where the winning M45 time was 23.53.

• Jim Mathis took the M55 400 in 54.60, but stayed home while 55.31 won in Miyazaki.

• Jim Gillcrist won the M65 high jump in 1.62 (5-31/2), but couldn't make the trip, and the winning jump was 1.55.

Other potential medalists missing in Japan included: Danielle Desmier, Deby Sweezey, Del Pickarts, Anna Wlodarczyk, Stan Druckrey, Janet Wilson, Fred Sowerby, Nolan Smith, Byron Dyce, Ralph Miller, Diane Palmason, Joe King, Charlie Rader, Greg Miguel, Patricia McNab, and Jim York. All won gold medals in the U.S. Nationals.

Former World Games medalists missing included: Manuel Vera, Milan Tiff, Jack Greenwood, Marti Vainio, Viktor Semenov, Eddie Hart, James King, John Buckley, Ron Robertson, Nelson Gomes da Silva, Alan Bradford, Herman Strauss, Jim Sutton, Luciano Aquarone, Horst Mandl, Ahti Pajunen, John Poppell, Hugo Schegel, Rune Bergman, Gudman Skriverik, Jim Lytjen, Warren Utes, Boo Morcom, Fritz Assmy, Ross Carter, Edeltraud Pohl, Marion Irvine, Betty Vosburgh, and Buell Crane.

Some of those may or may not have been in shape, but safe to say the World Veterans Championships falls a bit short of being a true Championships since so many quality athletes can't afford either the time or the money to make the trip.

Wouldn't it be nice to have an international sponsor to pick up the tab for deserving athletes around the world?

W75

Sweden's versatile Britta Tibbling was the star of this bracket, winning five gold medals and setting a new WR in the 5000 walk (32:44.76). She also won the 400 (95.45), 800 (3:42.86), 1500 (7:30.76), and 10K walk (1:07:46).

• Germany's Annchen Reile repeated her Turku wins in the DT (21.22WR) and HT (17.72), and added the JT (15.10). She also won the weight pentathlon, an unofficial event this year which will be official in Oklahoma's Betty Jarvis took seconds to Reile in the DT and JT, while Mary Haines took silver in the 1500.

W80

• Germany again proved its older women athletes are a notch above the rest of the world. Moving up to the W80 group, world record-holders Johanna Gelbrich and Johanna Luther added to their reputations. Gelbrich won five gold medals with two WRs; Luther ran to four WRs. Gelbrich began with an 18.41WR 100, lowering Polly Clarke's 1992 mark of 19.32. Her 41.22 just missed Clarke's 41.11WR. Gelbrich then set a JT WR (19.86) and won the SP (6.83) and DT (15.90).

• Luther set WRs in the 800 (3:54.81), 1500 (7:32.22), 5000 (28:32.67), and 10,000 (58:40.03).

 Australia's Ruth Frith, 84, successfully defended her titles in the LJ (2.26WR) and HT (18.32).

• The USA's Mildred Smith took second in the 5K walk.

W85

• Japan's Matsue Nishiyama, the oldest female entrant in the meet set two WRs unopposed in the 800 (5:14.43) and 5000 (37:02.30). □

Ralph Romain of Trinidad & Tobago was one of the most impressive performers in Miyazaki, breezing to wins in the M60 200 (25.37) and 400 (an amazing 54.92).

• S. Rae Baymiller, 50, of the Central Park TC, was first female overall in the NYC Marathon Tune-Up 25K, Central Park, Oct. 10, with a 12-cylinder 1:38:10, which smashed Margaret Miller's W50-54 U.S. record 1:45:14 in 1980 by seven minutes. Alan Oman, 43, cranked out an M40+ first in 1:28:30. Sam Skinner, 51, won the M50 race, pulling away in 1:34:09.

• Ric Banning, Alexandria, VA, with a 52:27, and Linda Banning, Alexandria, in 65:18 were first masters in the Army 10 Miler, Washington, DC, Oct. 17. Tom Bernard, Arlington, VA, won the M45 race from a tough, large field with a 55:43.

 Wilson Waigwa (44, 14:40), Kenya/El Paso, TX, and Francie Larrieu-Smith (41, 16:56), of Texas, each collected $1000 for masters wins in the Harvard Health Downtown 5K, Providence, RI, Oct. 17.

Barbara Anderson, 41, was first W40+ and 11th of 597 finishers, with a 1:29:33, NYRRC Women's Half-Marathon, Central Park, Oct. 17, with Pam Cook, 44, second (1:36:19). Erika Abraham, 55, won the W55 contest in 1:39:37. In a later 5K at the site, Hugh Sweeney, 49, edged Vincent Shaw, 40, for the M40+ title by one second with a 17:08, NYRRC Coed 5K. John McManus, 70, won the M70 in 21:23. Diane Ditchfield, 40, matriculated the course in 19:26 for the W40+ win. Arlene Kernis, 67, took W65 class honors with a 31:48.

