- Highlight of a community service project
- College preparation tips
- Career/military exploration information
- Cafeteria offerings
- A story of an inspiring person in your school or community

District/Region/Section
Check with your District/Region/Section leadership for District/Region/Section-specific competition information.

State
Check with your State Leader for state-specific competition information.

National Policy and Procedures Manual
Competitors should be familiar with the Competitive Events Policy & Procedures Manual, found on the Competitive Events page on www.fbla.org.

Eligibility
- FBLA membership dues are paid by 11:59 pm Eastern Time on March 1 of the current school year.
- Members may compete in an event at NLC more than once if they have not previously placed in the top ten of that event at NLC. If a member places in the top ten of an event at NLC, they are no longer eligible to compete in that event.

- Members must be registered for the NLC and pay the national conference registration fee in order to participate in competitive events.
- Members must stay in an official FBLA hotel in order to compete.
- Each state may submit four entries.
- Each competitor can only compete in one individual/team event and one chapter event (American Enterprise Project, Community Service Project, Local Chapter Annual Business Report, Partnership with Business Project).
- Only competitors are allowed to plan, research, prepare, and set up their presentations.
- Each competitor must compete in all parts of an event for award eligibility.
- All members of a team must consist of individuals from the same chapter.
- Picture identification (driver's license, passport, state-issued identification, or school-issued identification) is required when checking in for competitive events.
- If competitors are late for a presentation time, they will be allowed to compete until such time that results are finalized, or the accommodation would impact the fairness and integrity of the event. Competitive events start in the morning before the Opening Session of NLC.

Recognition
- The number of competitors will determine the number of winners. The maximum number of winners for each competitive event is 10.

Event Administration
- This event has two parts: preliminary presentation and final presentation
- Preliminary Presentation
    o Equipment Set-up Time: 3 minutes
    o Presentation Time: 7 minutes (one-minute warning)
    o Question & Answer Time: 3 minutes
    o Internet Access: Not provided
    o The presentation is judged at the NLC. Preliminary presentations are not open to conference attendees. The presentation will take place in a large, open area, with a booth size of approximately 12' x 12'.
    o Competitors/teams are randomly assigned to sections.
    o Competitors present directly from a laptop/device. Screens and projectors are not allowed for use, and competitors are not allowed to bring their own. Power will not be available.
    o Competitors can present with and bring any of the following technology into the presentation as long as it fits on the small table in front of the judges' table or is held by the competitors:
        ▪ Laptop
        ▪ Tablet
        ▪ Mobile phone
        ▪ External monitor that is approximately the size of a laptop monitor
    o Materials, visual aids, and samples related to the project may be used during the presentation; however, no items may be left with the judges or audience.
    o When the equipment set-up time has elapsed, the timer will automatically start the seven-minute presentation time.

- o If performing as a team, all team members are expected to actively participate in the presentation.
  - o No animals (except authorized service animals) will be allowed for use in any competitive event.
  - o Competitors will comply with state and federal copyright laws. Facts and data must be cited and secured from quality sources.
- Final Presentation
  - o Equipment Set-up Time: 3 minutes
  - o Presentation Time: 7 minutes (one-minute warning)
  - o Question & Answer Time: 3 minutes
  - o Internet Access: Not provided
  - o An equal number of competitors/teams from each section in the preliminary round will advance to the final round. When there are more than five sections of preliminary presentations for an event, two competitors/teams from each section will advance to the final round.
  - o Final presentations may be open to conference attendees, space permitting. Finalists may not view other competitors' presentation in their event.
  - o Competitors can present with and bring any of the following technology into the presentation as long as it fits on the small table in front of the judges' table or is held by the competitors:
    - Laptop
    - Tablet
    - Mobile phone
    - External monitor that is approximately the size of a laptop monitor
  - o The following will be provided for the final round if it occurs in a conference room: screen, power, table, and projector. Competitors using laptops or other devices that do not have an HDMI port will need to provide their own adapters. It is up to final-round competitors to determine if they wish to use the technology provided.
  - o Materials, visual aids, and samples related to the project may be used during the presentation; however, no items may be left with the judges or audience.
  - o When the equipment set-up time has elapsed, the timer will automatically start the seven-minute presentation time.
  - o If performing as a team, all team members are expected to actively participate in the presentation.
  - o No animals (except authorized service animals) will be allowed for use in any competitive event.
  - o Competitors will comply with state and federal copyright laws and cite sources. Any photographs, text, trademarks, or names used must be supported by proper documentation and approvals indicated.

Scoring
- The preliminary presentation score will be used to determine the finalists.
- The final presentation score will determine the top winners.
- Judges will break a tie.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

- FBLA meets the criteria specified in the Americans with Disabilities Act for all competitors with accommodations submitted through the conference registration system by the registration deadline.

Recording of Presentations

- No unauthorized audio or video recording devices will be allowed in any competitive event.
- Competitors in the events should be aware FBLA reserves the right to record any presentation for use in study or training materials.

Penalty Points

- Competitors may be disqualified if they violate the Competitive Event Guidelines or the Honor Code.
- Five points are deducted if competitors do not follow the Dress Code or are late for their assigned presentation time.
