This list contains the culprits who told us that Iraq had weapons of mass destruction and lied us into multiple bogus wars. These are the news sources that told us "if you like your doctor, you can keep your doctor." They told us that Hillary Clinton had a 98% of winning the election. They tell us in a never-ending loop that "The economy is in great shape!"

This is the real Fake News List (and it's sourced):

RT has "more truth" is quite an understatement. MSM is a propaganda vehicle for the Ministry of Truth. RT has a pro-Russian bias, but for the most part reports truth and facts.

like
Al-

was disre
dited

as propaganda when they reported on innocent Iraqis being blown up by GW Bush's administration. Any source that says what they don't want you to hear, gets written off as ridiculous or insane, and most people accept that without question. They see the "official" sources as the only authority, the ultimate arbiters of truth. After this election, yes many have seen through that, but more have also gone

to believe

They

I have been watching RT now
for years.

The BBC
will not put on anything that is negative about the EU. The Italian
banking system is collapsing
, Italian
Motel
ownwers are having their property
conviscat
ed, Paris

has been turned into a refugee
camp,
Greece
have Golden
Dawn
running the streets
and are now carring
out governme nt
functions,

multiple rapes in Swedon
and Germany.

What does the BBC put on as their leading story.....

You Can't Buy
Marmite
At Tesco's.

Remembe r here in the UK we are forced by the state to purchase a TV Licence to pay for the BBC. I am foked
to finance
my own antagonis t.

The BBC
is nothing more than a governme nt mouth
piece.
Take a look at how many
EX MP's
work there. The BBC is disgustin

arguing g.

I understand that the government can spend money it doesn't have but Ron Paul doesn't have that luxury. He was the last man standing against Romney and he made the wise decision to use the remaining funds to keep the lights on in the national office. He rationed his supplies and remained in the race.

Actually, the article is written by Chris Rossini on the Ron Paul Liberty Report site.

Can you tell us how much you helped Ron Paul battle the Republicans for a spot on the ballot in 2008?

How about 2012?

How many caucuses and conventions did you attend?

How many newspapers and TV stations did you contact to help his effort to educate?

Have you done anything besides post snarky remarks on internet sites?

Just my 2 steel cents here, but the war on information isn't new. The infowars are old as Adam and Eve themselves, at least that's what the devil told me...

0 Hope and Change from TrumpPence ;) ...

Never trust a politician or a businessman with jew banker connections...

"Pence supported the USA Patriot Act on its passage in 2001, and in 2005 called the act "essential to our continued success in the war on terror here at home. Pence was a sponsor of legislation in 2009 to extend three expiring provisions of the Patriot Act (the library records provision, the roving-wiretap provision, and the lone-wolf provision) for an additional ten years.

Pence "has been a longtime, aggressive advocate of trade deals" between the U.S. and foreign countries. Pence has been a supporter of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), and during his tenure in the House, he voted for every free-trade agreement that came before him. Pence voted in favor of the Central American Free Trade Agreement (CAFTA); in favor of keeping the U.S. in the World Trade Organization; and in favor of permanent normal trade relations with China. Pence also supported bilateral free-trade agreements with Colombia, South Korea, Panama, Peru, Oman, Chile and Singapore. Pence's strong stance in favor of free trade sharply differs from the stance of his running mate Trump, who has condemned globalization and the liberalization of trade.

Pence voted against the Trade and Globalization Act of 2007, which would have expanded trade adjustment assistance to American workers adversely affected by globalization. However, in 2014 Pence called for the "swift adoption" of the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP), urging Indiana's congressional delegation to support the trade deal.

Pence supported the Iraq War Resolution, which authorized military action against Iraq. During the Iraq War, Pence opposed setting a public withdrawal date from Iraq. During an April 2007 visit to Baghdad, Pence and John McCain visited Shorja market, the site of a deadly attack in February 2007, that claimed the lives of 61 people. Pence and McCain described the visit as evidence that the security situation in Iraqi markets had improved. The visit to the market took place under tight security, including helicopters overhead, and the New York Times reported that the visit gave a false indication of how secure the area was because of the extremely heavy security forces protecting McCain. Pence chaired the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on the Middle East and was a prominent supporter of George W. Bush's Iraq War troop surge of 2007. At the time, Pence stated that "the surge is working" and defended the initial decision to invade in 2003."

0 So, in short, Pence is a neo-con. If Trump is removed from office then Pence will be the same o, same o and we are all collectively fucked (not that we aren't as it is but this would make it official). I wish Trump would just hide in the oval office and not make any public appearances for say, 3 years or so.

I would recommend any of his writings to anyone but advise them to read the non - fiction first.

An Atheist that got into a contest with Tolkien (his buddy.) in a pub. Tolkien who wrote the hobbit etc.

There be Professors. Neither of them was an expert on fat-people though, so they can't hold a candle to the hit list girl, or maybe they could ?

-3 it goes back to the Dan Rather dustup. CBS had spent so much money paying him his anchorman salary that they decided to cut some folks who do the real journalism. then after 911 the president slapped security clearances on everyone, which the presidents office controls, and finally to put the sword in the guts of the media industry the presidents people allowed an unvetted journalist to walk into a press conference and lob infomercial questions at the president. turns out the guy was a gop operative with a degree from a diploma mill, who had worked on taking down tom daschele in SD. he is also thought to be by many a product of M2K. and from there the press cowered into a corner and started taking their news items off the presidents releases which is how those things about WMDs got into the news, the only thing the talking heads could do was repeat the lies other people told them. Obama came in and saw what a swell setup it was and changed nothing. this is really why the dems lost the election, now the folks on the right are blaming the liberals for all the unconstitutional bullshit done by GW Bush because frankly they never tried to impeach him when he launched signing declarations that expanded his powers and other unconstitutional bs, which Obama did as well. its like

This just perfectly illustrates the cancer of partisanship. The people who curse Obama the loudest should love love love him for not changing a thing Bush did whilst pacifying the Left. Partisan republicans are not a bit different than the anti war protesters out on san francisco who quit protesting as soon as a democrat was the one dropping the bombs.

