

Virgil C. Stephens

Virgil C. Stephens, originally from Globe, Arizona, now resides in the Loma Grande Mountain range, just south of Nogal, New Mexico. "We call our little piece of Heaven, the Notevena Ranch". Specializing in conte drawings, oil paintings, pencil drawings, pastels, and bronze sculptures, Virgil is a full-time artist, drawing upon what he knows. Being raised a cowboy, other than painting, he spends time in the saddle hunting, does a little team roping, and enjoys a good cigar. His paintings depict western & wildlife with a bit of Patriotic and romance, as well as cowboy golf and even a little bit of jazz and blues influence. His bronzes depict western and stylized and tends to lean towards sculpting horses and Native American art for the most part.
