Twins, 14, for leading roles

LONDON, Sat: Identical twins Yolande and Charmian Larthe, play the leading roles in "Twice Upon a Time".

It's about sisters, separated by divorced parents, who meet at a holiday camp in Austria and decide to change places. Sadler's Wells ballet dancer Violette Elvin makes her film debut in this production.

blacked-out trains of those war days.

An alert eye has been kept on backgrounds. Old posters, for example, have been posted over contemporary advertisements on the walls of the station.

THE success of "Where No Vultures Fly" has led to plans for a sequel. Harry Watt is writing the script and producer Sir Michael Balcon hopes to engage Dinah Sheridan and Anthony Steel, stars of "No Vultures," for the new picture.

SCENES along the banks of the Ganges delight the eye in "The River," directed by Jean Renoir, says critic Joan Littlefield.

The story is slight—the summer idyll of three adolescent girls, two of them recently arrived in India, and their reactions to a young American—but the acting is first class and the color photography unforgettable.

GHOST trains have been running on the underground line at London's Holborn Station for scenes in "The Gentle Gunman." Late at night, after the last passenger trains have drawn out, time moves back to 1940. Ealing's art department faced the task of reproducing in detail the outward appearance of a station and ERROL Flynn will star in a Warner Bros. production, "The Sea Rogue," to be made in Britain this year. It's based on Robert Louis Stevenson's "The Master of Ballantrae."

WHEN Jack Warner wore a Slav-style fur hat in "Valley of Eagles" he was frequently told he looked like Marshal Tito.

Now, in the "Ways and Means" episode of Noel Coward's "Meet Me Tonight," he wears a simply cut tunic as a chauffeur at a South of France villa. And he's told his resemblance to the Yugoslav leader is even more striking in the semi-military coat.

Chaplin film

Charles Chaplin's drama "Monsieur Verdoux" will be shown at the Melba Theatre, Dulwich, on Monday and Tuesday.

On Wednesday, "Monsieur Vincent," with Pierre Fresnay as Vincent de Paul, will be shown at the Seaview, Gleneig, and it will go to the Melba on Thursday and Friday.

LEADING players in the British comedy "The Young Wives Tale" include (from left): Guy Middleton, Audrey Hepburn, Nigel Patrick, and Joan Greenwood.

"Metropolis"

The German film "Metropolis" will be screened at the WEA Film Club on Monday night. It was directed by Fritz Lang in 1925.

Wilding signs U.S. contract

HOLLYWOOD, Fri.: Britain's Michael Wilding, recently married to Elizabeth Taylor, has signed a contract with MGM.

Elizabeth is set to begin "The Girl Who Had Everything" soon and hopes it will be made in England. Wilding isn't due to report to Hollywood until December.

RICHARD Greene and Peter Lawford have the top roles in "Rogue's March," a drama of the North-West Frontier.

IT'S 27 years since Paramount made "Pony Express" and it proved one of the studio's best box office attractions. Stars were Ricardo Cortez, Betty Compson, Ernest Torrence, and Wallace Beery.

A new "Pony Express" with an original story on the same subject, is now to be made. Stars will be Charlton Heston, Wendell Corey, Rhonda Fleming, and Jan Sterling. Heston, fresh from success as the circus manager in "The Greatest Show on Earth," is cast as Buffalo Bill Cody. Corey plays Wild Bill Hickock.

"THE Librarian," in which Mary Pickford stars for Stanley Kramer, is a strong attack on communism.

MARJORIE Reynolds has been granted an uncontested divorce from Jack Reynolds, studio production executive.

JOHN Derek has one of Republic's top roles of the year with his choice to star in "Citizen Soldier," a story of the National Guard.

ALASKA will have its first premiere soon with the screening of "The World in His Arms," starring Gregory Peck and Ann Blyth.

MICHAEL Curtiz celebrated the twenty-fourth anniversary of his first Hollywood picture as he directed his seventy-eighth—"The Story of Will Rogers." His first film was "Tenderloin," starring Dolores Costello.

MEL Ferrer has a spectacular ballet number with Leslie Caron in "Lili." Ferrer, it's not generally known, made his New York stage bow as a dancer in a Cole Porter show.

SCOTT Brady's performance in "The Model and the Marriage Broker" has earned him a seven-year contract with 20th Century-Fox.

PRODUCER Bryan Foy and actress Ann Blyth were announced as winners of the annual awards of the Catholic Film and Radio Guild. Foy is the first producer selected in the 11 years since the awards were begun.

They are given to artists of Irish descent who have shown consistent loyalty to the ideals of the Irish people.

ROBERT Keith, jun., has been signed to a contract by Paramount. He won praise for his work on stage in "Mr. Roberts," in which his father was also a player.

VIRGINIA Mayo has the role of a Creole belle in "The Iron Mistress," co-starring Alan Ladd.

Brought distress
to Henry Davey,

No sooner had his meal descended Than Henry's tummy felt distended; Burning pains in countless legions Began to grip his middle regions. He stood it 'til one fateful night A chemist friend observed his plight And said, "Get wise to indigestion, Rennies fix it—there's no question. Sucked like sweets, they trickle down, Off goes heart-burn, fret and frown!"

Now, Henry's keen with knife and fork— Says, "Thanks to Rennies, I'll have pork!"

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel — And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go.

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile juice into your digestive tract every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the digestive tract. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those mild, gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package to-day. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills at any chemist or store right away.
