Judicature Act 1908

Procedures Adopted by the Court of Appeal of New Zealand / Te Kōti Pira O Aotearoa

Pursuant to sections 58C(1) and 58E(1) of the Judicature Act 1908 ("the Act"), those Judges of the Court of Appeal of New Zealand / Te Kōti Pira o Aotearoa ("the Court") holding office under section 57(2) of the Act ("permanent Judges"), have adopted the following procedures. These procedures replace those adopted on 7 October 2011 and notified in the New Zealand Gazette, 13 October 2011, No. 155, page 4446.

1. Assignment of Judges to Divisions of the Court

1.1 The assignment of High Court Judges to divisions of the Court will be:

- (a) consistent with their eligibility through nomination by the Chief Justice in terms of sections 58A and 58B of the Act; and
- (b) with the concurrence of the Chief Justice and the Chief High Court Judge pursuant to section 58C(3) of the Act.

1.2 The Court will prepare periodically a forward planning programme covering the anticipated sittings of the divisions.

1.3 The programme will provide, in the main, for:

- (a) divisions of three permanent Judges (a division so comprised being referred to in this notice as a "Permanent Court"); and
- (b) divisions of one permanent Judge and two High Court Judges (a division so comprised being referred to in this notice as a "Divisional Court").

Exceptions will be necessary to allow for Full Courts, inability of a particular Judge to deal with a particular appeal, illness, leave or otherwise as the exigencies of the situation require.

1.4 In the main, criminal appeals will be allocated to a Divisional Court unless the President otherwise directs. This recognises the insights which Judges with current trial experience bring to criminal appeals. The Judge making the decision under section 392A of the Crimes Act 1961 or section 327 or section 329 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 may recommend that the appeal be allocated either to a Permanent Court or a Full Court. As well, counsel for the appellant or respondent may request a direction that a particular appeal be allocated to a Permanent Court or a Full Court.

1.5 In the main, longer civil appeals, civil appeals that raise legal issues of public significance and interlocutory applications will be allocated to a Permanent Court and appeals from decisions of Associate Judges and shorter civil appeals that raise mainly factual issues will be allocated to a Divisional Court unless, in either case, the President otherwise directs. Interlocutory applications mean applications for leave to appeal, applications for extension of time and similar applications. Other civil appeals will be allocated either to a Permanent Court or a Divisional Court, as a matter of efficient scheduling. Counsel for the appellant or respondent may request a direction that a particular appeal be allocated to a Divisional Court, a Permanent Court or a Full Court.

1.6 Assignment of permanent Judges and/or eligible High Court Judges to panels for particular appeals will be by the President who, where appropriate, will consult with other permanent Judges.

1.7 In assigning panels for particular appeals and in deciding whether particular appeals should be allocated to a Permanent Court or a Divisional Court, the President may take into account the following considerations:

- (a) The forward planning programme and the availability of Judges.
- (b) The equitable sharing of work among the Judges;
- (c) The efficient dispatch of the Court's business.
- (d) The desirability of dealing with an appeal promptly in any case of urgency (eg an appeal by an appellant serving a short sentence or an appeal against a pretrial ruling in a criminal case).
- (e) Considerations of expense and convenience for counsel and parties, where a decision is required to be made whether an appeal be heard in Auckland, Wellington, or Christchurch.
- (f) The role of all the permanent Judges in the clarification and development of all areas of the law and recognition of specific areas of judicial expertise.
- (g) That it may be desirable for related litigation (appeals arising out of the same facts between the same or some of the same parties) to be dealt with by the same or some of the same Judges.

2. Appeals of Sufficient Significance for a Full Court

2.1 The President will determine whether an appeal is of sufficient significance to warrant the consideration of a Full Court. The President will, where appropriate, consult with other permanent Judges. In the main, an appeal will be allocated to a Full Court only where:

- (a) the establishment or revision of sentencing guidelines is proposed; or
- (b) the appeal involves issues of evidence, procedure or practice of general application or some other issue which will be of major significance to other cases, particularly where there is no right to apply to the Supreme Court for leave to appeal against the Court's decision.

2.2 In determining whether an appeal should be allocated to a Full Court, the President may take into account the following considerations:

- (a) The forward planning programme and availability of Judges.
- (b) The efficient dispatch of the Court's business.

