

American Weigh Scales, Inc.

American Weigh Scales, Inc. develops, manufactures and sells weighing scales and accessories throughout the world. American Weigh is an active member of eBay's VeRO Program, which was developed to protect intellectual property rights owners. The VeRO Program enables us to keep products that infringe on our trademarks and patents from being sold on eBay.

Why was my auction terminated?

- The product you were selling is an illegal copy of one of our patented scale designs.
- Your auction used American Weigh Scales, Inc. owned trademarks to promote a scale made by a different manufacturer.

To protect our products image and brand loyalty, AWS will continuously monitor eBay and report any auctions infringing on our intellectual property rights to eBay for termination.
