Classic Learning Test

CLT

A Note From Classic Learning Test

At Classic Learning Test (CLT), our mission is not only to provide meaningful assessments but to foster connections between seekers of truth, goodness, and beauty.

Among these connections are those between students and colleges. We strive to help students discover and engage with exceptional institutions of learning that will help them become better human beings.

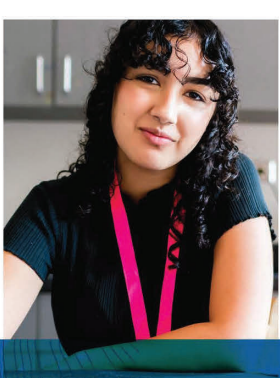

CLT Partner Colleges offer a variety of summer programs through which high school students can experience life on campus, explore possible career interests, and delve into avenues of study. Some programs even offer college credit.

Our 2024 Summer Program Guide highlights the incredible opportunities available this summer at our Partner Colleges. We hope you find just the right program to grow and inspire you.

HONORS SUMMER ACADEMY

June 16–26, 2024 • Rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors • Cost: $1,200

At the Honors Summer Academy, rising high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors will gain valuable pre-college experience and preparation as they study the classics with the deans of the Honors College at The University of Tulsa. Participants spend their mornings with faculty in seminar addressing the big questions raised by classic texts and their afternoons and evenings with current Honors College students, who lead recreational and cultural activities both on and off campus. Honors Summer Academy students have a unique immersion experience in which they ask each other the Big Questions, and also experience all that Eastern Oklahoma and Tulsa has to offer—from rodeos to Native American history and culture, to world class art museums and outstanding parks.

CALLED

A CULTURE-SHAPING
BOOTCAMP

WEEK 1: JULY 8-13 • WEEK 2: JULY 15-20

Join Called attendees (ages 15 to 18) as they spend a week being taught how to respond as Christians to a culture gone mad. New Saint Andrews College's Called seeks to challenge students to live out their faith, to not just survive the cultural onslaught but to shape culture as they push upstream. Students will sit under winsome speakers, interact in applied workshops, and develop leadership skills in a variety of team games. The week will also include exploring the downtown locale of Moscow, Idaho, various team competitions, and cultivating Christian friendships with students from all around the country who are also committed to being salt and light.

CALLED HIGHER

Summer Leadership Program

Experience AMU at our third Annual Summer Leadership Program June 22-28, 2024!

We're looking for rising high school juniors and seniors who are academically driven and committed to growing in their faith to spend a week with us on campus, exploring what life is like at Our Lady's University.

During your time at Called Higher, you'll experience the life of an AMU student firsthand: a liberal arts education rooted in the Truth, enhanced by frequent access to the sacraments, and encouraged by an authentic Catholic community. Learn how Ave Maria is committed to excellence of the mind, heart, and soul.

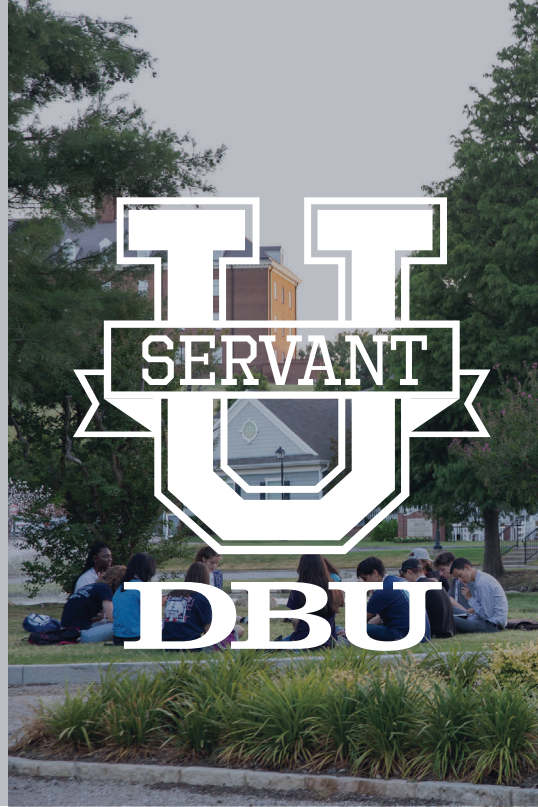

The AMU Summer Leadership Program was an eventful experience. I was able to make many new friends while experiencing life on campus. I learned a lot and made many fun memories.

Why Attend a Summer Program at UD?

The University of Dallas is one of America's foremost Catholic liberal arts universities. According to national rankings, the University of Dallas has one of America's most challenging, comprehensive, interdisciplinary undergraduate programs, offered at an excellent value to some of the happiest students in the country. With campuses in Texas and Italy, UD stands apart as a thriving community of learners committed to an education that forms students intellectually, socially and spiritually for a life well-lived.

Students in the College Citizens and Arete: An Introduction to the Classics programs live on our campus in Irving, TX, for the duration of the program. The Summer Art Academy and Summer Music Academy are day camps offered Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Occasionally the Summer Music Academy may offer residential options to eligible students.

- Earn three hours of college credit (Arete and College Citizens only).
- Engage with fellow thinkers and artists.
- Study with UD faculty.
- Improve academic and artistic skills.

2024 High School Summer Programs

SUMMER ART ACADEMY

The UD Summer Art Academy is an opportunity for art students to immerse themselves in the language and techniques of art making, expanding their abilities and developing their artistic potential. Students will explore multiple art mediums in the various studios on campus, creating an intensive, enriching and rewarding experience.

SUMMER MUSIC ACADEMY

The UD Summer Music Academy immerses students of piano, strings and voice in the language of music. UD Music Department faculty will work with students in a variety of settings, including private lessons, master classes, music theory classes and ensembles.

COLLEGE CITIZENS

The UD College Citizens Program is open to rising high school seniors in the Dallas/Fort Worth area who would be the first in their families to earn a bachelor's degree. Students will engage in two rigorous weeks of in-depth reading, writing and discussion about social topics of fundamental importance: What is citizenship? What does it mean to seek a virtuous life? What is our responsibility to others?

ARETE: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE CLASSICS

The Arete Program engages questions of excellence and the noble life through the essential texts of Western civilization, including the works of Plato, Shakespeare and Faulkner. Along with participating in reading groups and developing a final paper, students will view films, visit art museums and attend live productions.