2.3 That one or more of the parties seeks the reconsideration of an earlier judgment of the Court is not, in itself, a reason for allocating the appeal to a Full Court.

2.4 A decision that an appeal be allocated to a Full Court may be reviewed by the President from time to time (for instance for reasons associated with the availability of Judges) and the President may direct that an appeal which has been allocated to a Full Court be reallocated to a Permanent Court or a Divisional Court.

2.5 The permanent Judges will consult regularly to review the criteria, their implementation and the general effect of the allocation to a Full Court on the overall workload of the Court.

2.6 In addition to the above, and as required by section 58D(4)(b) and (c) of the Act, a Full Court will consider references from a Permanent Court or a Divisional Court made pursuant to section 58(6) of the Act and appeals under section 10 of the Court Martial Appeals Act 1953.

References in this notice to “the President” include a Judge acting as President or a Judge nominated by the President to undertake any of the functions of the President referred to in this notice. References to “appeals” include interlocutory applications and references to “appellants” include applicants. Dated at Wellington this 28th day of March 2014.

2. Grantee's obligations

2.1 The grantee will use its reasonable efforts to cause as little interference as practical to the grantor, any crops or livestock and any farming activities on the land. The grantee shall, at its expense in all things, make good and reinstate the land as and when same shall require reinstatement to ensure that the land is left in as nearly as possible the same condition as it was at the time of the commencement of the grantee's rights hereunder. In particular, but without limitation, when exercising its rights under this easement, the grantee shall ensure that it leaves all gates as it finds them and reinstates all fences which are taken down so that the grantee does not negatively affect the stock proofing of the land.

2.2 Where any disturbance, damage or loss is incurred or suffered by:

(a) the grantor; or

(b) any occupier of the land undertaking, with the grantee's knowledge and in compliance with the terms of this easement, normal farming operations on the land, in particular sharemilking or forestry during any entry onto the land by the grantee to construct, repair, maintain, modify, replace, renew or remove the works or any part of the works, which is not remedied by the grantee under clause 2.1, including for example but without limitation, a business loss in respect of a business located on the land, the grantee shall compensate the grantor or the occupier, as the case may be, for such disturbance, damage or loss.

2.3 The grantee will bear the costs of managing vegetation on the easement area (excluding pasture land) including removing trees and other vegetation but will not be responsible for the cost of controlling weeds or removing any vegetation which is planted by the grantor in breach of this easement.

2.4 The grantee will bear the whole cost of maintaining the works apart from any works which the grantor and grantee have agreed are to become the property of the grantor, and any additional costs resulting from the grantor's breach of this easement for which the grantee can recover the costs under this easement.

2.5 The grantee will provide to the grantor copies of the grantee's plans indicating the proposed access routes over the land used by the grantee in accessing the works.

2.6 The grantee has no obligation to construct the works or to convey electrical energy and power or telecommunications through them, after construction, continuously or at all, provided that this clause 2.6 shall not derogate from any obligation of the grantee to surrender the easement if the easement is no longer required for a public work under the Public Works Act 1981.

2.7 In the event that the grantee clears the easement area and/or any other part of the land or opens up the soil of same as contemplated by clauses 1.1.7 and/or 1.1.8 hereof, the resulting material shall be removed by the grantee from the land and deposited off-site at the expense in all things of the grantee unless the grantor and the grantee shall otherwise agree.

3. Grantor's rights

3.1 Subject to the restrictions set out in this easement, the grantor may use, occupy and enjoy that part of the surface of the easement area which is not occupied by the works for normal farming operations including cropping and horticulture to a maximum height of 2.5 metres and grazing.

