Washington Agreement

Signed By Bosnian Prime Minister Haris Silajdzic
Croatian Foreign Minister Mate Granic
Bosnian Croat Representative Kresimir Zubak:
Confederation Agreement Between
The Bosnian Government And Bosnian Croats
Washington, DC
March 1, 1994

For four days at the end of February 1994 at the State Department in Washington, Ambassadors Redman and Galbraith conducted proximity talks between a Croatian delegation led by Foreign Minister Mate Granic and a Bosnian delegation led by Prime Minister Haris Silajdzic. On March 1 the Croatians and Bosnians agreed to a framework for a federation of Croat and Bosniac majority areas in Bosnia-Herzegovina and a preliminary agreement for a confederation between the Federation and Croatia.

At a White House ceremony March 18, 1994, Prime Minister Silajdzic and Bosnian Croat leader Zubak signed a Constitution for the Federation. At the same time Presidents Tudjman and Izetbegovic initialed the preliminary agreement on the confederation.

The undersigned have agreed on the attached Framework Agreement establishing a Federation in the areas of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina with a majority Bosniac and Croat population and on the attached outline of a Preliminary Agreement for a Confederation between the Republic of Croatia and the Federation.

They have further agreed to establish a high-level Transitional Committee, which will take immediate and concrete steps toward the establishment of the Federation and Confederation. The Committee will begin its work on March 4, 1994 in Vienna and will seek to conclude by March 15, 1994:

1. The Constitution of the Federation;
2. The Preliminary Agreement of the Confederation between the Republic of Croatia and the proposed Federation;
3. An agreement concerning military arrangements in the territory of the proposed Federation;
4. Transitional measures to expedite the establishment of the Confederation and Federation, including where possible the creation of governmental structures as outlined in the Framework Agreement; and any other measures determined to be necessary.

Framework Agreement For The Federation

I. Establishment

Guided by the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal declaration of Human Rights and the Declaration on the Rights of Persons Belonging to National, Ethnic, Religious or Linguistic Minorities, the Statement Principles by the International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia at its session in London, as well as the decisions of the United Nations Security Council relating to the Former Yugoslavia; and

Based on the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the peoples and citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina, determined to ensure full-national equality, democratic relations, and the highest standards of human rights and freedoms, hereby create a Federation.

Bosniacs and Croats, as constituent peoples (along with others) and citizens of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina, in the exercise of their sovereign rights, transform the internal structure of the territories with a majority of Bosniac and Croat population in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina into a Federation, which is composed of federal units with equal rights and responsibilities.

The decisions on the constitutional status of the territories of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina with a majority of Serb population shall be made in the course of negotiations toward a peaceful settlement and at the International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia.

II. Division of Responsibilities

1. The central government to have exclusive responsibility for:

- Foreign affairs.
- National defense: including joint command; joint military arrangements within the Confederation; and protection of national borders.
- Citizenship.
- Economic policy, including planning and reconstruction.
- Commerce, including customs, international trade and finance; trade within the Federal Republic; communications.
- Finance: national currency; monetary and fiscal policy; regulation of financial institutions; joint arrangements within the Confederation.
- Combating international crimes, inter-cantonal crimes, and others of special interest to the central government (e.g., terrorism, drug trafficking, and organized crime); and cooperating with Interpol.
- Financing of the central government (taxation, borrowing).
- Radio-television frequency allocation.
- Energy policy and infrastructure, including inter-cantonal distribution/allocation matters.

2. The central government and the cantons to have responsibility for:

- Human rights.
- Health.
- Environmental policy.
- Infrastructure for communications and transport.
- Social welfare policy.
- Citizenship, implementation of laws and regulations.
- Immigration and asylum.
- Tourism.
- Use of natural resources.

As appropriate, these responsibilities may be exercised jointly or separately, or by the cantons as coordinated by the central government.

3. The cantons shall have all responsibility not expressly granted to the central government. They shall have, in particular, authority over the following:

- Police (identical Federation uniforms, with cantonal insignia).
- Education.
- Culture.
- Housing.
- Public services.
- Local land use (zoning).
- Financing of cantonal governments (taxation, borrowing).
- Local business and charitable activities (regulation, facilitation).
- Energy production (organization of local production facilities).
- Radio and television.
- Social welfare services (provision).
- Tourist development.

III. Structure of Government

I. Central Government

A. Executive Authority

1. The President and Vice-President:

- a. The Legislature shall elect one Bosniac and one Croat, who shall serve alternate one-year terms as President and Vice President during a four-year period.
- b. The President shall be the head of state.

2. The Government:

- a. The Government shall consist of a Prime Minister; a Deputy Prime Minister; and Ministers, each of whom shall have a Deputy. No Deputy (including the Deputy Prime Minister) may be from the same constituent people as his Minister.

- b. The President, with the concurrence of the Vice-President, shall nominate the Government, which shall be elected by the House of Representatives. No fewer than one-third of the Ministerial positions shall be occupied by Croats.
- c. The Prime Minister shall be the head of government.

3. The respective competencies of the President and of the Prime Minister and the Government shall be specified in the Constitution.

4. Decisions of the Government that concern the vital interest of any of the constituent peoples shall require consensus.

B. The Legislature

1. The Legislature shall consist of two houses:

- a. The House of Representatives, which shall be elected democratically on a proportional basis in the Federation as a whole;
- b. The House of Peoples, which shall have an equal number of Bosniac and Croat delegates. Each canton shall be allocated a number of seats to be occupied by Bosniac delegates and a number of seats to be occupied by Croat delegates, in proportion to these two groups in the Legislature of that canton; the Bosniac and Croat delegates from each canton are to be elected, respectively, by the Bosniac and Croat representatives in its Legislature.

2. Decisions of the Legislature require the approval of both Houses.

- a. Decisions that concern the vital interest of any of the constituent peoples shall require, in the House of Peoples, the approval of a majority of the Bosniac representatives and of a majority of the Croat representatives.
- b. Amendments of the Constitution shall require in the House of Peoples the vote specified in (a) above and, in the House of Representatives, a two-thirds majority.
- c. other decisions shall be taken by simple majority in each House.

C. The Judiciary

1. There shall be a Constitutional Court competent to resolve disputes among the cantons, between any of these and the Federation, between any municipality and its canton or the Federation, or between or within any of the organs of the Federation. The judges shall be nominated by the President and elected by the Legislature, and shall consist of an equal number from each of the constituent peoples; during a transitional period of five years, one third of the judges shall be appointed by the President of the International Court of Justice from persons who are not citizens of the Federation.

2. There shall be a Human Rights Court established in accordance with Resolution 93 (6) of the Committee of ministers of the Council of Europe, whose composition and competence shall be specified in the Constitution.

3. There shall be a Supreme Court, which shall have selective appellate jurisdiction from the courts of the cantons and such jurisdiction as specified in the Constitution and in legislation. The members of the Court shall be nominated by the President and elected by the Legislature, and shall consist of an equal number of judges from each of the constituent peoples.

II. The Cantonal Governments

Each canton shall take all necessary steps to ensure the protection of the rights and freedoms provided in the instruments listed in the Annex and shall act consistently with the Constitution of the Federation.

Each canton shall exercise its responsibilities with due regard to the population in each municipality. It may delegate appropriate powers to municipality and should do so when the municipality's majority population is a minority in the canton as a whole.

A. Executive Authority

1. President: The Cantonal President shall be elected by a uniform procedure to be specified in the Federation Constitution and reflected in the constitutions of the cantons.

2. Government: The Cantonal Government shall be nominated by the Cantonal President and approved by the Cantonal Legislature. Each Cantonal Government shall have a composition reflecting that of the population of the canton.

3. In exercising its responsibilities in respect to the cantonal police, the Cantonal Government shall ensure that the composition of the police shall reflect that of the population of the canton, provided that the composition of the police of each municipality shall reflect the composition of the latter.

B. The Legislature

Each canton shall have a Legislature, which shall be elected democratically on a proportional basis in the canton as a whole.

C. The Judiciary

Each canton shall have courts, which shall be competent to hear appeals from the courts of the municipalities, and have original jurisdiction over cases not within the competence of those courts. The judges shall be nominated by the Cantonal President and elected by the Cantonal Legislature, in such a way that the composition of the judiciary as a whole shall reflect that of the population of the canton.

III. The Municipality Governments

1. Municipalities shall exercise self-rule on local matters.

2. The Municipality Executive: Each municipality shall have an Executive elected by its Governing Council.

3. Each municipality shall have a Governing Council elected democratically on a proportional basis.

4. Each municipality shall establish courts, the jurisdiction of which shall be specified by cantonal legislation.

IV. Councils of Cantons

Cantons with a Bosniac-majority or a Croat-majority population may establish Councils of Cantons in order to coordinate policies and activities on matters of common interest to their communities and to advise their representatives in the House of Peoples.

V. Human Rights

The principles set forth below, as well as the rights and freedoms provided in the instruments listed in the annex, shall be applied throughout the territory of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

In the Federation:

1. All persons within the territory of the Federation shall be entitled to the highest level of internationally recognized rights and freedoms provided in the instruments listed in the Annex.

2. All refugees and displaced persons have the right freely to return to their homes of origin.

3. All persons shall have the right to have restored to them any property of which they were deprived in the course of ethnic cleansing and to be compensated for any property which cannot be restored to them. All statements or commitments made under duress, particularly those relating to the relinquishment of rights to land or property, shall be treated as null and void.

4. All courts, administrative agencies and other governmental organs of the Federation shall apply and conform to the rights and freedoms provided in the instruments listed in the Annex. A Court of Human Rights shall be established; its composition and competence shall be set out in the Constitution.

5. The Federation shall cooperate with any international human rights monitoring mechanisms established for Bosnia and Herzegovina and with the supervisory bodies established by any of the instruments listed in the Annex.

6. To assist in implementing the rights and freedoms specified in the Constitution, an Ombudsman shall be appointed by the CSCE from each recognized group: Bosniacs, Croats, and others. Each Ombudsman shall have offices throughout the Federation as he deems appropriate and shall have the responsibility to investigate fully matters concerning security, rights, and freedoms and to report to competent government agencies, including the Prime Minister of the Federation, and to the CSCE.

VI. Military Arrangements

Both sides agree to the establishment of a unified military command of the military of the Federation.

The sides will develop comprehensive transitional arrangements to that end in the context of a military agreement. In the transitional period:

1. current command structures will remain in place;
2. forces of the sides will disengage from one another immediately, with the aim of withdrawing a safe distance to be specified in the military agreement; and
3. all foreign armed forces, except those present with the agreement of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the authorization of the U.N. Security Council, will leave the territory of the Federation.

VII. Approval of The Constitution

The Constitution of the Federation will be promulgated by a Constituent Assembly, which shall consist of those representatives elected at the 1990 elections to the Assembly of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina whose mandate is still valid. Approval of the Constitution shall require consensus between the delegation of the Croat people, comprising all representatives of Croat nationality, and the delegation of the Bosniac people, comprising all representatives of Bosniac nationality.

VIII. Arrangement During The Transitional Period

The two parties agree to establish a high level committee which will prepare a draft Constitution of the Federation and coordinate other matters related to the implementation of the Framework Agreement. The Committee will start its work in Vienna on March 4, 1994.

Until the Constitution of the Federation enters into force, the present administrative arrangements will continue in effect everywhere in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina, unless the committee decides otherwise by consensus and except in the Mostar City Municipality, which the two sides agree will be governed by an EU Administrator for up to two years.
