James Alefantis' true name: Rostchild (/v/pizzagate/2042853)

169

(pizzagate (/v/pizzagate))

submitted 19 hours ago by darkknight111 (/user/darkknight111)

Thank you @godwillwin (https://voat.co/user/godwillwin) for this lead posted on the Loretta Lynch thread.

http://boards.4chan.org/pol/thread/136292615
(http://boards.4chan.org/pol/thread/136292615)

http://archive.is/ThDuN (http://archive.is/ThDuN)

Seems /pol doxxed James Alefantis and found out that he is actually a Rostchild. His father's name is Roger Rostchild.

Relevance to Pizzagate: Direct, for this is direct proof that the Rostchilds are involved in pizzagate.

This explains why Alefantis is one of the 50 most powerful people in America.

The stuff about Adenochrome I'm more on the "open mind" spectrum whether to trust or not trust. We have to understand the occult reasons why the elites do what they do, so as to better expose them. This certainly fits under that line of reasoning

-Evidence in favor of this being true: Source is /pol, a place with a solid precedent for providing us with our best intel (such as Loretta Lynch last night). "Know thy enemy" (how the elites are reacting) is another big hint. If this is false, why attack sites that have this info? Why did Roger's info go dark shortly after getting revealed? Why all the forum sliding that's supposedly been targeting those threads?

Time to make this bastard squirm and break. Spread word of his true heritage all around the net. Get digging.

Can I ask @Millennial_Falcon (https://voat.co/user/Millennial_Falcon) and @Vindicator (https://voat.co/user/Vindicator) and @sensitive (https://voat.co/user/sensitive) why this post is allowed to stay while mine (https://voat.co/v/pizzagate/2040251) on another topic was deleted?

I provided actual physical evidence supporting the argument. One was of a DC Metro Police crime van which is only sent if there's a murder. And the other piece of evidence was the court date the following week.

darkknight111 literally read a comment on 4chan and that was enough for you guys.

That's a double standard no?

Good for you for remembering that. We were being steered away from that were we not, imo. We went to a certain point and then stopped. There was a Catholic School and we did not investigate the people there.

i'm thinking this is likely true with the info in the various links esp the ghostbin entire site down, linkedin for pappa down (or was down). JA looks spitting image also. would also explain a lot about ja's finances and why no one will even contemplate investigating (one would think with all the "busts" of mid to low level traffickers lately, they'd surely wanna look into a pizza shop owner to add to the low level busts if true) wow, things are really slipping around here. i leave for a few days after swordfish's ""damning revelations"" and it's actually only gotten worse. i've scrolled halfway through that 4chan thread and literally no one has explained or provided documentation of this claim. OP replies to multiple comments that "4chan has been our source before, just trust them guys"

OP, why aren't you explaining in your post or comments how they doxxed him / why this is relevant?

non skills: keep your eyes out for this cult-of-personality/weird "cliques" of users whose information makes you feel off. i swear to god every single fucking post these days is some retarded shit like the bistro (imo it just looks like some database error on what looks like a clunky, cheap website i can't believe we spent so much time on that) with one downvoat and everyone's upvoats. must be more skills than we realize.

No its bullshit as far as I can see, and all the idiots who just watched zeitgeist for the first time upvoted the hell out of it, until it's the top post. There is zero evidence to back up the claim, as far as I can tell. I suggest any real researcher put efforts elsewhere. Not to say it couldn't be possible he's a rothschild, but there's not evidence here or anywhere else I've seen to prove it.

I can't tell what database the names are supposed to have come from. For the first address (2660 Scott St, San Francisco) I looked up the owners since the 90's, and there didn't seem to be any connection to JA or the Rothschilds. I'm not spending more energy on this BS, zero proof.

They are also saying the father studied biochem and lives in Alaska and something about "the leaks" being true. I haven't yet figured out what leaks they are referring to. Lastly, they talk about adrenochrome, but there's no specifics on it as there are for James' real name being James Alefantis Rothschild. They list all the properties associated with him. They are in New York, CA, DC, and there's one in Illinois - need to look into the Illinois one Illinois would be strange- seems odd. CA and DC and NY that's were all the action is, but Illinois does not seem like an Alefantis place, but know knows, he is One Strange Bird. Now did you mean this is his father's property or that of James?

Benjamin de Rotschild, the guy who inherited his father's fortune in the 90's is an ex-junkie

Benjamin de Rothschild, only son of the late Edmond de Rothschild, was a classic case of great expectations gone astray. Despite being groomed for greatness from a young age, as a teenager he skipped university and instead headed for Los Angeles with dreams of being a film producer. In LA he started taking drugs, and ended up on heroin. Meanwhile, he failed to make it into Hollywood's charmed circle and bombed as a filmmaker.

(<http://www.independent.co.uk/arts-entertainment/poor-little-rich-boys-1097744.html>)

Also in 1996, Baron Benjamin Rothschild, now 34, was arrested at an airport in England and fined $600 for heroin possession.