4. Grantor's obligations

4.1 The grantor must not, without the prior written consent of the grantee (which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), do, procure, assist or allow the following to be done:

4.1.1 Alter or disturb the present grades and contours of the surface of the easement area except in the course of normal farming and grazing operations (but subject to the restrictions set out in this easement);

4.1.2 erect any building or other structure (including fences) on the easement area;

4.1.3 plant any vegetation on the easement area (excluding pasture, crops and horticulture to a maximum height of 2.5 metres);

4.1.4 operate any equipment or vehicles on the easement area within a minimum clearance distance of four metres from any electricity transmission line conductor;

4.1.5 excavate or deposit material on the easement area;

4.1.6 impede the grantee's access over the easement area and any access routes over the land or damage the surface of the access routes;

4.1.7 knowingly cause or permit flooding of the easement area except where such flooding occurs naturally and is beyond the control of the grantor;

4.1.8 light any fires or burn off vegetation within the easement area;

4.1.9 do any other thing on the land which may cause damage to the works or endanger the continuity or safety of the supply and distribution of electricity or otherwise impede, interfere with or prejudice any right of the grantee set out in clause 1.1.

5. Access

5.1 Where the grantee, together with or through its engineers, consultants, employees, contractors, workmen and anyone else authorised by the grantee, intends to enter upon the land to exercise and give effect to the rights of the grantee as listed in clauses

1.1.1 through 1.1.9 of this easement, the grantee must give at least 10 working days' notice ("entry notice") to the grantor except in an emergency situation, when prior notice is not required and the provisions of clause 5.6 of this easement apply.

5.2 An entry notice is to identify the works the grantee intends to carry out with the entry notice to specify:

- 5.2.1 the location of the proposed entry;
- 5.2.2 the area on which the works will be undertaken by the grantee;
- 5.2.3 the nature of the works to be undertaken;
- 5.2.4 the date and time of initial entry;
- 5.2.5 the length of time that the grantee expects to be on the land; and
- 5.2.6 the nature of all other works that are to be undertaken on the land in accordance with the rights granted pursuant to clause 1.1.

5.3 Upon receipt of an entry notice from the grantee of its intention to exercise the right of entry provided for in clause 5.1, the grantor may set reasonable conditions relating to the timing of entry and the access route but those conditions may not:

- 5.3.1 delay the exercise of entry by the grantee by more than 15 working days; or
- 5.3.2 require monetary or other consideration; or
- 5.3.3 otherwise defeat the ability of the grantee to exercise effectively the rights granted under this easement.

5.4 Any dispute between the grantor and the grantee in relation to the terms of the entry notice or of the conditions set by the grantor pursuant to this clause shall constitute a dispute which is to be resolved using the dispute resolution procedure set out in clause 8 of this easement.

5.5 The grantee, in entering the land, will take all reasonable steps to minimise inconvenience to the grantor, including (but without limitation):

- 5.5.1 the time of entry (unless this is not possible due to an emergency situation);
- 5.5.2 leaving gates as they are found;
- 5.5.3 driving in a safe manner and taking reasonable steps not to disturb stock; and
- 5.5.4 avoiding access through any specific areas within the land which have been identified by the grantor to the grantee unless necessary to access the works, but without limiting the rights of the grantor to claim under clause 2.2 of this easement.

5.6 Where entry is effected by the grantee due to an emergency situation, the grantee shall as soon thereafter as is reasonable give an entry notice to the grantor such entry notice to be in terms of clause 5.2 of this easement.

6. Ownership

6.1 The works and vehicles or any other property of the grantee will not, for any reason, become the property of the grantor and will at all times remain the property of the grantee, except in relation to any works which the grantee and the grantor agree are to become the property of the grantor.

6.2 The grantee may transfer, assign, sublet, lease or licence all, but not part, of its rights created by this easement provided that the assignee, sublessee, transferee, lessee or licensee is financially solvent and has the financial resources to meet the grantee's commitments under this easement.

7. No power to terminate

7.1 There is no power in this easement for the grantor to terminate any of the grantee's rights due to the grantee breaching any term of this easement or for any other reason.

Notice of Intention to Take Land for Park— 129 Clark Road, Hobsonville

Notice is hereby given that the Auckland Council, under the provisions of section 23 of the Public Works Act 1981, proposes to take the land described in the Schedule to this notice (“land”).

The land is required for park as a result of the taking of part of Hobsonville Domain for motorway by NZ Transport Agency. It is intended to use the land for sports fields.

The reasons why the Auckland Council considers it essential to take the land are that there is an identified shortage of sports fields in the Hobsonville area and with continued development in Hobsonville, the land is required to meet future demand for sports fields.

More particularly, the land is required as an addition to adjoining Auckland Council owned land held for that purpose.
