

As a member of the ebay Vero programme, we will request ebay to remove any listing which violates copyright and our Trademark and our intellectual rights.

Help in identifying authentic Carleon's products is provided by contacting us at: copyright@carleon.org

INTELLECTUAL RIGHTS

As a company we enforce our intellectual rights on all our products, after all piracy affects us all and threatens our livelihood and the production of new products for our customers.

We view Piracy of our work as a crime and any breach of copyright by an ebay member or third party will be reported to ebay immediately.

Reselling Carleon Products on eBay If you are a seller whose listing has been removed, your listing has most likely been terminated by eBay because of action taken by Carleon. Common reasons why your listing may have been terminated include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Trademark Infringement - the item offered for sale may be an unauthentic product which infringes Carleon's intellectual property rights or the content of the listing contains unauthorized use of Carleon's protected trademarks.

2. Copyright Infringement - the listing may contain Carleon's copyrighted text, images, or other materials or the item offered for sale may be hardware and/or software that comprises pirated content, was offered for sale in violation of an enforceable license agreement, or unauthorized use of Carleon's copyrighted text, images, or other materials

Reporting Suspected Counterfeit Products To voluntarily report suspected counterfeit products, please email details and contact information to copyright@carleon.org