• Larry Torella (44, 34:10) and Sue McDonald (42, 43:40) elected to win 40+ honors in the NYRRC Roosevelt Island 10K, Oct. 24. Salih Talib (48, 34:40) was second M40+. Thelma Wilson (61, 52:54) won the W60 race.

• Barbara Filutze, 47, Erie, PA, logged a 40+ win by 11 seconds over Rebecca Stockdale, 42, Chaplin, CT, with a 36:02 in the Tufts 10K For Women, Boston, Oct. 11. Zofia Turosz, Hartford, CT, won the W50-59 contest in 42:36

 Robert McNaught, M45, Boston, MA, was second overall in 2:42:37, Eriesistible Marathon, Erie, PA, Sept. 19. Patricia Hoffman, W40, won masters honors with a W40-44 course-record 3:32:59.

 The first three males overall in the Great Pumpkin Jubilee 10K, La Plata, MD, Oct. 24, were masters Bob Weiner, 46, 37:14, Bob Oberti, 46, 37:33, and Jim Stein, 42. The first five females were over 30, led by Winn Rincon, 33, 40:54.

• Barbara Stewart, 51, of NY, was inducted into the Cornell U. Hall of Fame, Ithaca, NY, Oct. 15. She was recognized for her undergraduate performance as goalie for the undefeated women's field hockey team (four years), #1 tennis player, and, more recently, her over 50 national championships in masters t&f. Dick Schaap, ABC and ESPN sports commentator and class of 55, made the presentation.

SOUTHEAST

• Eric Hedges, 48, Columbia, MO, was left off the list of the top walkers in the USATF National Masters 5K Championships, Kingsport, TN, Sept. 18. He should have been credited with a fifth-place 30:01 in the M45 division.

• The Herb Anderson Memorial Weight Pentathlon will be held 8 a.m. at Atlantic High School in Delray Beach, FL, Dec. 27. "The meet is named in remembrance of Anderson, who set six world age-group records on this field in the first International Weight Pentathlon ever held," reports meet director Phil Partridge.

MIDWEST

First masters hitting the tape in excellent times at the Columbus Marathon, Oct. 24, were Allen Choma (2:27:30) of Columbus and Ruta Kunevicius (3:11:36) of Solon, OH.

 USATF officials are asking for a remeasurement of the 10K course used for the Cleveland Revco Marathon and 10K. The request was made after Bill Rodgers, 45, ran 30:50 for 10K last May.

SOUTH WEST

The Louisiana Senior Games, Baton Rouge,
 Oct. 22-23, drew 285 t&f athletes, who listed 47 meet records. John Day, M85, won five gold medals. Dan Mestayer, M80, won eight events, three with meet records. Perennial LSG winner Elizabeth Norckauer, W65, took eight events.

 On Oct. 24, a very successful 2nd Citibank Auckland International Marathon kicked off the summer running season in New Zealand. Top masters honors went to Gary Small (2:38:53) and Colleen Stephens (3:05:12).

• Art Meaney, 49, was top master and 5th overall in the Fat Cat 6K in St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada, Oct. 10, with a 20:48.

• South Africa's great Anne McKenzie, 68, has been recuperating from severe injuries suffered after being hit by a car while on a routine cycling training run with her husband. Her right arm and shoulder were so badly injured that she has had to undergo several lengthy reconstructive surgeries. She has been able to begin walking slowly, but her right arm will have to remain strapped to her body for several months while it heals.

Anne had begun cycling originally to help strengthen an injured knee which had prevented her from competing in track. She is still the W50 800 WR holder (2:23.1). Since taking up cycling she has become one of South Africa's top masters cyclists. She had also been competing recently in the discus and shot put and had set several new records. Her doctors are predicting she will never be able to resume her athletic career. We hope she proves them wrong.

Track and Field

Action heads indoors in the East but stays outdoors in the Southeast and West, with weight pentathlons in South Carolina on the 4th and Florida on the 27th, a decathlon in California, 11th-12th, and a throws meet at Stanford on the 18th.

Long Distance Running

Lots of movement on the 5th with marathons in Memphis, Dallas, and Sacramento. The masters-friendly Rocket City Marathon blasts off in Huntsville, Ala., on the 11th. The Fiesta Bowl 10K in Phoenix, and the Honolulu Marathon should lure heat-seeking runners on the 12th. The 27th annual Las Vegas Half-Marathon & Relay is the main attraction on the 18th. A skein of New Year's Eve races closes out the year.

Racewalking

The slate includes the USATF-South Carolina 10K Championships, two Gran Prix 5Ks in NYC, and racewalks held along with many of the LDR events.