<http://nypost.com/2000/05/04/his-wealth-couldnt-buy-him-invincibility-bank-scions-death-an-apparent-od-after-wild-night-of-partying/>
(<http://nypost.com/2000/05/04/his-wealth-couldnt-buy-him-invincibility-bank-scions-death-an-apparent-od-after-wild-night-of-partying/>)

Not the only case of heroin use in the family.

In 1996, one of Nat Rothschild's cousins, Amschel, hanged himself at the age of 41. He had just been asked to fill a leading position in the family bank in London. Four years later, another cousin, Raphael de Rothschild, died in Manhattan from a heroin overdose. He was just 23. **

www.dailymail.co.uk/femail/article-446056/The-richest-Rothschild-all.html

<https://www.rothschildarchive.org/genealogy/#6,23>
(<https://www.rothschildarchive.org/genealogy/#6,23>)

Raphel was the oldest kid, he has a sister named Esther Eva Marie-Cécile who inherited everything from him. She is alive but i am unable to find stuff about her, havent looked through the recent 4chan leaks tho, i bet she is there.

The Raphael de Rothschild overdose is also interesting.

" Cops arrested a friend of de Rothschild's, William Corbin, and charged him with heroin possession, said Officer Theresa Farelo, a police spokeswoman. Rothschild apparently passed out inside the loft after partying with Corbin and friends into the early morning hours, friends said....

" Corbin, however, denied partying with de Rothschild. "I was there on the sidewalk, but that's it," said Corbin, an executive at RestaurantRow.com, an online restaurant reservation service. "That's all I know. I came walking up [to the scene] a little late. I wish I could tell you what happened, but as I told the police, I really don't know.

To recap, the head of the Rothschild family, richest of them all, is an "ex-junkie". Suicides and overdoses arent rare, some press call it "The Rothschild curse" and it seems to catch the bad apples and those who are in line for inheriting.

I believe Rothschild are the ones who pull the globalist's strings but they always keep distance. Very interesting little rabbit hole.

Not do distract from the OP's post, if James isnt a Rothschild he has at least very close ties to them and since he didnt kill himself from media bullying him or some other stupid reason, there is a high chance of probability that he is a Rothschild.

James Rothschild the younger one who just married Nicky Hilton his father was "suicided" aka murdered because he didn't want to go along with their plans so they killed him when both James and his sister Kate Rothschild were young. His sister Kate has had a troubled life too, married to a Goldschmidt having two kids, she had an affair with a New Orleans rapper and was seen in and out of pawn shops broke cut off from money. Her ex husband has the kids and has since remarried. There are also 4 younger late teen Rothschild girls, Eve, Alice, Olivia and Noemie (and others on the family tree) who are lost girls. Sad, sad world. All the money in the world but living in a virtual cage, brain washed to believe evil is good.

I believe it might be because you cant refuse "the job", ie when a Rothschild is in line for inheriting not only the shekels but the banks and/or companies, you cant say no. I read a bit about Rothschilds, at least what google gave me when searching with time settings from 1990 to 2000, i dont know if it is normal but it seems a big influx of suicides and death in Rothschild's family in that timeframe. Seems to me that they are either getting offed by their relatives or they are offered a fake death and a nice life, which i highly doubt cause killing is less expensive.

You know what leak would be maybe the biggest redpill? Bilderberg voice or video recording, Wikileaks should stop publishing thousands of emails in the open, they should go slowly.

I would release a small number, lets say 5 damaging emails, two days later 10 damaging looking, another two days rest of the damaging emails i was able to find and the next day release all the emails so people can look into. This way the media HAS to report on the content of emails. If the left even looked at Hillarys emails, at least those found, they couldnt deny she not only deserves jail but possibly the chair too, so to say.

I read through part of the 4chan thread and I am confused about what I'm reading. Are people claiming that James Alefantis is a Rothschild or is associated with the Rothschilds? Where is the evidence to suggest this?

Where does Adrenochrome come into this? Abram Hoffer, a Canadian biochemist and psychiatrist who worked with Linus Pauling, observed the effects of adrenochrome injected into fifteen subjects. Apparently it produces an effect similar to LSD and in many ways the effect is similar to schizophrenia. Hoffer also hypothesized that adrenochrome is a significant factor in schizophrenia and hypothesized that schizophrenics have higher levels of adrenochrome in their bodies due to an inability to metabolize it.

Hoffer wrote a book with Humphrey Osmond called "The Hallucinogens," and one of the chapters focuses on adrenochrome and another chapter focuses on taraxein, which is also produced in the human body and which also has psychotomimetic effects. Scientists dispute the existence of taraxein: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Taraxein> (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Taraxein>)

People on Erowid who experimented with Adrenochrome say that the effect is very minor and they did not experience hallucinations:
