As an eBay VeRO Program member, TRAININGMASK.INC, reviews items for sale on eBay daily. TrainingMask will use eBay's VeRO program to report the listing(s) of any auctions it considers infringes its rights in any territory in which product is offered for sale or delivery.

TRAININGMASK.INC works to ensure that all unauthorized uses of its intellectual property are removed from eBay. When an auction listing that improperly uses TRAININGMASK.INC trademarks and/or patents comes to its attention, TRAININGMASK.INC reviews the matter and takes appropriate action. However, because of the high volume of merchandise for sale on eBay, it is difficult to identify and remove every unauthorized item. The fact that others are selling products that infringe TRAININGMASK.INC's intellectual property rights does not give you the right to do so.

It is legal to re-sell an authentic genuine TrainingMask product that you purchased from an authorized distributor in the territory in which you bought it and you may use TrainingMask trademarks to describe such items. However, you should be aware that selling outside the territory in which you bought the item can be risky as certain countries and territories have laws prohibiting unapproved parallel trading. For example, items offered for sale to European countries which have not first been put on the market by TrainingMask within the European Economic Area ("EEA") by TrainingMask may infringe TRAININGMASK's rights. Please refer to TrainingMask.co.uk page for further information.

Further, you cannot use copyrighted photographs of any TRAININGMASK products to promote the sale of the item and you cannot produce an unauthorized copy of the genuine product and offer it for sale nor customize a TRAININGMASK product that modifies any of its trademarks (such as the verbiage + mountain design/ TrainingMask+Mountain design).

As a seller, you have a responsibility to ensure that your actions do not violate the intellectual property rights of another. Ignorance that it is a violation of any country's trademark, patent or copyright laws is no excuse. We do not and will not provide you with proof of our intellectual property rights, you must obtain documents or information on your own.
