

Meet the Captain!

Captain Lieb serves as the Commander of the Franconia Police District, overseeing nearly 51 square miles that encompass Springfield, Annandale and Lorton. He oversees a staff of nearly 140 sworn officers and 30 professional staff and volunteers.

After growing up in Pittsburgh, Captain Lieb attended Duquesne University, graduating with a degree in Criminology. He joined the FCPD in October, 2003.

Captain Lieb worked as a patrol officer in both the McLean and Sully Districts. He was also a detective in the Organized Crime and Intelligence Bureau, where he earned certification through the Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists (ACAMS) - an internationally recognized credential in the fields of detecting and preventing money laundering, terrorist financing, and other financial crimes.

As a supervisor, Captain Lieb oversaw several different patrol squads, including a Selective Enforcement team that worked to resolve complex traffic issues and enhance the safety of pedestrians and motorists in Tysons Corner, VA., and other high-volume traffic areas.

Captain Lieb also spent time as both a 2LT and 1LT in the Public Affairs Bureau, where he communicated with the media & authored both internal and external written information releases. Just prior to his current assignment, Captain Lieb served as the Assistant Commander of the Sully Police District.

Captain Lieb is an active member of our Crisis Negotiations Team, trained to assist during mental health crises, barricade situations and other critical incidents.

In his spare time, 2nd Lt. Lieb loves spending time with his wife and two kids, a seven-year-old and a three-year-old. He's also a diehard Pittsburgh sports fan – especially the Penguins! ✓