One can only hope the anti war movement re energizes again now that a Republican is doing the killing.

Of course the 'liberal' media will march in lockstep behind our new president , as they have always supported killing Israel's enemies for her. And those 'anarchists' (police undercover) will surely be along for the ride to break windows and start garbage fires. Then the 'liberal' media can focus on that instead of the fact that this country has been bombing Arabs for fifteen years straight now. How's that working out? 1 The only media reporting 0 truth is the alternative media. The media, psychiatry, and politicians have all been complicit in allowing the torture and holocaust of innocent citizens. The NSA, DOD, CIA are using mind

control and directed energy weapons (V2k,remote neural
monitoring, microwaving, scalar, sound) on innocent citizens. These technologies can't be victims have little recourse.

Freedomfchs.net,
ICAACT.org, intellihub.com, Jesse Ventura's Brain Invader's youtube, John Hall's book Guinea Pigs, Renee Pittman's books and countless victims accounts are all trying to expose this torture and holocaust. These technologies invade a person's mind and body remotely and are the worst human rights violation. All patriots need to expose and end this torture and holocaust now.

0 No, muckraker style headlines do not make for fake news. By that logic, almost all news is fake considering that headline style is used frequently especially in the monetized internet world. Just as it was used to sell newspapers in the 1920's. Understanding this along with some critical thinking, one can navigate the interwebs and be informed as much as that's possible these days. If you need your hand held through this, can't identify rhetoric, spot invalid arguments, illogical statements and wild claims then maybe stick with the old tv and let that wash over you. Not that ZH hasn't posted some stinkers, I just don't need to have my hand held.

0 If the term fake news means articles deliberately planted by elites for the purpose of persuasion and whose content is composed primarily of opinion, that's the MSM specialty. If you define fake news as facts posted with exaggerated titles OR opinion pieces that clearly present themselves as opinion, that's ZH. Huge difference.

0 No, fake news refers to lies made up out of the whole cloth and passed off as truth, such as the Trump/Russia conspiracy theory, the "Russia hacked DNC email server" nonsense, and the "Hillary is not a lying, treasonous thief" bullshit. All of that and more came from the so-called "mainstream" media where you get all your news. Fake news is pure, outright lies passed off as truth.

The sources listed in the article are guilty of passing all those lies, and they are the only fake news sites that are influential enough to be a danger to the public. BTW, did you know you can't spell for shit?

0 This:
<https://www.documentcloud.org/documents/3125944-Press-Surrogate-Plan-030...>

Is the original document, which the Ron Paul item uses; it was from Wikileaks and obtained from I believe Jennifer Palmieri's docs. It expresses the concept that these journalists are cooperating with the campaign.

There are also other instances where these people appear in emails, some even seeking to give the campaign editorial capacity on their writing which will appear in print.

This:

<https://theintercept.com/2016/10/09/exclusive-new-email-leak-reveals-cl...>

is an article from "The Intercept" which lays out the email leak and explains how it shows a cozy relationship between Clinton campaign and various political and press figures.

-1 we are in a war of propaganda distorting facts – sift accordingly simple smell test – look for facts and evidence – opinions are like assholes, every has one and they all smell.

MSM spin facts to protect their bubbles – there is no evidence backing their stance – just hot air inflating their bubbles – bubbles that are anchored in free money today and debt forever – paid for by taxes over the decades of their careers pissing in the swamp.

Well said. We are truly in a time of universal deceit. The age of opinions. Truth is too like so difficult.

The upper middle classes have undergone some kind of finger-wagging, nonsensical rapture into liberal hell, where anything goes, even abuse of the most vulnerable.

It all went wrong when we abandoned facts and evidence and decided, collectively, that we would be told what reality is. By a bunch of people who really don't have a clue.

0 What's funny (to me) is

0 that virtually nobody has made the connection that the shenanigans perpetrated by the RNC establishment against

Ron in those two elections (more significantly in '12) was the last straw for many folks – and Trump "harvested" what the '12 election had sewn.

If Ron had been capable of being a bigger asshole – and had run this time – he could have run away with the election. But alas, being a gentleman and statesman, he lacked what it takes to succeed in the cesspool of American Politics.

0 I thought we had said that. I think Trump may have been disgusted at the way MSM treated Ron Paul's candidacy with silence, and had the epiphany that he could easily flank MSM by saying things, especially in the public debates, which noone could ignore, and which therefore MSM could not ignore.

0 A lot of us tried. Apparently picking a president these day's is based on their celebrity appeal and not their ability to run a country. In the end, he was just considered "crazy uncle Ron". Remember that other "crazy old man", Ross Perot? He saw what was happening and could have been great too. Remember the 1992 debates? Here's a clip. What great thing did RP do? Say nonsensical things about the Fed? I mean, he went on for years saying "audit the Fed" when in fact the Fed is audited annually by Deloitte. The Board of Governors and all 12 Reserve Banks are audited, and the audit opinions are available on the Board of Governors website, though it's not super easy to find.

They're interesting to read. They have some detail about 2008 bailouts that I haven't seen elsewhere, in the "discussion" sections of the audit opinions.

Now maybe there's something wrong with those audits. But for RP not to even mention they exist?! He should have known about them, and in case he didn't, I emailed him this information with a link to the audit reports.

Never got a reply from him.
