

IP Holdings Ltd

IP Holdings Ltd is a member of eBay's Verified Rights Owners (VeRO) Program.

Flip-In® and Flip® are owned by IP Holdings Ltd and protected as registered trademarks.

The use of any of the listed trademarks without written permission is prohibited. Consequently, if you undertake any unauthorised use of them, it may result in civil or criminal actions against you.

As an Ebay VeRO Program member, IP Holdings Ltd, or its representatives, will monitor eBay auctions and "Buy it now" sales to protect the trademarks Flip-In® and Flip®.

Although IP Holdings Ltd works to ensure all unauthorised use of the intellectual property is removed from eBay, it is difficult to identify and remove every unauthorised item. The fact others are selling products infringing the listed trademarks does not give you the right to do so. As a seller, it is your responsibility to ensure your auctions do not violate the intellectual property rights of others.
