Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Why was my auction terminated?

A: Possible reasons include the sale of counterfeit STV Motorsports merchandise or merchandise that is confusingly similar, or the unapproved use of STV Motorsports's intellectual property. Upon discovering violations, STV Motorsports notifies eBay of those offending auctions and eBay then takes appropriate action to protect not only STV Motorsports, but the entire eBay community.

Q: Why are there other auctions running for the same or similar items?

A: You haven't been singled out and we do our best to get to everyone although we may not. If you find an infringing auction, please notify us.

Q: In my auction, may I use images I find on stvmotorsports.com, or from an authorized dealer's site or in other STV Motorsports marketing material?

A: No. STV Motorsports is very particular about the use of its images and does not authorize the reproduction of its images, graphics, text, descriptions, logos or anything else we've created, on your website or auction

Q: Can I legally sell counterfeit products if I identify the products as "replica"?

A: No. It is not legal under federal or common law to sell counterfeit merchandise. Representation of the merchandise as "replica" does not offer exemption from the law.

Q: Why didn't you contact me before terminating my auction?

A: The volume of auctions and the intense interest in STV Motorsports makes it impractical to contact each seller about the deficiencies of their auction and/or product offered. STV Motorsports uses the VeRO program as the most efficient method of addressing the infringing merchandise offered, and/or the manner in which it is offered.
