How to be sure you are buying authentic Klaire Labs products

To assist in maintaining authentic and quality products to professionals and consumers, Klaire Labs recommends the following methods to ensure you are purchasing genuine product:

1. Direct sale to professional practitioners within our approved distribution network, both through traditional offline sales channels and our official online website at www.klaire.com

It is illegal to sell damaged, expired and counterfeit products. Klaire Labs will not authenticate any item purchased from a party other than Klaire Labs or its authorized distributors, and will make no representations as to its authenticity. A way to guarantee authenticity is to purchase your Klaire Labs products directly from Klaire Labs.
