2023 FOX CORPORATION POLITICAL ACTIVITIES REPORT

Published February 2024

Fox Corporation engages in political activity in accordance with the Company's Political Activities Policy, which is supervised by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors. The Committee reviews and oversees this report, which outlines the Company's engagement efforts in four areas of corporate political activity: the FOX Political Action Committee (FOXPAC); corporate political contributions; lobbying activities and expenditures by FOX; and the Company's participation in trade associations and contributions to non-profit entities.

I. FOX POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

FOXPAC is the official federal political action committee for FOX and its subsidiaries. It is registered with the Federal Election Commission. FOXPAC solicits funds from permissible Company employees (except those in news gathering functions) and in turn uses those employee donations to make political contributions to candidates in support of the Company's policy priorities. No corporate treasury funds are used for contributions from FOXPAC. FOXPAC is committed to maintaining a balanced contribution strategy between the two major political parties in making federal political contributions.

In 2023, FOXPAC disbursements totaled $373,700 evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats. Recipients of FOXPAC support in 2023 were:

III. LOBBYING ACTIVITIES

FOX employs government relations experts to advocate on behalf of the Company, its businesses, and its employees. The lobbying activities of FOX Government Relations, in many cases, are required by law to be disclosed at the federal, state, and local level with the respective agency or government entity overseeing lobbying compliance.

In 2023, FOX Government Relations advocated on a wide array of policy issues impacting the Company, including the First Amendment guarantee of a free press, retransmission consent and streaming video policy, business insurance and liability protection, advertising and corporate tax policy, spectrum, intellectual property and copyright, media ownership limitations, data privacy, Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act, antitrust enforcement and reform, artificial intelligence, sports betting and sports futures.

In 2023, FOX's U.S. federal lobbying expenses, as defined by the Lobbying Disclosure Act, totaled $4,090,000, which includes the relevant portion of employee salaries and travel expenses, and outside expenditures associated with lobbying activity.

FOX employs four executives charged with the Company's government relations activities and who are registered federal lobbyists under the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995. Those executives are:

Kristopher Jones, Executive Vice President and Head of Government Relations
 Jamie Gillespie, Executive Vice President of Government Relations

Alexandra Dillie, Director of Government Relations
Joanna Orlando, Director of Government Relations

Daniel O'Brien and Carissa Smith were also registered lobbyist for a portion of 2023. Mr. O'Brien departed the Company in 2023. Ms. Smith is now based in Los Angeles and no longer serves as a federal lobbyist for the Company.

FOX also retained consulting services in 2023 from the following firms that engage in federal lobbying activity as defined by the Lobbying Disclosure Act:

Alpine Advisors (January 1 to December 31)
BL Partners Group (January 1 to December 31)
Becker & Poliakoff (January 1 to June 30)
Capitol Counsel (January 1 to December 31)
EFB Advocacy (January 1 to December 31)
Empire Consulting Group (June 1 to December 31)
HillNorth (January 1 to December 31)
HSA Strategies (January 1 to December 31)
Subject Matter (May 1 to December 31)
The Madison Group (January 1 to June 30)
The O Team (January 1 to December 31)
Pat Williams and Associates (January 1 to June 30)
Todd Strategy Group (May 1 to December 31)

In 2023, FOX engaged outside lobbying services in Alabama, California, and New York. Additionally, FOX filed lobbying registration disclosures in New York, NY and Los Angeles, CA. FOX also retained outside lobbying services in Canada. Lobbying disclosures are filed and can be publicly accessed in each jurisdiction by visiting the respective website for each government body.

IV. INDUSTRY TRADE ORGANIZATIONS AND NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

FOX and its business units maintain membership in relevant industry trade organizations to advance the Company's commercial and policy objectives, with an eye toward improving industry dialogue among stakeholders with aligned interests. Fees paid in 2023 to such organizations are for general membership dues and not earmarked for direct or grassroots lobbying. In 2023, membership dues paid by FOX included:

ORGANIZATION	ANNUAL DUES
Americans for Tax Reform	$ 40,000
Business Roundtable	$ 200,000
CreativeFuture	$ 275,000
Digital Citizens Alliance	$ 176,000
Digital Content Next	$ 134,975
National Association of Broadcasters	$ 877,836
NCTA: The Internet and Television Association	$ 613,422

As part of its philanthropy, community engagement, and social responsibility programs, FOX contributes to non-profit entities across the country, with a focus on organizations that assist veterans and first responders, their families, underserved students and the teachers who support them, and disaster relief efforts. In 2023, the Company made three $1 million contributions to the American Red Cross in support of Hurricane Ian Relief Operations, the Southern and Midwest Tornadoes & Storms Relief Campaign as well as ongoing humanitarian relief efforts in Ukraine. FOX also made a $1 million donation to the United Jewish Appeal following the October 7 attacks in Israel. In an effort to leave a positive imprint in the Super Bowl LVII host city, we made a multi-year commitment to the Pat Tillman Veterans Center at Arizona State University to provide scholarship funding and mental health resources for student veterans. A separate U.S.VETS initiative saw FOX host the first-ever FOX Veteran's Day 5K on the FOX Studio Lot while also donating in-kind media reaching more than 100,000,000 viewers in addition to a $100,000 donation in support of the "Make Camo Your Cause" Campaign. FOX also expanded its "FOX for Students" initiative, making a multi-year commitment as a Founding Partner of the Roybal Film and Television Production Magnet Fund. This investment provides historically underrepresented college- and career-ready students with the resources and experiences to pursue below-the-line careers in the film and television industry through a public-private partnership with LA Unified School District. Additionally, FOX provides invaluable in-kind support through public service announcements and editorial coverage for non-profit organizations such as Big Brothers, Big Sisters, The National Alliance on Mental Illness, Common Goal and the Elizabeth Dole Foundation among many others.
